Revelation
Defending God and Encouraging His Saints

Lesson 1 - Introduction

Breaking the Code

2. Define apocalyptic literature? Why encrypt the message in symbols if intent is to reveal? What are the best sources for decoding its usage in Revelation?
† Revelation (apokalupsis) – uncovering, disclosure
† Apocalyptic – Highly symbolic, dramatic, fantastic
† Precedent for simultaneously revealing truth and obscuring it, even hardening hearts (Matthew 13:10-17; 11:15-25; 2 Thess. 2:9-12).
† Makes 260 to 400 allusions. No direct quotations. Only adaptations!

Writing Style

Literal Interpretation?

1. Is this a book to be interpreted literally? How do you know?
The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave Him to show His servants – things which must shortly take place. And He sent and signified it by His angel to His servant John, who bore witness to the word of God, and to the testimony of Jesus Christ, to all things that he saw. Blessed is he who reads and those who hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written in it; for the time is near. (Revelation 1:1-3)
† "signs", "visions", "prophecy" – 1:3; 9:17; 10:11; 12:1, 3; 15:1; 22:6-10
† "saw", "heard", "in the Spirit", "come up" – 1:2, 10; 4:1-2

Date of Writing

Date of Writing

3. What are the two most common date ranges advocated for the writing of Revelation? What is the fundamental reason for accepting each?
† Early Date (AD 54-69)
• Internal Evidence – Required to fit Destruction of Jerusalem & Judaism.
• External Evidence – Well-documented persecutions of Nero.
Early Date Support (AD 54-69)

† Horns – Counting Julius Caesar as first emperor, Nero is 6th (17:9-11).
† Direct References – Jewish persecution is mentioned (2:9; 3:9).
† Pre-Destruction – Temple is mentioned, so it would still be standing (11:1-19).
† OT Prophecy – Jerusalem had long history of killing saints and prophets (11:8; 16:5,6; 17:6; 18:20-24).

Late Date Support (AD 95-97)

† Earliest Dating – Irenaeus (AD 120-202), Clement of Alexandria, Tertullian, Victorinus, and Eusebius.
† Emperor Worship – Domitian was first to demand it across the empire. Asia Minor suffered the worst, earliest.
† Global Persecution – Nero’s persecution was limited to Rome. Domitian was first to persecute Christians across the empire.
† Global Harlot – Description of harlot matches influence, power, and geography of Rome much better than Jerusalem.
† Church Decay – Regression of Ephesian church suggests more time passed than just couple of years since positive epistles from Paul.
† Counter – Ezekiel (40) saw the temple in vision after destruction.

3. What are the two most common date ranges advocated for the writing of Revelation? What is the fundamental reason for accepting each?

† Early Date (AD 54-69)
  • Internal Evidence – Required to fit Destruction of Jerusalem & Judaism.
  • External Evidence – Well-documented persecutions of Nero.

† Late Date (AD 95-97)
  • Internal Evidence – Fits emperor worship & more broad persecution.

Rome – Profound Decay

- Wealthy, but empire grew mostly by conquest and slavery.
- Huge portion of population was slaves, later German immigrants.
- Sexual immorality & lust knew no bounds.
- Leadership exemplified unbridled excess & madness.
- Children were neglected & abused at early ages.

Views of Interpreting Revelation

5. Name and define the 5 most common views for interpreting the entire book of Revelation?

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>View</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>B. Preterist</td>
<td>Fulfilled in past. Often associated with Preterist view of NT. (2Tm.2:18)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C. Continuous Historical</td>
<td>– Ongoing record of history from early church to Reformation movement.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>D. Idealist (Philosophy of History, Spiritual, Symbolical)</td>
<td>– Never applies but always applies. Represents underlying mechanics of all spiritual conflicts.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>E. Historical Background</td>
<td>– Primarily fulfilled in the past (like Preterist), but emphasizes ongoing applicability (like Idealist).</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Interpretation

Views of the Millenium

4. Name and define the 3 most common views for interpreting the millennium of chapter 20?

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>View</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A. Premillennial</td>
<td>– Jesus returns before literal 1000 year reign. May be dispensational.</td>
</tr>

<td>– Jesus returns after literal 1000 year reign. utopia.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C. Amillennial</td>
<td>– 1000 year reign is symbolic, long, indefinite time.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Major Themes

6. What prominent themes appear throughout Revelation?

- Sovereignty of God – War, Overcome, Victory (Daniel 4:17).
- Righteousness of God – Just in avenging saints upon persecutors. God wants us to understand He is just (Hebrews 8:10-11; Romans 3:3-5, 24-26). Common theme (Eccles. 3:16-17; 4:1; Psalm 73).
- Worthiness of the Lamb – Jesus alone is worthy to redeem, save His people, execute justice, lead God’s army, judge, and provide light.
- Love of God – Cares for His people. Punishes incrementally, providing ample opportunity to repent.
- Faithful unto Death – Requires commitment, obedience, faithfulness.
- Does God see? Does He know? Does He care? What is He doing?

Significance of Numbers

7. How are numbers generally used to communicate in this book?

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Number</th>
<th>Significance</th>
</tr>

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1</td>
<td>Unity or Uniqueness (Revelation 17:13).</td>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>3½</td>
<td>Broken or Interrupted 7, Divine intervention</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4</td>
<td>The Whole World (Isaiah 11:12; Jeremiah 49:36; Ezekiel 37:9; Daniel 7:2; 11:4; Zechariah 2:6; Matthew 24:3; 13:27; Rev. 7:1)</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Significance of Numbers

7. How are numbers generally used to communicate in this book?
   † 5 – Partial, Broken, or Interrupted 10. (Matthew 25:2).
   † 6 – Man, Failure, Disapproval, Failure – falling short of 7 (Genesis 1:27-31; Revelation 4:8; 13:8).
   † 7 – Divine Consummation, Extent or Measurement of God, Work or Capacity of God (Genesis 2:1-3). Occurs 54 times in Revelation.
   † 10 – Completion, Perfection, Power – Maybe based on 10 fingers?
   † 12 – God’s people in any one place or dispensation (based on 12 tribes, 12 apostles).
   † Combinations: 1000=10x10x10; 144,000=12x12x10x10x10.

Reminders

1) Maintain original applicability.
2) Don’t lose sight of the forest for the trees.
3) Daniel, Zechariah, Ezekiel and other apocalyptic books came first.
4) Interpret difficult passages in light of clearer.
5) Some question about specific details, but general message is clear.

Summary

Major Outline

I. Introduction – Christ among the Lampstands (1-3)
II. Revealing God’s Plan for Judgment (4-6)
III. Warning through Partial Judgment (8-11)
IV. Flashback: Original source of conflict and agents (12-14)
V. Executing Final, Earthly Judgment (15-16)
VI. Doom of Harlot, Beasts and Dragon – Victory of Christ (17-20:9)
VII. Eternal Judgment & Reward – Conclusion & Invitation (20:10-22)

Overall Message

8. What is the overall message of the book?
   † Worthy is the Lamb!
   † Overcoming with the Lamb
   † More than Conquerors (Romans 8:18-39)
   † Visions of Victory
   † Jesus has already won. Will you win with Him?

Revelation

Defending God and Encouraging His Saints

Lesson 2 – Christ among the Lampstands #1
Introduction – Revelation 1:1-7

Revelation “About” or “From” Jesus?

1. Grammatically, the “Revelation of Jesus Christ” could refer to a message about Jesus or a message from Jesus. From the context, can you tell which meaning is intended? If so, what are the implications?

   The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave Him to show His servants – things which must shortly take place. And He sent and signified it by His angel to His servant John. (Revelation 1:1)

   † Context lends itself to chain of revelation, therefore “from” Jesus.
   † However, both Jesus and the Father are central figures in the book.
   † Revelation’s depiction of Jesus is unique, far surpassing the form shown in the gospels and OT (Mark 9:1-6; Philippians 2:6-11).
   † Better understanding true nature of Jesus will prove inspiring …

Time of Fulfillment?

2. What general time frame was provided for the fulfillment of the visions recorded in Revelation? How does this impact the various views for interpreting Revelation?

   The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave Him to show His servants – things which must shortly take place. And He sent and signified it by His angel to His servant John. (Revelation 1:1-3)

   † Eliminate Futurist, which makes application 2000+ years later.
   † Eliminate Idealist – never makes any more application – near or far.

Beloved Greetings

4. How is Jesus described in the greeting? How would this description help first-century Christians suffering persecution?

   • Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn from the dead, the ruler over the kings of the earth.
   • Him who loved us and washed us from our sins in His own blood, and has made us kings and priests to His God and Father, to Him be glory and dominion forever and ever. (Revelation 1:5-6)

   † Savior of Prophecy – fulfilled promises
   † He Himself was faithful unto death
   † Conquered death and resurrected
   † Power over all earthly empires
   † Being who cares – not callous
   † Saved us by sacrificing His own life.
   † Shows extent of love and commitment.
   † Rewarded us with authority and a heavenly task to help save others.
   † Truly worthy of praise
   † Provides hope, courage, and confidence!

“Day of the Lord”

5. Does Jesus’ coming – as recorded in verse 7 – necessarily refer to His return at the end of the world? Why or why not? If not, to what other events could it apply? Please investigate the phrase, “the day of the Lord”, as used throughout the Bible.

   † “coming with clouds” and “the day of the Lord” are ambiguous terms, which can mean any day of decisive judgment and salvation.
“The Day of the Lord”

† Egypt (Isaiah 19:1; 46:1-13; Ezekiel 30:3; 32:7)
† Babylon (Isaiah 13:1-19)
† Edom (Obadiah 1:1-15)
† Israel (Amos 5:1, 15-27)
† Judah (Ezekiel 34:12; Joel 1:15; 2:11)
† Jerusalem (Zephaniah 1:1-16; Matthew 24:29-30; Mark 13:24-26)
† Establishment of the Church, Messianic Kingdom (Joel 2:31-32; 3:14; Malachi 4:1-6; Acts 2:16-21)
† End of the World (Acts 1:9-11; 1 Thessalonians 5:1-2; 2 Peter 3:10).

Establishment of Church?

Behold, He is coming with clouds, and every eye will see Him, even they who pierced Him. And all the tribes of the earth will mourn because of Him. Even so, Amen. (Revelation 1:7)

“And I will pour on the house of David and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem the Spirit of grace and supplication; then they will look on Me whom they pierced. Yes, they will mourn for Him as one mourns for his only son, and grieve for Him as one grieves for a firstborn. In that day there shall be a great mourning in Jerusalem … In that day a fountain shall be opened for the house of David and for the inhabitants of Jerusalem, for sin and for uncleanness.” (Zechariah 12:10-13:1)

† Refers to day of Pentecost, establishment of church – already passed.

Destruction of Jerusalem?

Behold, He is coming with clouds, and every eye will see Him, even they who pierced Him. And all the tribes of the earth will mourn because of Him. Even so, Amen. (Revelation 1:7)

“Immediately after the tribulation of those days the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light; the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken. Then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in heaven, and then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.” (Matt. 24:29-30)

But He kept silent and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked Him, saying to Him, “Are You the Christ, the Son of the Blessed?” Jesus said, “I am. And you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of the Power, and coming with the clouds of heaven.” (Mark 14:61-62)

† Refers to the destruction of Jerusalem in AD 70 – already passed.

Destruction of Rome!

Behold, He is coming with clouds, and every eye will see Him, even they who pierced Him. And all the tribes of the earth will mourn because of Him. Even so, Amen. (Revelation 1:7)

Therefore, because it was the Preparation Day, that the bodies should not remain on the cross on the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was a high day), the Jews asked Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. Then the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first and of the other who was crucified with Him. … But one of the soldiers pierced His side with a spear … For these things were done that the Scripture should be fulfilled: “Not one of His bones shall be broken.” And again another Scripture says: “They shall look on Him whom they pierced” (Jn. 19:31-37)

† Language used to apply to Jerusalem’s rejection of Jesus and Messianic kingdom and their destruction are figuratively transferred to Rome, those who actually crucified Jesus. This would be a second or third fulfillment of Zec.

Exiled to Patmos for Preaching Jesus

6. Where was John when he received these visions? Why was he there?

I, John, both your brother and companion in the tribulation and kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was on the island that is called Patmos for the word of God and for the testimony of Jesus Christ. (Revelation 1:9)

† Exiled to the island of Patmos.
† Irenaeus said he was working in the mines.
† Persecuted as a result of his preaching (Matthew 5:10-12).
The Great Tribulation

7. Premillennialists believe that Revelation foretells of a great tribulation that proceeds the future millennial reign of Christ on earth. How does John’s condition refute that?

I, John, both your brother and companion in the tribulation and kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was on the island that is called Patmos for the word of God and for the testimony of Jesus Christ. (Revelation 1:9)

† John was already in “the tribulation”.
† The tribulation cannot be future, since it was present for John.

The Angels of the Churches

“The mystery of the seven stars which you saw in My right hand, and the seven golden lampstands: The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches, and the seven lampstands which you saw are the seven churches. To the angel of the church of Ephesus write…” (Rev 1:20f)

10. If you did not have a preconceived definition for “angels”, how would you define the “angels of the churches” based on the usage of the term in verse 20 and the repeated address throughout chapters 2 and 3?

† Natural stars provide light, direction.
† They often represent leaders of influence, people of significance.

Christ among the Lampstands

8. How is Jesus described in verses 10-16? What might these details represent about Jesus?

• the Alpha and Omega, the First and Last
• in the midst of the seven lampstands
• One like the Son of Man
• Clothed with a garment down to the feet and girded about the chest with a golden band.
• His head and hair were white like wool, as white as snow
• His eyes like a flame of fire
• His feet were like fine brass, as if refined in a furnace
• His voice as the sound of many waters;
• He had in His right hand seven stars
• Out of His mouth went a sharp two-edged sword
• His countenance was like the sun shining in its strength. (Revelation 1:11-16)

• Eternity and sovereignty
• Oversight, knowledge, administration of churches
• King of Prophecy (Daniel 7:9-18)
• Royalty and holiness
• Ancient of days, eternity (Daniel 7:9)
• Penetrating sight, omniscience
• Power to tread kingdoms, possible proven worthiness
• Sheer power
• Control, authority over the churches
• Power to convict, judge (Jud 3:12-14; Heb. 4:12)
• Glory, power, holiness

† Angels are servants of God who serve God’s people, doing His will, often proclaiming His will (Heb. 1:7, 14; 2:2; Acts 27:3; Gal. 3:19).
† The “stars of the churches” and the “angel of the churches” represent the most influential leaders, “pillars” of the church, those best equipped to receive the message written, proclaim it, and enact reform – such as elders and evangelists (Galatians 2:9; Luke 12:48; 1 Peter 5:1-4; Ezekiel 34:1-10; Titus 1:5).

Victorious over Death

9. How did Jesus describe Himself to John? How was this supposed to affect John? Why would it have been encouraging to first century saints?

And when I saw Him, I fell at His feet as dead. But He laid His right hand on me, saying to me, “Do not be afraid; I am the First and the Last. I am He who lives, and was dead, and behold, I am alive forevermore. Amen. And I have the keys of Hades and of Death. Write the things which you have seen, and the things which are, and the things which will take place after this.” (Revelation 1:17-20)

† Not asking us to do what He has not suffered.
† Not just beaten death, but mastered it! … Great confidence, comfort.
Introduction

† “Seven Churches” – Symbolic, represents churches everywhere as a whole (because of “7” and omits Colossae, Hierapolis, and Troas).

† Common outline (Harkrider):
1. Salutation
2. Christ’s self-designation
3. Commendation
4. Complaint
5. Counsel: warning and exhortation
6. Promises of reward to those who overcome
7. Closing invitation to hear

† Self-designations form same, composite view of Christ from ch. 1.
† Historical background dramatically helps appreciation of letters.

Christ Judging His Churches

† Although Jesus will ultimate judge the nations, the wicked, and the Devil, He begins with correcting His own house.

For the time has come for judgment to begin at the house of God; and if it begins with us first, what will be the end of those who do not obey the gospel of God? (1 Peter 4:17)

“...Utterly slay old and young men, maidens and little children and women; but do not come near anyone on whom is the mark; and begin at My sanctuary. " So they began with the elders who were before the temple. (Ezekiel 9:1-6)

Church of Ephesus

Revelation 2:1-7

A Diligent, Sound Church

1. What positive virtues does Jesus acknowledge and commend in the Ephesian church? What lessons can we learn from what they did right?

“I know your works, your labor, your patience, and that you cannot bear those who are evil. And you have tested those who say they are apostles and are not, and have found them liars; and you have persevered and have patience, and have labored for My name’s sake and have not become weary.” (Revelation 2:2-3)

† Diligent doing good for Jesus – not growing weary (Gal. 6:9-10).
† Diligent in testing and exposing false teachers (1 Jn. 4:1; 2 Jn. 9-11; Rom. 16:17-18; Titus 1:9-11; 2 Cor. 10:3-5; Mat. 7:15-20).

Leaving Our First Love

2. What rebuke did Jesus provide the Ephesian church? Was this merely an attitude or motivation issue? How can you tell? What lessons can we learn from their failures?

“Nevertheless I have this against you, that you have left your first love. Remember therefore from where you have fallen; repent and do the first works, or else I will come to you quickly and remove your lampstand from its place – unless you repent.” (Revelation 2:4-5)

† They had “left their first love”. No hint previously (Eph. 1:16).
† 30 years had passed since Ephesians was written. 2nd generation Christians?
† Danger of losing “lampstand”?
† More than just attitude. Required: remembering, rising, repenting, and “doing the first works”.
† What works cease when love grows cold, while others continue?
† Personal evangelism? Brotherly love? Benevolence? Purity?
Doctrine or Love?

3. Often people complain that churches spend too much time on doctrine and others spend too much time emphasizing love and grace. Based on Jesus’ review of the Ephesian church, what can we learn of His expectations for us?

“But this you have, that you hate the deeds of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate.” (Revelation 2:6)

† False dilemma – not either-or! Jesus expects both (Matthew 23:23).
† Jesus expected them to continue to expose false teachers …
† And reestablish their first love and associated works!

Literal Jews?

“…and I know the blasphemy of those who say they are Jews and are not, but are a synagogue of Satan. Do not fear any of those things which you are about to suffer.” (Revelation 2:8-10)

5. Was the church in Smyrna being persecuted by literal Jews? If not, how would these people have been figuratively, spiritually similar to Jews?

† Symbolic of false Christians, supposed God’s people (Gal. 6:16; Rom. 9:6).
† Or, literal Jews, like literal “apostles” & “Nicolaïtans” (2:2, 6).
† Temple to Tiberius. Center of emperor worship.
† True Jews would not worship emperor (Esther 3:1-5). These did.
† These Jews happily reported Christians to Rome.

“Be Faithful until Death”

6. Jesus expected them to be prepared to suffer to what extent? Was this a literal “ten days”? If not, what did it represent?

“Do not fear any of those things which you are about to suffer. Indeed, the devil is about to throw some of you into prison, that you may be tested, and you will have tribulation ten days. Be faithful until death, and I will give you the crown of life.” (Revelation 2:10)

† Be prepared to suffer complete, full “tribulation” (10 days).
† Include imprisonment – possibly martyrdom, death.
† Needed to understand it was not the end, but a “test” with a reward.
† Incidentally, passing but first reference to “the devil”.

Church of Smyrna
Revelation 2:8-11

Credible Encouragement

4. How would Jesus’ introduction and sharing His knowledge of the church in Smyrna have strengthened their faith?

“And to the angel of the church in Smyrna write, ‘These things says the First and the Last, who was dead, and came to life: I know your works, tribulation, and poverty (but you are rich); and I know the blasphemy of those who say they are Jews and are not, but are a synagogue of Satan. Do not fear any of those things which you are about to suffer.’” (Revelation 2:8-10)

† Jesus also died and was resurrected.
† Jesus knows their current suffering and future suffering.
† Jesus knows their true wealth.
† Only Jesus could say, “Do not fear …”.

“The Crown of Life”

7. How would His final benediction to them have exhorted them?

“Do not fear any of those things which you are about to suffer. Indeed, the devil is about to throw some of you into prison, that you may be tested, and you will have tribulation ten days. Be faithful until death, and I will give you the crown of life. He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. He who overcomes shall not be hurt by the second death.” (Revelation 2:10-11)

† A new life follows the first death.
† Overcoming would provide a reward of life and immunity to “the second death” (20:14-15; 21:8).
† Another death is coming, more to be feared than the first.
8/15/2017

Church of Pergamos
Revelation 2:12-17

8. What commendation did Jesus provide the church in Pergamos?

“I know your works, and where you dwell, where Satan’s throne is. And you hold fast to My name, and did not deny My faith even in the days in which Antipas was My faithful martyr who was killed among you, where Satan dwells.” (Revelation 2:13)

† Official capital of Asia Minor.
† Pergamos was the most idolatrous.
† Temples to Zeus, Athena, Dionysus, Aesculapius, Roma, & Augustus.
† Center of Imperial Cult (emperor worship).
† Legal, political center for district.
† Lived in an extremely difficult place, where Satan ruled and lived.
† Some had already given their life in faithfulness – not unseen.

Living in Satan’s Capital

9. Was everyone in Pergamos similarly uncompromising? How had they compromised? Why might they have been more vulnerable or open to this form of compromise compared to Antipas’ exhibition of conviction? What lessons can we learn from them?

“But I have a few things against you, because you have there those who hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balak to put a stumbling block before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed to idols, and to commit sexual immorality. Thus you also have those who hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitans, which thing I hate.” (Revelation 2:14-15)

† Balaam counseled Balak how to make the Israelites compromise through idolatry, turning God against them (Num. 25:1-18; 31:1-16).
† Deceived versus straightforward temptation (Gen. 3:1-6; 2 Cor. 11:3).

Undermining the Nicolaitans

“Thus you also have those who hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitans, which thing I hate. …To him who overcomes I will give some of the hidden manna to eat. And I will give him a white stone, and on the stone a new name written which no one knows except him who receives it.” (Revelation 2:15-17)
10. What did the Nicolaitans teach? How would Jesus’ closing benediction have diminished their appeal?
† Associated with Gnosticism – flesh was already evil, and through secret knowledge, spirit was unaffected by deeds of the flesh.
† The special, secret knowledge belonged to Jesus – not Nicolaitans.
† Only by overcoming could one partake in the hidden, secret.

Deceived through False Doctrine

Church of Thyatira
Revelation 2:18-29

11. How would Jesus’ introduction of Himself to the church in Thyatira have substantiated His objections?

“And to the angel of the church in Thyatira write, ‘These things says the Son of God, who has eyes like a flame of fire, and His feet like fine brass: …’” (Revelation 2:18)
† Sovereign king who rules and judges forever (Daniel 7:13-14).
† Omniscient being, who sees through every façade.
† Purified executioner, worthy and capable of treading out God’s wrath.

The Omniscient King & Judge
The Prophetess, Jezebel

12. What unusual mercy did the Lord show the woman known as Jezebel? Was this a literal Jezebel? If not, who did she represent or typify?

“Nevertheless I have a few things against you, because you allow that woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess, to teach and seduce My servants to commit sexual immorality and eat things sacrificed to idols. And I gave her time to repent of her sexual immorality, and she did not repent.” (Revelation 2:20-21)

† “allow” – let go, permit, forgive (Strong’s)
† Condemned for forgiving what God had not (2 Thess. 3:6; 1 Cor. 5).
† Her false teaching seduced people to compromise, worship idols.
† Represents an aggressive, powerful, seductive agent of error (1 Kng. 21:25).
† Even such a person was given ample opportunity to repent (2 Peter 3:9).

The Doom of Jezebel & Her Children

13. What ultimate judgment did Jezebel and “her children” face? If these children are not to be literally interpreted, who do they represent or typify?

“Indeed I will cast her into a sickbed, and those who commit adultery with her into great tribulation, unless they repent of their deeds. I will kill her children with death, and all the churches shall know that I am He who searches the minds and hearts. And I will give to each one of you according to your works.” (Revelation 2:22-23)

† Condemnation and death loomed before her and her children.
† Her children would be those who followed her, depended on her.

Church of Sardis
Revelation 3:1-6

“The Morning Star”

11. What reward did Jesus extend to those who overcame?

“No to you I say, and to the rest in Thyatira, as many as do not have this doctrine, who have not known the depths of Satan, as they say, I will put on you no other burden. But hold fast what you have till I come. And he who overcomes, and keeps My works until the end, to him I will give power over the nations – ‘He shall rule them with a rod of iron; They shall be dashed to pieces like the potter’s vessels’ – as I also have received from My Father; and I will give him the morning star.” (Revelation 2:24-28)

† Not deceived by ignorance of sin (1 Corinthians 14:20).
† Rewarded with powerful authority and influence.
† Forgiven, we reign with Christ, transcending the power of men and even nations (Revelation 5:9-10; Daniel 7:13-18; Romans 5:17; Matthew 10:28; Psalm 2:8-9).
† May refer to power to appeal to God about nations (Daniel 9).

A Misleading Name

1. What was wrong with the church in Sardis? Why was this surprising?

“What lessons can we learn from this judgment?”

“And to the angel of the church in Sardis write, ‘These things says He who has the seven Spirits of God and the seven stars: “I know your works, that you have a name that you are alive, but you are dead.”’” (Revelation 3:1)

† They were actually spiritually dead, although known to be alive!
† Can be as good as dead, although living (1 Timothy 5:6).
† Others’ estimation is independent of reality (3 Jn. 9-10; 1 Cor. 4:1-5).
† Must focus on God’s approval – not man’s (John 12:42-43).
† Jesus’ self-designation indicates knowledge and authority.
Forgetting the Past, Reaching Forward

2. What choice did Jesus provide for the church? And, what would be the outcomes of the 2 possible options? What lessons can we learn from this admonition?

“Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die, for I have not found your works perfect before God. Remember therefore how you have received and heard; hold fast and repent. Therefore if you will not watch, I will come upon you as a thief, and you will not know what hour I will come upon you.” (Revelation 3:2-3)

† Failure to “watch” would result in sudden destruction.
† Some good, partial good does not imply safety (Matthew 7:21-23).
† Christians must continually press forward (Philippians 3:12-14).

“A Few Names Even in Sardis”

3. Did this pending judgment apply to everyone at Sardis? Why or why not? What can we learn about staying versus leaving a church?

“You have a few names even in Sardis who have not defiled their garments: and they shall walk with Me in white, for they are worthy. He who overcomes shall be clothed in white garments, and I will not blot out his name from the Book of Life; but I will confess his name before My Father and before His angels.” (Revelation 3:4-5)

† No, “a few names” would “walk with” Jesus “in white”.
† Indicates that they had not participated in sin, prevalent with others.
† A church with many who have “defiled garments” does not imply all.
† However, collective action and fellowship with those in impenitent, public sin “defiles their garments” (2 John 9-11), requiring a break.
† May part ways amicably for matters of judgment (Acts 15:37-40).
† Crushes Calvinism’s abhorrence for considering self worthy in any way.

Overcoming Fear that Silences

“He who overcomes shall be clothed in white garments, and I will not blot out his name from the Book of Life; but I will confess his name before My Father and before His angels.” (Revelation 3:5)

4. In what other passage did Jesus promise to confess the name of saints before His Father? How might this relate to this context?

“And do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. But rather fear Him who is able to destroy both soul and body in hell. … Do not fear therefore; … Therefore whoever confesses Me before men, him I will also confess before My Father who is in heaven. But whoever denies Me before men, him I will also deny before My Father who is in heaven.” (Matthew 10:28-33)

† Jesus identified persecution as primary threat to confession.

The Unshutable, Open Door

5. Why was an “open door” presented to the church in Philadelphia? How else has this figure been used in the Bible? How might it apply to this church?

“And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write, ‘These things says He who is holy, He who is true, “He who has the key of David, He who opens and no one shuts, and shuts and no one opens: I know your works. See, I have set before you an open door, and no one can shut it; for you have a little strength, have kept My word, and have not denied My name.”’ (Revelation 3:7-8)

† Represents a significant, rare opportunity or entrance (1 Corinthians 16:9; 2 Corinthians 2:12; Colossians 4:3-6).
† Often associated with preaching and evangelism.
† “Key of David” may be reference to letting people in Messianic kingdom.
† Granted opportunity to teach and preach, possibly to penitent Jews.
† “Closed door” represents missed opportunity for salvation (Mt.25:10-12; Lk.13:25).
† The irreversibility indicates control, sovereignty, and deity (Ezekiel 44:1-3).

“Everyone Who Has Will Be Given”

6. What imminent rewards did Jesus promise them? Why were they to receive this blessing?

“And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write, ‘These things says He who is holy, He who is true, “He who has the key of David, He who opens and no one shuts, and shuts and no one opens: I know your works. See, I have set before you an open door, and no one can shut it; for you have a little strength, have kept My word, and have not denied My name.”’ (Revelation 3:7-8)

† Likewise, He takes them away from those who overlook them!
6. What imminent rewards did Jesus promise them? Why were they to receive this blessing?

“Indeed I will make those of the synagogue of Satan, who say they are Jews and are not, but lie – indeed I will make them come and worship before your feet, and to know that I have loved you. Because you have kept My command to persevere, I also will keep you from the hour of trial which shall come upon the whole world; to test those who dwell on the earth.” (Revelation 3:9-10)

† Persecution would refine, test those who suffered (James 1:2-8).
† Those overcoming early were granted extra opportunity to do God’s work, to save others (Luke 16:9-12).

7. What eternal rewards awaited them? What was expected of them to receive this final blessing?

“Behold, I am coming quickly! Hold fast what you have, that no one may take your crown. He who overcomes, I will make him a pillar in the temple of My God, and he shall go out no more. I will write on him the name of My God and the name of the city of My God, the New Jerusalem, which comes down out of heaven from My God. And I will write on him My new name.” (Revelation 3:11-12)

† Prominent monuments of Solomon’s temple (1 Kings 7:21):
  • “Boaz” – Means “strength”; Ancestor of David the King (Ruth 4:13-22).
  • “Jachin” – Means “He will establish”; Priest during David’s reign (1 Chr. 24:17).
† Be part of God’s temple (1 Peter 2:4-5).
† Be recognized and claimed by God (Exodus 6:7; Rev. 7:3; 13:16-18).
† Their crown and reward could be stolen if they didn’t “hold fast”.

8. Jesus claimed to be the “Beginning of the creation of God” (3:14).
Does this necessarily imply that He was created? What does this mean?
† archē – Meaning is the beginning as in origin, first cause. Secondary meaning is first in series. (Strong’s, Friberg, Barclay Newman, Louv-Nida, Liddell-Scott, Thayer’s, Lust-Eynikel-Haußpie).
† All things were created by Jesus as the beginning, in the beginning (Colossians 3:16-17; John 1:1; Genesis 1:1).

9. What was the fundamental failure of Laodicea?

“I know your works, that you are neither cold nor hot. I could wish you were cold or hot. So then, because you are lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will vomit you out of My mouth. Because you say, ‘I am rich, have become wealthy, and have need of nothing’ – and do not know that you are wretched, miserable, poor, blind, and naked…” (Revelation 3:15-17)

A. Uncaring, do nothing, flat – neither good nor bad – just there.
B. Arrogant and Blind – Thought they needed nothing!
† Scary prospect to be so out of touch with reality, blind to ourselves:
  • Must love truth profoundly (2 Thessalonians 2:9-12).
  • Must examine self regularly in light of truth – and act (James 1:16-25)!

10. What was the remedy provided by Jesus? What can we learn from Jesus’ message to this church?

“I counsel you to buy from Me gold refined in the fire, that you may be rich; and white garments, that you may be clothed, that the shame of your nakedness may not be revealed; and anoint your eyes with eye salve, that you may see. As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten. Therefore be zealous and repent. Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and dine with him, and he with Me.” (Revelation 3:18-20)

† Do not become complacent!
† Must be zealous (John 2:13-17)!

Church of Laodicea
Revelation 3:14-22

“In the Beginning …”

“And to the angel of the church of the Laodiceans write, ‘These things says the Amen, the Faithful and True Witness, the Beginning of the creation of God’” (Revelation 3:14).

A Desperate Need for Zeal

“I counsel you to buy from Me gold refined in the fire, that you may be rich; and white garments, that you may be clothed, that the shame of your nakedness may not be revealed; and anoint your eyes with eye salve, that you may see. As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten. Therefore be zealous and repent. Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and dine with him, and he with Me.” (Revelation 3:18-20)

† Do not become complacent!
† Must be zealous (John 2:13-17)!

The Vomit Worthy Church

9. What was the fundamental failure of Laodicea?

“I know your works, that you are neither cold nor hot. I could wish you were cold or hot. So then, because you are lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will vomit you out of My mouth. Because you say, ‘I am rich, have become wealthy, and have need of nothing’ – and do not know that you are wretched, miserable, poor, blind, and naked…” (Revelation 3:15-17)

A. Uncaring, do nothing, flat – neither good nor bad – just there.
B. Arrogant and Blind – Thought they needed nothing!
† Scary prospect to be so out of touch with reality, blind to ourselves:
  • Must love truth profoundly (2 Thessalonians 2:9-12).
  • Must examine self regularly in light of truth – and act (James 1:16-25)!

A Desperate Need for Zeal

10. What was the remedy provided by Jesus? What can we learn from Jesus’ message to this church?

“I counsel you to buy from Me gold refined in the fire, that you may be rich; and white garments, that you may be clothed, that the shame of your nakedness may not be revealed; and anoint your eyes with eye salve, that you may see. As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten. Therefore be zealous and repent. Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and dine with him, and he with Me.” (Revelation 3:18-20)

† Do not become complacent!
† Must be zealous (John 2:13-17)!

Test Exemption
6. What imminent rewards did Jesus promise them? Why were they to receive this blessing?

“Indeed I will make those of the synagogue of Satan, who say they are Jews and are not, but lie – indeed I will make them come and worship before your feet, and to know that I have loved you. Because you have kept My command to persevere, I also will keep you from the hour of trial which shall come upon the whole world; to test those who dwell on the earth.” (Revelation 3:9-10)

† Persecution would refine, test those who suffered (James 1:2-8).
† Those overcoming early were granted extra opportunity to do God’s work, to save others (Luke 16:9-12).
“He Who has an Ear to Ear”

“...let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.” (Revelation 2:7, 11, 17, 29; 3:6, 13, 22)

11. What does this phrase mean? Why is it repeated?
   † Means to pay careful attention, consider carefully (Psalm 10:17; Proverbs 22:17; Isaiah 28:23).
   † Generally associated with statements that are either difficult to understand or difficult to accept (Matthew 11:7-15; 13:9, 43; Mark 4:23; 7:16; Luke 8:8; 14:35).
   † God does not intend for everyone to understand (2 Thess. 2:9-12; 2 Peter 3:9).
   † Serves as a warning!
   † Dangers are pride, being stiff-necked, rebellious, arrogant (Jeremiah 6:10; 13:15; 17:23).

A Door into Heaven

1. As this vision opens, where is John transported? What is the timeframe of its fulfillment?
   After these things I looked, and behold, a door standing open in heaven. And the first voice which I heard was like a trumpet speaking with me, saying, “Come up here, and I will show you things which must take place after this.” Immediately I was in the Spirit; and behold, a throne set in heaven, and One sat on the throne. (Revelation 4:1-2)
   † Heaven – the “third heaven” (2 Corinthians 12:1-4)
   † “after this” – suggests immediacy, not distant future
   † Another verse that eliminates Futurist position.
   † Being both “in heaven” and “in the Spirit” suggests figurative, not literal interpretation, again eliminating Futurist position.

The King of Existence

2. Who is represented by the One sitting on the throne? How is He described?
   Immediately I was in the Spirit; and behold, a throne set in heaven, and One sat on the throne. And He who sat there was like a jasper and a sardius stone in appearance; and there was a rainbow around the throne, in appearance like an emerald. (Revelation 4:2-3)
   † King of Existence – God, the Father (Revelation 20:11-12).
   † “jasper stone” – precious gemstone stone, commonly red today, probably green in NT day, but “clear as crystal” (21:11, 18).
   † “sardius stone” – reddish precious stone.
   † First and Last stones for God’s people (Exodus 28:17-21; 39:10-14).
   † First and Last of list representing “every precious stone” (Ezekiel 28:13).
   † All that is good and precious dwells in Him.
Identifying the 24 Elders

Around the throne were twenty-four thrones, and on the thrones I saw twenty-four elders sitting, clothed in white robes; and they had crowns of gold on their heads. (Revelation 4:3-4)

3. Who do the 24 elders represent?
† Elders associated with leadership of the people, often spiritual (Exodus 12:21; Numbers 11:16-167; Deuteronomy 31:9; 1 Chronicles 11:3; Matthew 15:2; Acts 11:30; 14:23; 15:2-23; 20:17; Titus 1:5). Elders of: cities, tribes, nations, and churches.
† 2 x 12 – Leaders for all of God’s people (associated with wisdom, judgment, discernment: Job 12:20; Psalm 105:22; Ezekiel 7:26):
• Probably not Jew & Gentile (Galatians 3:28; Ephesians 2:11-15).
• In heaven and on the earth

“The Seven Spirits of God”

And from the throne proceeded lightnings, thunders, and voices. Seven lamps of fire were burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God. (Revelation 4:5)

5. Who or what is represented by the 7 burning lamps of fire before the throne? What is suggested by this description?
† The Holy Spirit – 7 simultaneous spirits represents omnipresence.
† Seven lamps of fire represent omniscience of the Holy Spirit: And he said to me, “What do you see?” So I said, “I am looking, and there is a lampstand of solid gold with a bowl on top of it, and on the seven stands lamps with seven pipes to the seven lamps. So I answered and spoke to the angel who talked with me, saying, “What are these, my lord?”. . . . So he answered and said to me: “This is the word of the LORD to Zerubbabel: ‘Not by might nor by power, but by My Spirit,’ says the LORD of hosts. . . . For who has despised the day of small things? For these seven rejoice to see The plumb line in the hand of Zerubbabel. They are the eyes of the LORD, Which scan to and fro throughout the whole earth.” (Zec. 4:2-10)

The Elders’ Crowns & Robes

4. What is the significance of the elders’ crowns and robes?
Around the throne were twenty-four thrones, and on the thrones I saw twenty-four elders sitting, clothed in white robes; and they had crowns of gold on their heads. (Revelation 4:3-4)
† “crown” (stephanos) – crown of victory, prize, accomplishment (Matthew 7:29; 1 Cor. 9:25; Philippians 4:1; 1 Thessalonians 2:19; 2 Timothy 4:8; James 1:12; 1 Peter 5:4; Revelation 2:10; 3:11).
† stephanos – worn by Christians, elders, ruler on white horse (6:2), locusts (9:7), glorious woman (12:1), “One Like the Son of Man” (14:4)
† diadema – royal crown, Kingly headdress; worn by Christ (19:12) and the dragon (12:3) and his sea beast (13:1)
† “white robes” – holiness, purity, righteousness, victory

Those Before the Throne Revelation 4:6-11

“The Sea Before the Throne

Before the throne was sea of glass like crystal, and in the midst of the throne, and around the throne, were four living creatures full of eyes in front and in back. (Revelation 4:6)

A. Sometimes, “the sea” means just the sea, ocean (5:13; 14:7; 18:17-21; 20:8).
B. Something from which kings and empires arise (13:1) . . .
† Something afflicted (7:1-3; 8:8-10; 16:3). Literat ors or segment of opinion B?
† Difficult to confidently categorize (10:2-8; 12:12; 20:13). Possibly A or B.
C. Death – uninhabited barrier to God, sometimes on fire, ceases in eternity.

B. Something from which kings and empires arise (13:1) . . .
† Something afflicted (7:1-3; 8:8-10; 16:3). Literary or segment of opinion B?
† Difficult to confidently categorize (10:2-8; 12:12; 20:13). Possibly A or B.
C. Death – uninhabited barrier to God, sometimes on fire, ceases in eternity.
The Four Living Creatures?

Revelation 4:4-11

1. Six living creatures were standing before God, and before the throne. 2. They were like a living fire! 3. Each of the four living creatures had six wings: two sets of wings. 4. The wings were full of eyes, on both sides of its body, and its body. 5. The Cherubim had four faces, a man, a lion, an ox, and an eagle. 6. Each of them had four wings. 7. The wings were full of eyes, full of eyes, and full of eyes. 8. The four living creatures were full of eyes all around them.

Ezekiel 1:3-10

1. There was the likeness of a man. 2. The likeness of a lion. 3. The likeness of an ox. 4. The likeness of an eagle. 5. The four wings were full of eyes, full of eyes.

Ezekiel 10:1-20

1. The likeness of the cherubim was like the likeness of the cherubim. 2. Each cherub had four wings. 3. The wings were full of eyes, full of eyes.

The Four Living Creatures

Before the throne there was a sea of glass, like crystal. And in the midst of the throne, and around the throne, were four living creatures: full of eyes in front and in back. The first living creature was like a lion, the second living creature was like an ox, the third living creature had a face like a man, and the fourth living creature was like a flying eagle. The four living creatures, each having six wings, were full of eyes around and within. And they do not rest day or night, saying: “Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, Who was and is and is to come!” (Revelation 4:6-8)

7. Please compare this description of the “four living creatures” to the four beings mentioned in Ezekiel 1 & 10. How are they similar? How are they different? Who are these creatures, and what can we learn of them from these 2 depictions? Also see Exodus 25:17-22; 1 Samuel 4:4; Psalm 18:9-11; Isaiah 6:1-7; and Ezekiel 41:18-20.

The Creator of Crowns

...the twenty-four elders fall down before Him who sits on the throne and worship Him who lives forever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying: “You are worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honor and power; for You created all things, and by Your will they exist and were created.” (Revelation 4:10-11)

10. Why would the elders “cast their thrones before the throne”? What is symbolized by this gesture?

† Casting them before the throne indicates surrendering the crowns & their meaning to God.
† Stephanos represents award, honor, accomplishment, victory.
† Shows humility – God is worthy of whatever honor comes to them.
† Shows thankfulness – They would have no crowns except by Him.

Will Heaven Be Boring?

The four living creatures, each having six wings, were full of eyes around and within. And they do not rest day or night, saying: “Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, Who was and is and is to come!” (Revelation 4:6-8)

8. Could there really be creatures immediately before God who “do not rest day or night” constant in refrain of praise to God? How could heaven be paradise with such monotonous tasks?
† Boring – Want to do something more fun, or grow tired of empty repetition.
† More fulfilling than seeing, examining, talking with eternal Creator, Father, Savior?
† More stimulating, edifying than talking, interacting, and asking God, basking in His wisdom without limit?
† More sincere than offering thanks and praise to Creator, Savior, and eternal Provider?
† What is an improvement upon God? How could our praise ever be endless, tedious?
† He is the reason everything else is boring (Ecclesiastes 3:11; 12:13; Hebrews 8:11)
† Enjoy tasks at which we excel. New bodies, new voices (1 Corinthians 15:35-58).
† Mischaracterization of heaven & living creatures (Revelation 14:3; 19:4 – 15:7).
What is Wrong with This Picture?
12. Who is conspicuously missing from this scene that should be present?
† Jesus!
† See chapter 5.
† At what time would Jesus have ever been absent from heaven? …
† Please compare to Daniel 7:9-14.

God’s Scroll
1. How is the scroll described? What do you suppose is the significance of this description?
And I saw in the right hand of Him who sat on the throne a scroll written inside and on the back, sealed with seven seals. (Revelation 5:1)
† The “right hand” represents a position of favor & skill (Gen. 48:14-20; Jdg. 5:26; 1 Kings 12:19; Ps. 16:8-11; 89:13; 110:1-5; 137:5; Ecc. 10:2).
† “Inside and on the back” indicates it was full, overflowing with content.
† Seals show ownership, authority, and require authority to open (1 Kings 21:8; Isaiah 29:10-12; Daniel 6:17; 8:26; 12:4, 9; Matthew 27:6).
† “Seven” may represent the completeness, perfection of both content & required authority.

Example of Sealed Papyri

The Essential Scroll
2. How important is this scroll? How do you know from the context?
Then I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, “Who is worthy to open the scroll and to loose its seals?” And no one in heaven or on the earth or under the earth was able to open the scroll, or to look at it. So I wept much, because no one was found worthy to open and read the scroll, or to look at it. (Revelation 5:2-4)
† By implication, even the “strong angel” could not open it.
† Thorough search was conducted everywhere – but no one worthy was found.
† John thought it so significant that he “wept much” because it was not read.
† Recall, it proceeds from God, extended by His “right hand”. God wants it read as indicated by His gesture, the announcement, and conducted search.
The One Worthy to Open the Scroll
Revelation 5:5-10

3. How is this description of Jesus in chapter 5 different than the description of chapter 1? What is the meaning of the description provided here? What OT prophecies used similar descriptions?

- The Alpha and Omega, the First and Last
- In the midst of the seven lampstands
- One like the Son of Man
- Clothed with a garment down to the feet and girded about the chest with a golden band
- Head and hair were white like wool, white as snow
- His eyes like a flame of fire
- His feet like fine brass, as refined in a furnace
- His voice as the sound of many waters:
- He had in His right hand seven stars
- Out of His mouth went a sharp two-edged sword
- His countenance was like the sun shining in its strength.

4. From the clues provided in the text, why was Jesus worthy to “to open the scroll and loose its seven seals”?

- Ch. 1 stresses more His power, authority, knowledge, & oversight.
- Ch. 5 visually stresses what He did to “prevail” and why He is “worthy”.
- Vision of “lamb slain” is more shocking, profound when introduced as a “lion”.

Messiah of Prophecy

2. How is this description of Jesus in chapter 5 different than the description of chapter 1? What is the meaning of the description provided here? What OT prophecies used similar descriptions?

- “Root of David” – Jeremiah 23:5; 33:15; Isaiah 4:2; 11:1; Zechariah 3:8; 6:12
- “Lamb of God” – Genesis 22:8; John 1:29, 36; 1 Peter 1:18-21; Revelation 13:8
- “Seven Horns” – Perfect, complete power.
- “Seven Eyes” – Perfect, complete knowledge (omniscience) – John 16:7-15
- “Seven Eyes” – Perfect, complete knowledge (omniscience)

3. How is this description of Jesus in chapter 5 different than the description of chapter 1? What is the meaning of the description provided here? What OT prophecies used similar descriptions?

- “Seven Horns” – Perfect, complete power.
- “Seven Eyes” – Perfect, complete knowledge (omniscience) – John 16:7-15

4. From the clues provided in the text, why was Jesus worthy to “to open the scroll and loose its seven seals”?

- Ch. 1 stresses more His power, authority, knowledge, & oversight.
- Ch. 5 visually stresses what He did to “prevail” and why He is “worthy”.
- Visual of “lamb slain” is more shocking, profound when introduced as a “lion”.

The Lion Slain as a Lamb

3. How is this description of Jesus in chapter 5 different than the description of chapter 1? What is the meaning of the description provided here? What OT prophecies used similar descriptions?

But one of the elders said to me, “Do not weep, Behold, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has prevailed to open the scroll and to loose its seven seals.” And I looked, and behold, in the midst of the throne and of the four living creatures, and in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb as though it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God sent out into all the earth. (Revelation 5:5-6)

† Ch. 1 stresses more His power, authority, knowledge, & oversight.
† Ch. 5 visually stresses what He did to “prevail” and why He is “worthy”.
† Vision of “lamb slain” is more shocking, profound when introduced as a “lion”.

“Worthy Is the Lamb”

4. From the clues provided in the text, why was Jesus worthy to “to open the scroll and loose its seven seals”?

- Fulfilled Prophecy (#1, #2 – “Lion of Judah … Root of David”)
- Overcame Extreme Test & Challenge (#3 – “prevailed” – Hebrews 4:15)
- Belongs with God & Zenith of Creation (#4 – “in the midst of the throne”)
- Sacrificed His Life (#5, #6 – “Lamb … slain”)
- Perfected, Complete Power (#7 – “seven horns”)
- Perfected, Complete Knowledge (#8 – “seven eyes”)
- Creation Bows to Him (#9 – “creatures … and … elders fell down before the Lamb”)
- Established a Kingdom for Us (#10 – “made us kings … we shall reign on the earth”, “made us a kingdom”)
- Established a Priesthood for Us (#11 – “made us … priests to our God”)
Recognition and Praise of All Creation
Revelation 5:11-14

The Song of Creation

The Deity of Christ

Scroll Is Plan of Salvation?

The Heavenly Hosts

“A New Song”

Now when He had taken the scroll, four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each having a harp, and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints. And they sang a new song, saying: “You are worthy to take the scroll, and to open its seals. For You were slain, and have redeemed us to God by Your blood Out of every tribe and tongue and people and nation. And have made us kings and priests to our God; And we shall reign on the earth.” (Rev.5:8-10)

5. What are the implications of the 24 elders carrying harps and bowls of incense, falling down before Jesus, singing a “new song”? What was their expectation of Jesus?
† Represents “prayers of the saints” – and possibly their praise too.
† Previously, songs pointed toward God (4:8-10). This “new song” points to Jesus.
† Jesus’ death & resurrection was surprising, although foretold (1 Peter 1:12; Psalm 2; Isaiah 52:15; Acts 3:17).
† Sin has been defeated.
† Time has come for “saints to possess the kingdom”, while serving as priests …

The Deity of Christ

And every creature which is in heaven and on the earth and under the earth and such as are in the sea, I heard, saying: “Blessing and honor and glory and power Be to Him who sits on the throne, And to the Lamb, forever and ever!” Then the four living creatures said, “Amen!” And the twenty-four elders fell down and worshiped Him who lives forever and ever. (Revelation 5:12-14)

8. What can we conclude since the entire host of all creation offered the same praise to both God and Jesus? What is the significance of them sharing the same worship?
† Angels and humans both now accept worship not due them (Acts 10:25-26; Rev. 22:8-9).
† If Christ accepts the same worship as the Father, then He is equal to the Father (Philip. 2:6).
† Subtle emphasis for final reason: He is worthy – He is divine!
† “Truly I know it is so, But how can a man be righteous before God? If one wished to contend with Him, He could not answer Him one time out of a thousand. … If it is a matter of strength, indeed He is strong; And if of justice, who will appoint my day in court?” For He is not a man, as I am; that I may answer Him, and that we should go to court together. Nor is there any mediator between us, Who may lay his hand on us both.” (Job 9:2-33).
† A just Mediator – and Judge!

Scroll Is Plan of Salvation?

† Looking back on the chapter, does this scroll refer to the plan of salvation, the gospel, and Jesus “slain from the foundation of the world” (Revelation 13:8; 1 Peter 1:20) – or something else? How do you know?
† Jesus is originally missing from heaven scene (chapter 4).
† Jesus “prevailed” to open the scroll (5:5). He had already overcome, past tense …
† Appeared to already have “slain” (5:6).
† Praised as already having been “slain” (5:9).
† “Made us kings and priests”, past tense (5:10).
† Praised as already being ‘made’. past tense (5:12).
† Jesus does not leave heaven to execute plan (chapter 6 and following).
† After Jesus has ascended, the opening of the scroll represents executing plan to judge those afflicting the saints – and then turn the kingdom over to them (5:10)!

The Heavenly Hosts

6. In addition to the elders, who else praised Jesus?
Then I looked, and I heard the voice of many angels around the throne, the living creatures, and the elders; and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands. (Revelation 5:11)
† Added all of the angles … This is everything good, except humans.

The Song of Creation

7. How are the songs offered by the whole host different? (Contrast verse 12 with verse 13.) … saying with a loud voice: “Worthy is the Lamb who was slain To receive power and riches and wisdom, And strength and honor and glory and blessing!” And every creature which is in heaven and on the earth and under the earth and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them. I heard saying: “Blessing and honor and glory and power Be to Him who sits on the throne, And to the Lamb, forever and ever!” Then the four living creatures said, “Amen!” And the twenty-four elders fell down and worshiped Him who lives forever and ever. (Revelation 5:12-14)
† Offers praise to Jesus, but does not mention thanks for redemption.
† Represents all of creation – except possibly humans (Psalm 19:1-4).
† First one is devoted to Jesus. Last one includes Jesus and God.

Recognition and Praise of All Creation
Revelation 5:11-14
The Four Horsemen of Revelation

Revelation 6:1-7

Who Are the Four Horsemen?

1. White Horse
   - Significance: Reveals peace and prosperity.
   - Significance: Announces the beginning of the good news for the world.
   - Significance: Symbolizes victory and peace.

2. Red Horse
   - Significance: Represents war, conflict, and death.
   - Significance: Announces the time of judgment and wrath.
   - Significance: Symbolizes destruction and famine.

3. Black Horse
   - Significance: Symbolizes death and mourning.
   - Significance: Announces the time of suffering and martyrdom.
   - Significance: Represents the judgment of the wicked.

4. Pale Horse
   - Significance: Represents famine and pestilence.
   - Significance: Announces the time of hardship and hunger.
   - Significance: Symbolizes the judgment of the earth.

Comparing Revelation to Zechariah

Zech 1:7-11

- Four Horsemen of Zechariah
  - Significance: Represents the judgment to come.
  - Significance: Symbolizes the deliverance of God's people.
  - Significance: Announces the destruction of the enemy.

Zech 6:1-8

- Significance: Represents God's judgment on the nations.
  - Significance: Symbolizes the overthrow of the proud and the exaltation of the humble.
  - Significance: Announces the coming of the Messiah.

The Four Horsemen of Zechariah

Zech 1:7-11

- Significance: Represents the judgment to come.
  - Significance: Symbolizes the deliverance of God's people.
  - Significance: Announces the destruction of the enemy.

Zech 6:1-8

- Significance: Represents God's judgment on the nations.
  - Significance: Symbolizes the overthrow of the proud and the exaltation of the humble.
  - Significance: Announces the coming of the Messiah.

The Four Horsemen of Revelation

Revelation 6

- Significance: Represents the judgment to come.
  - Significance: Symbolizes the deliverance of God's people.
  - Significance: Announces the destruction of the enemy.

Revelation 6

- Significance: Represents God's judgment on the nations.
  - Significance: Symbolizes the overthrow of the proud and the exaltation of the humble.
  - Significance: Announces the coming of the Messiah.

1. Like in Zechariah, unleashed agents of vengeance sent to reckon and bring peace to God’s Spirit.
2. Represent military conquest – external conquerors and invaders (e.g., Parthia).
3. Represent internal strife, treachery, people turning on each other (“spirit of all ill”, Judges 9:7-24; Zechariah 10:10-14).
4. Represent economic disasters – eating food by measure (Lev. 26:26; Lam. 5:10) – famines, or other food scarcity (e.g., siege, Eze. 4:9-17).
5. Represent massive (but not total) death caused by all the previous and additional natural disasters (EzeKid 5:17; 14:13-21, “My four severest judgments”).
Chapter 5 represents the worthiness of Christ to execute the gospel (i.e., come to earth, become the Lamb).

Rider on white horse is Jesus, through Christianity converting lost souls, conquering in the Messianic kingdom (Daniel 2:44; Ephesians 2:17).

God is referred to using a bow to conqueror (Psalm 7:10-13; 45:3-6; Hab. 3:8-9).

Red horse represents persecution that follows conversion (Matthew 10:16-42). Compare parallel usage of sword, peace, and family.

Black horse represents economic persecution. Rich will oppress poor Christians by overcharging them.

Gray horse represents death that follows – both to Christians and persecutors.

Although there is much truth to this being a valid timeline or process …

Which view best fits OT usage of symbols?

Which view best addresses the tribulation of the saints?

Could Jesus Be Rider on White Horse?

2. Who could be represented by the rider on the white horse? How does this fit with the chronology established in chapters 1, 4, and 5?

Now I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals: and I heard one of the four living creatures saying with a voice like thunder, “Come and see.” And I looked, and behold, a white horse: He who sat on it had a bow; and a crown was given to him, and he went out conquering and to conquer. (Rev. 6:1-2)

Especially odd that Jesus is unleashed by Himself – even as a symbol.

Jesus appears on white horse later, but so do His saints (19:11-14).

This rider is given a stephanos. Later, Jesus has many diadema (19:12).

This rider has a bow. Later Jesus has a sword (19:15).

This rider conquers and seeks to conquer. Jesus “strikes the nations, rules them with a rod of iron, treads winepress of fierceness of and wrath of Almighty God” (19:15).

Anachronism: Time of gospel’s revealing already passed, persecution already begun.

Unbalanced Scales

When He opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature say, “Come and see.” So I looked, and behold, a black horse, and he who sat on it had a pair of scales in his hand. And I heard a voice in the midst of the four living creatures saying, “A quart of wheat for a denarius, and three quarters of barley for a denarius; and do not harm the oil and the wine.” (Revelation 6:5-6)

1. Who would be most injured by the economic disruption caused by the 3rd seal?

Wheat and barley would be staples of common people.

Common, middle-class, laboring people most affected by this “harming”.

Effectively deepened & widened class divide. Hurting common man the most.

Possibly destabilizing country. Certainly weakening its core, laboring population.

“Sons Under the Altar”

When He opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those who had been slain for the word of God and for the testimony which they held. (Revelation 6:9)

4. What is the significance of the souls being under the altar? Was the altar covering these people?

The blood of sacrifices was poured, splashed on the altar, running under it (Exodus 29:12-20; Leviticus 1:5-15; 3:2-13; 6:7, 18, 25, 30, 34; 7:2; 8:15, 19, 24; 9:9, 12, 18; 16:18; 18:17; Deuteronomy 12:27; 2 Chronicles 29:22-24).

The blood of sacrifices represented their life (Leviticus 17:11).

The “souls … under the altar” compares martyrs to lives sacrificed with their blood poured under the altar, just because they would not forsake God’s command and testimony, like John and “souls who had been beheaded” (Revelation 1:9; 20:4).

Compare to Paul’s “drink offering” (Phil. 2:17; 2 Tim. 4:6).

“How Long until You Avenge?”

5. What is the complaint of those revealed by the 5th seal? What can we learn about the nature of God and His judgments based on His revealed response?

And they cried with a loud voice, saying, “How long, O Lord, holy and true, until You judge and avenge our blood on them who dwell on the earth?” (Revel 6:9). Then a white robe was given to each of them, and it was said to them that they should rest a little while longer, until both the number of their fellow servants and their brethren, who would be killed as they were, was completed. (Revelation 6:10-11)

Cry of unjustly shed blood represents severe injustice that God ultimately avenge (Gen. 4:10-11; 9:5-6; Num. 35:30; Job 16:18; Isa. 26:21; Ezek. 24:7; Heb. 11:4; 12:5).

God delays because of patience, desire to save, and displeasure in destruction (2 Peter 3:9; Ezekiel 18:23-32; 33:11-20). However, He is a “holy and true” God, so …

His patience has its limits. He delays “until there is no remedy,” while “iniquity is not yet complete.” (2 Chronicles 36:15-16; Genesis 15:16; Matt. 23:32-36; Luke 18:1-8).

Notice, their sacrifice is rewarded. They are patiently answered comforted.

Notice, delay was only for “a little while longer” (12:12). Eliminates Futurist, again.
The Sixth Seal
Revelation 6:12-17

I looked when He opened the sixth seal, and behold, there was a great earthquake, and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became like blood, and the stars of heaven fell to the earth, as a fig tree drops its late figs when it is shaken by a mighty wind. Then the sky receded as a scroll when it is rolled up, and every mountain and island was moved out of its place. And the kings of the earth, the great men, the rich men, the commanders, the mighty men, every slave and every free man, hid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the mountains, and said to the mountains and rocks, “Fall on us and hide us from the face of Him who sits on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb! For the great day of His wrath has come, and who is able to stand?” (Revelation 6:12-17)

6. Do the events caused by the opening of the 6th seal refer to literal earthquakes, eclipses, red moons, falling stars, receding skies, and displaced mountains? If not, how are these symbols used in the Old Testament prophets? What do these symbols here foreshadow? Does this represent the end of the world?

The End of the World – for Some Nation

† Stars = Rulers – Numbers 24:17 (David, Messiah); Isaiah 14:12 (King of Babylon); Daniel 8:10 (Antiochus Epiphanes, Grecian King).
† Heavens Receding – All lights, people are rolled up, carried away.
All the host of heaven shall be dissolved, And the heavens shall be rolled up like a scroll; All their host shall fall down As the leaf falls from the vine, And as fruit falling from a fig tree. For My sword shall be bathed in heaven; Indeed it shall come down on Edom. And on the people of My curse, for judgment. (Isaiah 34:4-5)

The End of the World

I looked when He opened the sixth seal, and behold, there was a great earthquake, and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became like blood, and the stars of heaven fell to the earth, as a fig tree drops its late figs when it is shaken by a mighty wind. Then the sky receded as a scroll when it is rolled up, and every mountain and island was moved out of its place. And the kings of the earth, the great men, the rich men, the commanders, the mighty men, every slave and every free man, hid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the mountains, and said to the mountains and rocks, “Fall on us and hide us from the face of Him who sits on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb! For the great day of His wrath has come, and who is able to stand?” (Revelation 6:12-17)

Lights Failing, Earth Shaking

The burden against Babylon which Isaiah the son of Amoz saw… “They come from a far country, From the end of heaven – The LORD and His weapons of indignation, To destroy the whole land. Wait, for the day of the LORD is at hand! It will come as destruction from the Almighty. Therefore all hands will be limp, Every man’s heart will melt, … Behold, the day of the LORD comes, Cruel, with both wrath and fierce anger. To lay the land desolate; And He will destroy its sinners from it. For the day of the LORD is at hand, For that great day which is coming, Which none can withstand.” (Isaiah 62:10-11)

† Heavens Receding – All lights, people are rolled up, carried away.
† Mountains Moving – Symbols of permanence; Shaking the unshakable
† Islands = Remote Lands – News, horror, & disassociation of remote lands
“Thus says the Lord GOD to Tyre, ‘Will the coastlands not shake at the sound of your fall, when the wounded cry, when slaughter is made in the midst of you? … Now the coastlands tremble on the day of your fall. Yes, the coastlands by the sea are troubled at your departure. … In their wailing for you They will take up a lamentation, And lament for you: ‘What city is like Tyre, Destroyed in the midst of the sea?’ … All the inhabitants of the isles will be astonished at you. Their kings will be greatly afraid, And their countenance will be troubled.” (Ezekiel 26:15-18; 27:32-35)

The End of the World – for Some Nation

† Stars = Rulers – Numbers 24:17 (David, Messiah); Isaiah 14:12 (King of Babylon); Daniel 8:10 (Antiochus Epiphanes, Grecian King).
† Heavens Receding – All lights, people are rolled up, carried away.
† Mountains Moving – Symbols of permanence; Shaking the unshakable
† Islands = Remote Lands – News, horror, & disassociation of remote lands
The idol also shall be carried to Assyria As a present for King Jareb. Ephraim shall receive shame, And Israel shall be ashamed of his own counsel. As for Samaria, her king is cut off Like a twig on the waters. Also the high places of Aven, the sin of Israel, Shall be destroyed. The horn and thistle shall grow on their altars. They shall say to the mountains, “Cover us!” And to the hills, “Fall on us!” (Hosea 10:6-8)
The End of the World – for Some Nation

† Stars = Rulers – Numbers 24:17 (David, Messiah); Isaiah 14:12 (King of Babylon); Daniel 8:10 (Antiochus Epiphanes, Grecian King).
† Heavens Receding – All lights, people are rolled up, carried away.
† Mountains Moving – Symbols of permanence. Shaking the unshakable
† Islands = Remote Lands – News, horror, & disassociation of remote lands
† Men Hiding & Asking for Rocks to Cover – Hosea 10:8 (Israel = Assyria); Isaiah 2:19 (Jerusalem = Babylon); Luke 23:30 (Jerusalem = Rome).
† Who Can Stand? – Nahum 1:6 (Nineveh), Malachi 3:2 (Messianic)

The burden against Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite… The mountains quake before Him, The hills melt, And the earth heaves at His presence. Yes, the world and all who dwell in it. Who can stand? Mountains Moving Heavens Receding Stars = Rulers… who can endure the fierceness of His anger? The burden

† If end of world, then how does it address 5 Men Hiding & Asking for Rocks to Cover
† Answers the question asked by 5 “Who can stand before His indignation? And who can endure the fierceness of His anger?”

The Sealing of Israel Revelation 7:1-8

† What is suggested by the imagery of the four angels holding back the four winds of the earth?
After these things I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth, on the sea, or on any tree. Then I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God. And he cried with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was granted to harm the earth and the sea, saying, “Do not harm the earth, the sea, or the trees till we have sealed the servants of our God on their foreheads.” (Revelation 7:1-3)

† “Four” is the world number. Represents farthest, remotest regions of the world (“from the farthest part of earth to the farthest part of heaven”, Mark 13:27).
† Think about the edges or corners of a map depicting accessible, relevant world.
† When let loose from the “four corners”, these winds will cover all the earth.
† Suggests far-reaching, unforeseen impact of suspended winds – controlled by God.

Harmful, Blowing Winds

† Wind’s effects are often associated with acts of God, typically in judgment or doom:
  • Represents remotest reaches, corners of the world (Dan. 8:8-9; 11:4; Ex. 5:2, 10, 12, 14, 17:21)
  • Brings blessing or salvation (Numbers 11:31; Isaiah 11:15; Ezekiel 37:9).
  • Blights trees and plants, does them rot (Ex. 17:14; 19:10-14; Gen. 41:6, 23, 27; Psalm 103:16).
  • Carries plagues (Exodus 10:13, 19; 15:6; Psalm 104:6).
  • Destroys like a tornado or whirlwind (Jeremiah 4:13-15; Ezekiel 13:11-13; Job 30:15, 22).
  • Understood, controlled only by God (Job 28:28; Psalm 107:28; 135:7; Proverbs 30:4; Ecclesiastes 1:14; 11:5; Jeremiah 10:13; 51:16; Amos 4:13).
† Not blessing – context is judgment, and saints are spared from it.
† Not scattering – wrong direction; coming from four winds, not driven to them
† Winds of destruction, blowing and bringing “harm… on the earth, sea, and trees”.
† Therefore, the judgment unleashed by previous seals is being stalled, waiting on…
“Making A Difference”

2. What is the significance of them waiting until the number of God’s people was sealed?

… saying, “Do not harm the earth, the sea, or the trees till we have sealed the servants of our God on their foreheads” (Revelation 7:1-3)

† Apparently, the “sealing of the servants of God” made a distinction, offered them some kind of protection.

“And in that day I will set apart the land of Goshen, in which My people dwell, that no plague of flies shall be there. In order that you may know that I am the LORD in the midst of the land. I will make a difference between My people and your people. Tomorrow this sign shall be.” (Exodus 8:22-23; 9:4, 25-26; 10:22-23; 11:5-7)

Marking God’s People

3. Please compare and contrast this message to that depicted in Ezekiel 9? How does this enrich the meaning of the sealing of Revelation 7?

† Preceded by God showing Ezekiel the elders’ hidden, grotesque sins (Ezekiel 8).

Then He called out in my hearing with a loud voice, saying, “Let those who have charge over the city draw near, each with a deadly weapon in his hand.” … One man among them was clothed with linen and had a writer’s inkhorn at his side. … and the LORD said to him, “Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and put a mark on the foreheads of the men who sigh and cry over all the abominations that are done within it.” To the others He said in my hearing, “Go after him through the city and kill; do not let your eye spare, nor have any pity. Utterly slay old and young men, maidens and little children and women; but do not come near anyone on whom is the mark, and begin at My sanctuary.” So they began with the elders who were before the temple. … Just then, the man clothed with linen, who had the inkhorn at his side, reported back and said, “I have done as You commanded me.” (Ezekiel 9:1-11)

† Followed by God departing from temple, killing 1 elder, and announcing judgment (Ezekiel 10:12).

Protecting God’s People

† God’s wrath is not blind, hasty, or uncontrolled.

† God knows His people and makes a distinction, protecting them from the punishment due sinners.

Nevertheless the solid foundation of God stands, having this seal: “The Lord knows those who are His.” (2 Timothy 2:19; see also, 1 Kings 19:18; Isaiah 40:26-27)

† Do we “sigh and cry over all the abominations”, or do we secretly partake them, even if only vicariously? Do we also silently think, “God does not see”?

… take note, you have sinned against the LORD; and be sure your sin will find you out. (Numbers 32:23)

† Judgment begins at the house of God!

† For those who “sigh and cry” (compare to 2 Peter 2:7-9) – comfort and confidence.

† God’s angels will not fail – “I have done as you commanded me.”

† Even if the saint suffers with the sinner now (6:9), God ultimately reckons …

Who Was Sealed?

And I heard the number of those who were sealed. One hundred and forty-four thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel were sealed: of the tribe of Judah twelve thousand were sealed; of the tribe of Reuben twelve thousand were sealed; of the tribe of Benjamín twelve thousand were sealed; … of the tribe of Benjamin twelve thousand were sealed. (Revelation 7:4-8)

4. Who does Israel represent in this chapter? What is the significance of their number, 144,000?

† “Israel” represents God’s spiritual people (Rom. 2:28-29; 9:3-6; Gal. 6:16)

† “Twelve Tribes” also represent the church (Mat. 19:28; Luke 22:30; James 1:1)

† 144,000 = 12 x 12 x 10 x 10 x 10 – All of God’s people everywhere throughout the entire earth. No one is overlooked (Matthew 10:28-31)

† Missing Dan, Ephraim? Leaders in idolatry (1 Kings 11:26; 12:25-33; Jdgs. 18)

† Ephraim often used to represent idolatrous northern kingdom.

† Judah Leads = King, tribe of David and Messiah?

The Eternal Home & Paradise

Revelation 7:9-17

Who Was Sealed?

5. How is this heavenly host described? What might be the significance of the “palm branches”?

After these things I looked, and behold, a great multitude which no one could number of all nations, tribes, peoples, and tongues, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, with palm branches in their hands, and crying out with a loud voice, saying, “Salvation belongs to our God who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!” (Revelation 7:9-10)

† 144,000 – Numerable and were sealed on earth!

† Innumerable and Before the Throne – All the redeemed in heaven (Gen. 13:16)

† White Robes – symbols of victory, purity, and holiness.

† Prescribing Salvation to God – Acknowledging that God is the source, owner of their salvation. (Incidentally, this would likely preclude angels. Hebrews 2:16)

† Palm Branches – Feast of Tabernacles (Leviticus 23:40-43; Nehemiah 8:14-18)

† Triumphal Entry (John 12:12-21)
An Innumerable, Heavenly Host

All the angels stood around the throne and the elders and the four living creatures, and fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, saying: “Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might, be to our God forever and ever. Amen.” Then one of the elders answered, saying to me, “Who are these arrayed in white robes, and where did they come from?” (Rev. 7:11-13)

† Entire heavenly host – including all angels, elders, and four living creatures.
† Raise 7-fold blessing and praise.
† Returns attention to identity and condition of those robed in white before the throne.

Present or Future Bliss?

8. Does this image represent the then current state of those saints or does the symbol allow for this to pertain to the future? How do you know?

“Therefore they are before the throne of God, and serve Him day and night in His temple. And He who sits on the throne will dwell among them. They shall neither hunger anymore nor thirst anymore, the sun shall not strike them, nor any heat; for the Lamb who is in the midst of the throne will shepherd them and lead them to living fountains of waters. And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.” (Rev. 7:15-17)

† Transitions from present tense to future tense.
† Could be transition from present vision to future reality?
† Could be emphasizing ongoing bliss – present and future?
† Could be both?
† Sneak peek of final vision in Revelation 21-22.
† Provides hope now for the persecuted, troubled saint (Hebrews 6:17-19).
† Motivates us to “seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness” (Mat. 6:33).

Made White in the Blood of the Lamb

6. What is ironic about the color of their robes and how they obtained that color? And I said to him, “Sir, you know.” So he said to me, “These are the ones who came out of the great tribulation, and washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.” (Revelation 7:14)

† “Washed” clean in “blood”.
† Shocking that what produces the worst stains removes the unremovable stains.
† Only because it is “the blood of the Lamb”?
† Meaning of “the great tribulation”?
  * Could refer to all saints of all time, because we all suffer to some extent as Christians (Acts 14:22; 2 Timothy 3:12; John 16:33).
  * Could refer to all saints who died specifically during the time of persecution associated with the establishment of the church.

“I Will Dwell Among Them”

7. What state is described for God’s people? What application would this hold for century saints? How does it help us? At what other time or times did God “dwell among” His people?

“Therefore they are before the throne of God, and serve Him day and night in His temple. And He who sits on the throne will dwell among them. They shall neither hunger anymore nor thirst anymore; the sun shall not strike them, nor any heat; for the Lamb who is in the midst of the throne will shepherd them and lead them to living fountains of waters. And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.” (Rev. 7:15-17)

† God would provide temple, sanctuary for protection (Isa. 4:5-6; 49:10 Ez. 37:27-28).
† No “temple” in heaven, because “the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are its temple” (Revelation 21:22).
† God’s promise to “dwell among them” has been extended and rejected multiple times (Genesis 3:8; Exodus 29:45; 1 Kings 6:13). Here it is finally realized.

Seals, Trumpets, and Vials

7 Revelation 4-16 contains Three sets of Seven:
  * Opening Seven Seals (4-8)
  * Pouring Seven Vials (8-11)
  * Sounding Seven Trumpets (8-11)
† Represent a progressive, escalating, incremental judgment from God and the Lamb with multiple opportunities for man to repent.
† Opened seals reveal and initiate punishment.
† Trumpets warn of further judgment (Num. 10:1-10; Ezekiel 33:3-6; Joel 2:1).
† Vials destroy yet even still incrementally.
† Exceptions will be few:
  * Flashbacks – Ascension of Christ (4-5), Introduction of Devil, Agents, and Opposing Response (12-14)
  * Cut-scenes – Sealing of Saints (7), Little Book and Two Witnesses (10-11)
  * Close-ups – Fall of Babylon (17-18), Armageddon (19), Eternity (20-22)
Opening the Seventh Seal
Revelation 8:1-6

The Significance of Silence

When He opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour. (Revelation 8:1)

1. What is the significance of the “silence in heaven for about half an hour”?
   - Draws attention for emphasis and dramatic effect for following awesome events.
   - Indicates respect and reverence as heaven waits on God and the Lamb to act.

Men listened to me and waited, And I kept silence for my counsel. After my words they did not speak again, And my speech settled on them as dew. (Job 29:21-22)

So when he had given him permission, Paul stood on the stairs and motioned with his hand to the people. And when there was a great silence, he spoke to them in the Hebrew language, saying. (Acts 21:40)

Let your women keep silent in the churches, for they are not permitted to speak; but they are to be submissive, as the law also says. (1 Corinthians 14:34)

But the LORD is in His holy temple. Let all the earth keep silence before Him. (Habakkuk 2:20)

“Much Incense with the Prayers”

And I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and to them were given seven trumpets. Then another angel, having a golden censer, came and stood at the altar. He was given much incense, that he should offer it with the prayers of all the saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne. (Revelation 8:2-3)

If incense previously represented the “prayers of the saints” (5:8), then what is the “much incense” offered “with the prayers of the saints” in 8:3?

† Represent something added to make prayers acceptable.

Therefore, brethren, having boldness to enter the Holiest by the blood of Jesus, by a new and living way which He consecrated for us, through the veil, that is, His flesh (Hebrews 10:19-20; see also, Romans 8:26-27, 34; Hebrews 7:25; John 3:7).

† Purified prayers, removed of selfish and destructive content (James 4:1-4).

† Comforting to know that He hears our prayers, but He also fixes them.

The Just Judge of All the Earth

Then He spoke a parable to them, that men always ought to pray and not lose heart, saying: “There was in a certain city a judge who did not fear God nor regard man. Now there was a widow in that city; and she came to him, saying, ‘Get justice for me from my adversary.’ And he would not for a while; but afterward he said within himself, ‘Though I do not fear God nor regard man, yet because this widow troubles me I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me.’ ” Then the Lord said, “Hear what the unjust judge said. And shall God not avenge His own elect who cry out day and night to Him, though He bears long with them? I tell you that He will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will He really find faith on the earth?” (Luke 18:1-8)

† Argue from lesser to greater, selfish judge to just “Judge of all earth” (Gen. 18:25).

† Comforting God “avenges” quick as possible (Exo. 2:23-25; 1 Pt. 3:12; 2 Pt. 3:9).

† Lesson: God hears, even if He waits, so “always pray” and do “not lose heart”.

Sounding of the First Four Trumpets

Casting Down Censer Filled with Fire

And the smoke of the incense, with the prayers of the saints, ascended before God from the angel’s hand. Then the angel took the censer, filled it with fire from the altar, and threw it to the earth. And there were 7 noises, 7 thunderings, 7 lightnings, and an earthquake. So the seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound (Revelation 8:4-6)

† What is implied by the angel filling his censer with “fire from the altar” and throwing it “to the earth”?

† Prayers ascending before God indicate that the prayers were heard.

† Filling the censer with fire implies that a fiery answer was prepared in response (Ezekiel 10).

† Throwing the fire down to the earth clarifies the recipient beyond all doubt.

This concludes the opening of the seventh seals and prepares the way for the escalating sounding of the seven trumpets.
Who Is a Mountain on Fire?

Then the second angel sounded: And something like a great mountain burning with fire was thrown into the sea, and a third of the sea became blood. And a third of the living creatures in the sea died, and a third of the ships were destroyed. (Rev. 8:8-9)

† Mountains represent centers of power & defense – large, powerful cities.

Why Is a Mountain Cast into the Sea?

Then the second angel sounded: And something like a great mountain burning with fire was thrown into the sea, and a third of the sea became blood. And a third of the living creatures in the sea died, and a third of the ships were destroyed. (Rev. 8:8-9)

† The “sea” seems to represent the collection of all peoples, nations, and societies.

Daniel spoke, saying, “I saw in my vision by night, and behold, the four winds of heaven were stirring up the Great Sea. And four great beasts came up from the sea, each different from the other;… I came near to one of those who stood by, and asked him the truth of all this. So he told me and made known to me the interpretation of these things: Those great beasts, which are four, are four kings which arise out of the earth.” (Daniel 7:2-3, 17)

But the wicked are like the troubled sea, When it cannot rest, Whose waters cast up mire and dirt. (Isaiah 57:20)

† Destruction or diminishing of such a mountain would greatly injure greater society.

The Fall of Lucifer

The Lord overthrew Babylon which he found to be a righteous nation…they will not ascend into the hill. And Babylon, the glory of Egypt, the beauty of the Chaldeans’ pride, will be as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah…she will be filled with the fruit of her sin; for she has seduced many nations With her wickedness. (Isaiah 13:1-12)

† Babylon is symbolized as a mountain.

The First Four Trumpets Sound

The first angel sounded: And hail and fire followed, mingled with blood, and they were thrown to the earth. And a third of the trees were burned up, and all green grass was burned up. Then the second angel sounded: And something like a great mountain burning with fire was thrown into the sea, and a third of the sea became blood. And a third of the living creatures in the sea died, and a third of the ships were destroyed. Then the third angel sounded: And a great star fell from heaven, burning like a torch, and it fell on a third of the rivers and on the springs of water. The name of the star is Wormwood. A third of the waters became wormwood, and many men died from the water, because it was made bitter. Then the fourth angel sounded: And a third of the living creatures in the air were killed, and a third of the living creatures in the sea were killed, and a third of the living creatures that swim in the sea were killed. Who Is Wormwood?

Then the third angel sounded: And a great star fell from heaven, burning like a torch, and it fell on a third of the rivers and on the springs of water. The name of the star is Wormwood. A third of the waters became wormwood, and many men died from the water, because it was made bitter. (Revelation 8:10-11)

6. Can you find reference to another falling star in the Old Testament prophets?
† Star falling was associated with destruction of mighty king of Babylon (Isa. 13-14).
† “Wormwood” was often associated with miserable food & drink in captivity: therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: “Behold, I will feed them, this people, with wormwood, and give them water of gall to drink. I will scatter them also among the Gentiles, whom neither they nor their fathers have known. And I will send a sword after them until I have consumed them. (Jer. 9:15-16; 23:15; Lam. 3:15-19).
† Also associated with spirit to idolatry and end of harlotry (Deu. 29:18; Pro. 5:4).
† Combining the symbols, would refer to the fall of a great persecuting king that would have made the people bitter and sorrowful.

The First Woe
[Trumpet #5]
Revelation 9:1-12

Introducing the Three Woes

7. According to the flying angel (or eagle), what was to be associated with each of the three remaining trumpet blasts? They were considered as what?
And I looked, and I heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, “Woe, woe, woe to the inhabitants of the earth, because of the remaining blasts of the trumpet of the three angels who are about to sound!” (Revelation 8:13)
† Remaining blasts (#5-#7) would be so severe as to be classified as “woes”.
† “Historians agree that three major factors contributed to Rome’s demise: natural calamity, internal rottenness, and outside invasion. It seems these three areas are symbolized, first, in the warning sounds of the trumpets, and again, but more completely, in the ouropouring of God’s wrath from the seven bowls which are set to be revealed.” (Harkrider, 103)

The Source of the First Woe

1. What was the source of the first woe (sounding of the 5th trumpet)? What is it suggested by this source? What does it represent?
Then the fifth angel sounded: And I saw a star fallen from heaven to the earth. To him was given the key to the bottomless pit. And he opened the bottomless pit, and smoke arose out of the pit like the smoke of a great furnace. So the sun and the air were darkened because of the smoke of the pit. Then out of the smoke locusts came upon the earth. And to them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power. (Revelation 9:1-3)
† Associated with realm of dead, perdition (Romans 10:7; Revelation 11:7; 17:8).
† Associated with realm of demons (Luke 8:31).
† The Devil later cast into it before millennium and arises after it (Revelation 20:1-7).
† This suggests that the ultimate source of this woe is the Devil and his demons...
† “Fallen star” could be ruler, like 8:10, or the Devil (Luke 10:18; Rev. 12:9-12).
† But, this “fallen star” affects the earth-dwellers, not Christians (Revelation 9:4).

Darkening the Heavens

2. What effect did it have on the elements? Is this literal? If not, what does it mean?
And he opened the bottomless pit, and smoke arose out of the pit like the smoke of a great furnace. So the sun and the air were darkened because of the smoke of the pit. Then out of the smoke locusts came upon the earth. And to them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power. (Revelation 9:2-3)
† Could be emphasizing the extreme torment associated with this woe.
† Or, loss of light indicates loss of direction, often associated with rulers’ guidance.
† Further indicates the one opening the pit is human, although influenced himself.
Locusts from the Abyss

3. Describe what came out of the pit? Please provide your best guess as to the significance of each attribute? What do these creatures represent? Please compare and contrast their description to that of the day and army described in Joel 1:4-2:11.

Revelation 9:3-10

- Sun and air darkened
- Lion's teeth
- Hair like women's hair
- Feet like lions' feet
- Like war horses
- Wind like burning fire
- Like the appearance of horses
- Torment like scorpions
- Out of smoke

Meaning – Revelation 9:3-10

1. Loss of direction, darkness
2. Power to torment (Sheol, Hades, 2 Pet. 2:4)
3. Strong, hard
4. Appearance of war
5. Use of women, beauty
6. Vicious, aggressive
7. Restrain to defeat, being stopped
8. Intruding, overwhelming
9. Unexpected, poisonous attack

The Destroyer

6. Who is their target? Who can we learn from this?

They were commanded not to harm the grass of the earth, or any green thing, or any tree, but only those men who do not have the seal of God on their foreheads. (Rev.9:4)

- Not natural locusts, because only attacked men – not plants.
- Not natural disaster, because only affects unbelievers.
- Comforting that:
  - God knows us and makes a distinction (Ex. 8:22-23; 2 Tim. 2:19; Ezr. 9:1-11).
  - We do can avoid some punishment and “torment” through righteousness.
  - Wickedness brings its own penalty even now.

Likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust for one another, with men committing what is shameful, and receiving in themselves the penalties of their error which was due. And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a debased mind, to do those things which are not fitting. (Romans 1:27-28)

Limited Authority to Torment

5. How long did they afflict men? What might this mean?

And they were not given authority to kill them, but to torment them for five months. Their torment was like the torment of a scorpion when it strikes a man. In those days men will seek death and will not find it, they will desire to die, and death will flee from them. (Revelation 9:5-6)

- Would have killed, but limited in authority; therefore, God restrained them.
- And the LORD said to Satan, “Behold, all that he has is in your power: only do not lay your hand on his person.” So Satan went out from the presence of the LORD. And the LORD said to Satan, “Behold, he is in your hand, but spare his life.” (Job 1:12, 2:6)
- The “five months” may indicate only part of man’s capacity, whether to endure or to torment, as interrupted by God.

Locusts of Judgment & Warning

What the swarming locust left, the swarming locust has eaten. What the swarming locust left, the crawling locust has eaten. And what the crawling locust left, the consuming locust has eaten. ... For a nation has come up against My land, strong, and without number. His teeth are like lions’ teeth, and his breastplates like breastplates of iron, and their torment was like the torment of a scorpion when it strikes a man. In those days men will seek death and will not find it, they will desire to die, and death will flee from them. The shape of the locusts was like harrows prepared for battle. On their heads were crowns of something like gold, and their faces were like the faces of men. They had hair like women’s hair, and their teeth were like lions’ teeth. And they had breasts like breasts of iron, and the sound of their wings was like the sound of chariots with many horses running into battle. They had tails like scorpions, and there were stings in their tails. Their power was to hurt men five months. (Revelation 9:3-10)

The Locusts’ Target

4. Who was their target? What can we learn from this?

- Not natural locusts, because only attacked men – not plants.
- Not natural disaster, because only affects unbelievers.

Meaning – Revelation 9:3-10

1. Loss of direction, darkness
2. Power to torment (Sheol, Hades, 2 Pet. 2:4)
3. Strong, hard
4. Appearance of war
5. Use of women, beauty
6. Vicious, aggressive
7. Restrain to defeat, being stopped
8. Intruding, overwhelming
9. Unexpected, poisonous attack

† Reference to the Devil, or those influenced by him (Joel 1:4-2:11)
† Would have killed, but limited in authority; therefore, God restrained them.
† Not natural disaster, because only affects unbelievers.
† Not natural locusts, because only attacked men – not plants.

Internal, Moral Rottenness

One woe is past. Behold, still two more woes are coming after these things. (Rev. 9:12)

7. What might this woe represent? What are these locusts? How do they really torment men?
   † God does not want anyone to be lost, destroyed (2 Peter 3:9; Ezekiel 18:23, 30-32).
   † Hope and expectation that they should repent.
   † God does not want anyone to be lost, destroyed (2 Peter 3:9; Ezekiel 18:23, 30-32).
   † Multiple opportunities are extended “until there is no remedy” (2 Chr. 36:15-16).
   † Generally, men do not respond to these warnings (Matthew 7:13).

8. Describe the army lead by them? Do they represent good or evil forces? How can you tell?
   † Represent a deadly external army (Jeremiah 46:2-10)? Multiple external armies?
   † 200,000,000 (2 x 10 x 10^3) – A more than sufficient army, doubled.
   † Could this be various “plagues” – natural disasters?
   † Again limited to affecting only “one third of mankind”.

Angels over nations fought against other angels & nations (Daniel 10:13, 20-11:1).
† Could these represent external nations waiting to attack the persecuting empire?
† “Four” represents the world, so maybe armies from all over the relevant world?
† Associated again with “prayers of the saints” (8:3-5).

8. Do the four angels bound at the Euphrates represent real angels? Are they good or evil? What is the significance of these angels having been “prepared for the hour and day and month and year”? What could these angels represent?
   † Provendentially, God may “prepare” things for His purpose (Jonah 1:17; 4:6-8).
   † Angels over nations fought against other angels & nations (Daniel 10:13, 20-11:1).
   † Could these represent external nations waiting to attack the persecuting empire?

An Unimaginable Army

Result of the First Two Woes

10. What was the expected result of these woes and trumpet blasts? From this, what can we learn about the nature of God and our own human nature?
   † The rest of mankind, who were not killed by these plagues, did not repent of the works of their hands. That they should not worship demons, and idols of gold, silver, brass, stone, and wood, which can neither see nor hear nor walk. And they did not repent of their murders or their sorceries or their sexual immorality or their thefts. (Revelation 9:20-21)
   † Hope and expectation that they should repent.
   † God does not want anyone to be lost, destroyed (2 Peter 3:9; Ezekiel 18:23, 30-32).

The Mighty Angel

1. Describe this “mighty angel”? How does he compare to descriptions of other beings recorded thus far in Revelation?

   I saw still another mighty (Gr., ischuros) angel coming down from heaven, clothed with a cloud. And a rainbow was on his head, his face was like the sun, and his feet like pillars of fire. (Revelation 10:1)

   “Then I saw a strong (Gr., ischuros) angel proclaiming with a loud voice: ‘Who is worthy to open the scroll and to loose its seals?’” (Revelation 5:2)

   Then I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God. And he cried with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was granted to harm the earth and the sea, (Revelation 7:2)

   † Most powerful one observed thus far. Cloud associated with divine judgment.
   † Description seems to enhance impression of his power (wisdom, glory, power).
   † Scale suggests he was giant (compared to cloud, rainbow, sun, and pillars).

2. Could this “mighty angel” be Jesus?

   † “another” (Gr., allos) – another of the same kind (in contrast to heteros) - not Jesus.
   † John does not fall down and worship this angel, like with Jesus (John 1:17).
   † However, the shared characteristics with the divine (cloud, rainbow, sun, fire) indicate not only his power but his divine authority, commissioning.
   † In other words, he was sent and empowered by God.
   † Other angels who could be mistaken for Jesus (8:3-5; 14:14-20).

The Mighty Angel and the Little Book
Revelation 10:1-7

Daniel was to “shut up the words and seal the book” … because they applied to “the time of the end” (Daniel 9:24; 12:3-4, 9). Required preservation, not hiding.

† Daniel was to “shut up the words and seal the book” … because they applied to “the time of the end” (Daniel 9:24; 12:3-4, 9). Required preservation, not hiding.

† “Shut up the words and seal the book” … because they applied to “the time of the end” (Daniel 9:24; 12:3-4, 9). Required preservation, not hiding.

† May suggest broad applicability of the “little book”.

Standing on the Land and Sea

2. What is the significance of him standing on both the sea and the land?

He had a little book open in his hand. And he set his right foot on the sea and his left foot on the land. … (Revelation 10:2)

† Suggests power, authority over all aspects, domains of our world (land and sea).

† Emphasizes his might and power … and credibility and significance of his words and his “little book”.

† May suggest broad applicability of the “little book”.

Sealing the Seven Thunders’ Words

4. Why were the words uttered by the seven thunders sealed? Why is this told to us, if we cannot know what they said?

And he cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roars. When he cried out, seven thunders uttered their voices. Now when the seven thunders uttered their voices, I was about to write, but I heard a voice from heaven saying to me, “Seal up the things which the seven thunders uttered, and do not write them.” (Revelation 10:3-4)

† Daniel was to “shut up the words and seal the book” … because they applied to “the time of the end” (Daniel 9:24; 12:3-4, 9). Required preservation, not hiding.

† “Heard inexpressible words … not lawful for a man to utter” (2 Cor. 12:1-4)

† Jesus previously lowered the “scroll … sealed with seven seals” (Revelation 5-6).

† “The secret things belong to God” (Deut. 29:29). More plans than revealed.

† Rear of lion often associated with God’s judgment and protection (Jeremiah 25:30; Hosea 11:16; Joel 3:16; Amos 3:8).

Is the “Mighty Angel” Really Jesus?

I saw still another mighty (Gr., ischuros) angel coming down from heaven, clothed with a cloud. And a rainbow was on his head, his face was like the sun, and his feet like pillars of fire. (Revelation 10:1)

2. Could this “mighty angel” be Jesus?

† “another” (Gr., allos) – another of the same kind (in contrast to heteros) - not Jesus.

† John does not fall down and worship this angel, like with Jesus (John 1:17).

† However, the shared characteristics with the divine (cloud, rainbow, sun, fire) indicate not only his power but his divine authority, commissioning.

† In other words, he was sent and empowered by God.

† Other angels who could be mistaken for Jesus (8:3-5; 14:14-20).

Thunderous Voice of God

Give unto the LORD, O you mighty ones. Give unto the LORD glory and strength. Give unto the LORD the glory due to His name; Worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness.

The voice of the LORD is over the waters: The God of glory thunders; The LORD is over many waters. The voice of the LORD is powerful; The voice of the LORD is full of majesty. The voice of the LORD breaks the cedars, Yes, the LORD splintered the cedars of Lebanon. He makes them also skip like a calf, Lebanon and Sirion like a young wild ox.

The voice of the LORD divides the flames of fire. The voice of the LORD shakes the wilderness; The LORD shakes the Wilderness of Kadesh. The voice of the LORD makes the deer give birth, And strips the forests bare; And in His temple everyone says, “Glory!” The LORD sat enthroned at the Flood, And the LORD sits as King forever. The LORD will give strength to His people; The LORD will bless His people with peace. (Psalm 29:1-11)

† God’s voice equated to thunder: John 12:27-31.
Which Mystery?

The angel whom I saw standing on the sea and on the land raised up his hand to heaven and swore by Him who lives forever and ever, who created heaven and the things that are in it, the earth and the things that are in it, and the sea and the things that are in it, that there should be delay no longer, but in the days of the sounding of the seventh angel, when he is about to sound, the mystery of God would be finished, as He declared to His servants the prophets. (Revelation 10:5-7)

5. What is this “mystery”? The Messiah dying on the cross? Unification of Jews and Gentiles? That revelation He made known to me the mystery (as I have briefly written already), by which, when you read, you may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ; which I in other ages was not made known to the sons of men, as it has now been revealed by the Spirit to His holy apostles and prophets, that the Gentiles should be heirs of God, of the same body, and partakers of His promise in Christ through the gospel. … to make all see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the ages has been hidden in God who created all things through Jesus Christ, to the intent that now the manifold wisdom of God might be made known by the church to the principalities and powers in the heavenly places. (Ephesians 3:3-10)

† That mystery is already “made known,” “revealed”. This “mystery” is something else.
† At last, this part of the “mystery” is already made known. This is at least another part.

Delay No Longer

The angel whom I saw standing on the sea and on the land raised up his hand to heaven and swore by Him who lives forever and ever, who created heaven and the things that are in it, the earth and the things that are in it, and the sea and the things that are in it, that there should be delay no longer, but in the days of the sounding of the seventh angel, when he is about to sound, the mystery of God would be finished, as He declared to His servants the prophets. (Revelation 10:5-7)

6. What exactly is no longer delayed? What can we conclude from learning that “in the days of the sounding of the seventh angel… the mystery of God would be finished, as He declared to His servants the prophets” regarding the applicability of the OT?
† Possibly refers to end of patience and warning (2 Chr. 36:16) - beginning of destruction.
† Most OT prophecies point to judgment and at most, establish Messianic kingdom.
† Very few forecast events after Messiah and destruction of Jerusalem (Daniel 2:44; 7; 9:20-27; 10; Zechariah 13-14; although this may point to destruction of Jerusalem).
† These few point to the destruction of the empire ruling when the Messianic kingdom is established.
† These few remaining unfulfilled prophecies are about to be fulfilled.
† Eliminates application to destruction of Jerusalem, because of prophecies about Rome.
† Could also eliminate Futurist position because so many OT prophecies remain unfulfilled.
† Finally, verse absolute clause is OT applied in Matthew 5:17,18.

“Prepare to Meet Your God”

3. As God dealt with all nations prior, this persecuting empire faces irrevocable judgment after 7th trumpet. Hear this word, you cows of Bashan, who are on the mountain of Samaria, who oppress the poor, and crush the needy in all your cities, and lack of bread and water in all your places; yet you have not returned to Me. Says the LORD: I also withhold rain from you, When there were still three months to the harvest. I made it rain on one city, withheld rain from another. On one part you watered upon, and where it did not rain the part withered. So two or three cities wandered to another city to drink water. But they were not satisfied. Yet you have not returned to Me. Says the LORD: I heaped you with blessings; But you lifted up your head. You eat and are full, But you have not returned to Me. Says the LORD: You have regard for the flash of a sword, But you arrayed yourselves for war; You plotted against Me, But my rod brought no leech. Therefore you have not returned to Me. Says the LORD: Therefore I will bring out strangers upon you, And they will set their要去 on your cities, And you will know that I am the LORD. I have stretched out to me; and behold, a scroll of a book was in it, written on it were lamentations and mourning and woe. Moreover He said to me: “Son of man, eat what you find; eat this scroll, and go, speak to the house of Israel.” Then I took the little book out of the angel’s hand and ate it, and it was as sweet as honey in my mouth. Then He took the little book out of the angel’s hand and ate it, and it was as sweet as honey in my mouth, but when I had eaten it, my stomach became bitter. (Revelation 10:8-11)

Eating the Little Book

Then the voice which I heard from heaven spoke to me again and said, “Go, take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel who stands on the sea and on the earth.” So I went to the angel and said to him, “Give me the little book.” And he said to me, “Take and eat it, and it will make your stomach bitter, but it will be as sweet as honey in your mouth.” Then I took the little book out of the angel’s hand and ate it, and it was as sweet as honey in my mouth, but when I had eaten it, my stomach became bitter. (Revelation 10:8-11)

† What other prophets were commanded to eat books and scrolls? What is this significance of them eating these messages? What is implied by the book being “as sweet as honey in your mouth” but making John’s stomach bitter?
† Similar thoughts in Ezekiel 2-3 and similar issue in Jeremiah 15:16-18.

Ezekiel’s Bitter-Sweet Message

But you, son of man, hear what I say to you. Do not be rebellious like that rebellious house; open your mouth and eat what I give you.” Now when I looked, there was a hand stretched out to me; and behold, a scroll of a book was in it. Then He spread it before me, and there was writing on the inside and on the outside, and written on it were laments and mourning and woe. Moreover He said to me, “Son of man, eat what you find; eat this scroll, and go, speak to the house of Israel.” So I opened my mouth, and He caused me to eat that scroll. And He said to me, “Son of man, feed your belly, and fill your stomach with this scroll that I give you.” So I ate, and it was in my mouth like honey in sweetness. Moreover He said to me: “Son of man, receive into your heart all My words that I speak to you, and hear with your ears. And go, get to the captives, to the children of your people, and speak to them and tell them, ‘Thus says the LORD,’ ‘whether they hear, or whether they refuse.’” … So the Spirit lifted me up and took me away, and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit; but the hand of the LORD was strong upon me. Then I came to the captives at Tel Abib, who dwelt by the River Chebar, and I sat where they sat, and remained there astonishèd among them seven days. (Ezekiel 2:8-3:15)
Eating Our Little Book

7. What other prophets were commanded to eat books and scrolls? What is this significance of them eating these messages? What is implied by the book being “as sweet as honey in your mouth” but making John’s stomach bitter?

† God’s teachers must first fill themselves with His Word (Matthew 7:1-5; 1 Timothy 4:15-16; Ezra 7:10).
† Honey – Learning God’s Word first brings great joy, happiness, and satisfaction.
† Bitterness – Eventually, it will produce unhappy conflict (Matthew 10:16-42).
† Bitterness is not the end of His Word for the humble and obedient.
† God’s Word ultimately produces great joy in saving others and ourselves (3 John 4).
† But, there is inevitable bitterness along the way. Don’t be naïve. Be prepared.

For Ezra had prepared his heart to seek the Law of the LORD, and to do it, and to teach statutes and ordinances in Israel. (Ezra 7:10)
† Count the cost in advance (Luke 14:25-35).

Final Chapters Yet to Be Written

And he said to me, “You must prophesy again about many peoples, nations, tongues, and kings.” (Revelation 10:11)
8. What was the meaning behind John’s prophetic work being unfinished at this point in the book?
† Although the OT prophets’ mystery was now made manifest …
† Although John had preached and foretold so much already …
† He personally was not yet finished.
† There was more to reveal that he was to proclaim that would apply to “many peoples, nations, tongues, and kings”.
† Most likely applies to last half of Revelation, chapters 12-22, which specifically targets many such people.

Measuring the Temple

Revelation 11:1-2

1. In Ezekiel 40-48, a similar symbol of measuring and proclaiming the temple’s dimensions is employed. What is the purpose of the symbol as originally used (Ezekiel 40:1-5; 43:1-12; 48:35)? How is the measuring of the temple used in Revelation 11?
† Original purpose was to emphasize failure to conform to original law, design:
“Son of man, describe the temple to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities; and let them measure the pattern. And if they are ashamed of all that they have done, make known to them the design of the temple and its arrangement, its exits and its entrances, its entire design and all its ordinances, all its forms and all its laws. Write it down in their sight, so that they may keep its whole design and all its ordinances, and perform them.” (Ezekiel 43:10-11).
† Additional purpose was to emphasize holiness, so God could dwell there:
The Spirit lifted me up and brought me into the inner court; and behold, the glory of the LORD filled the temple. Then I heard Him speaking to me from the temple, while a man stood beside me. And He said to me, “Son of man, this is the place of My throne and the place of the soles of My feet, where I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel forever. No more shall the house of Israel defile My holy name, … Now let them put their harlotry and the carcasses of their kings far away from Me, and I will dwell in their midst forever.” (Ezekiel 43:4-9).
Measuring the Temple

1. In Ezekiel 40-48, a similar symbol of measuring and proclaiming the temple's dimensions is employed. What is the purpose of the symbol as originally used (Ezekiel 40:1-5; 43:1-12; 48:35)? How is the measuring of the temple used in Revelation 11?

† Original purpose was to emphasize failure to conform to original law, design.
† Additional purpose was to emphasize holiness, so God could dwell there.

† However, in Revelation 11 the point is to show protection of God's people:

Then I was given a reed like a measuring rod. And the angel stood, saying, “Rise and measure the temple of God, the altar, and those who worship there. But leave out the court which is outside the temple, and do not measure it, for it has been given to the Gentiles. And they will tread the holy city underfoot for forty-two months.” (Revelation 11:1-2)

Message of assurance and protection similar to numbering in Revelation 7:1-8.

Treading Under the Court & City

Then I was given a reed like a measuring rod. And the angel stood, saying, “Rise and measure the temple of God, the altar, and those who worship there. But leave out the court which is outside the temple, and do not measure it, for it has been given to the Gentiles. And they will tread the holy city underfoot for forty-two months.” (Revelation 11:1-2)

2. How would “Gentiles … tread the holy city underfoot for forty-two months”?

† God knows & will preserve a remnant of His people (2 Timothy 2:19):

† Possible applications:
   • Persecution may physically destroy outer body of kingdom citizens, but soul & kingdom cannot be touched (Matthew 10:16-28).
   • Persecution may spiritually destroy cultural, nominal Christians, but true Christians will stand firm (Matthew 13:24-43).

† Both applications are taught and offer realistic encouragement.

The Two Witnesses

Revelation 11:3-14

Introducing the Two Witnesses

1. How are these two witnesses described? What Old Testament prophets had similar powers? Who could these two witnesses represent? Please also consider Zechariah 4:1-14:

“You will give power to my two witnesses, and they will prophesy a thousand two hundred and sixty days, clothed in sackcloth. These are the two olive trees and the two lampstands standing before the Lord of the whole earth. And if anyone wants to harm them, fire proceeds from their mouth and devours their enemies. And if anyone wants to harm them, he must be killed in this manner. These have power to shut heaven, so that no rain falls in the days of their prophecy; and they have power over waters to turn them to blood, and to strike the earth with all plagues, as often as they desire.” (Revelation 11:3-6)
Introducing the Two Witnesses

3. How are these two witnesses described? What Old Testament prophets had similar powers? Who could these two witnesses represent? Please also consider Zechariah 4:1-14.

- Two is measure of confidence, providing legal veracity (Ecc. 4:9-11; Mat. 18:16).
- Prophesy refers to their proclamation of truth, God’s Word.
- 1260 days – talk about next time
- Sackcloth is associated with mourning (Gen. 37:34; Jer. 6:26).
- Olive trees and lampstands are combined to show officers and institution which provides God’s light to the world (Zechariah 4:1-14; 1 Tim. 3:15; Mat. 5:14-16).
- Represents the church and especially her apostles and prophets proclaiming God’s Word to the world during time of persecution shortly after establishment of church.
- Fire represents the convicting, condemning power of the Word (Jer. 5:14; 23:29).
- Figures of Moses and Elijah suggest the apostles and prophets who have come in their same power, as John the Baptist did of Elijah (Mat. 11:1-15; 17:1-5).

Death of the Witnesses

When they finish their testimony, the beast that ascends out of the bottomless pit will make war against them, overcome them, and kill them. And their dead bodies will lie in the street of the great city which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified. (Revelation 11:7-8).

4. What cities have been “spiritually called Sodom and Egypt”? What did these symbols convey when originally used? Is this a literal reference to Jerusalem? How do you know?

- The beast from the bottomless pit will be discussed in Revelation 13 and 17.
- “Great city” refers to “Babylon.” (Rev. 14:8; 16:19; 17:5, 18; 18:2, 10, 16, 18, 19, 21).
- Sodom represents morally depraved judged by God (Isa. 1:10; 3:9; Jer. 23:14; Eze. 16).
- Egypt represents rebellious nation holding God’s people in captivity.
- If Sodom and Egypt are figurative, then would not Jerusalem be figurative too?
- Represents either city of Rome or Roman empire.

Triumph of the Witnesses

Now after the three and a half days the breath of life from God entered them, and they stood on their feet, and great fear fell on those who saw them. And they heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, “Come up here.” And they ascended to heaven in a cloud, and their enemies saw them. (Revelation 11:11-12)

6. What is symbolized by the death, resurrection, and ascension of these two witnesses?

- Compare to “resurrection” of Israel in returning to home land (Ezekiel 37:1-14).
- Their message – the gospel and its veracity – were vindicated.
- Their ministry appeared to be defeated, but even after literal death, the truth continued to be proclaimed and spread.

A Short-Lived Celebration

5. What events climax the second woe? How is this target different than recipients of previous judgments?

In the same hour there was a great earthquake, and a tenth of the city fell. In the earthquake seven thousand people were killed, and the rest were afraid and gave glory to the God of heaven. The second woe is past. Behold, the third woe is coming quickly. (Revelation 11:13-14)

- Earthquakes symbolize catastrophic judgment from God (Isaiah 24:17-23; 29:5-6; Jeremiah 10:10; Psalm 97:1-4).
- Tenth of the city falling and destruction of a portion represents partial destruction.
- Result produced fear and acknowledgement of God, but not true repentance (James 2:19; Matthew 27:3-5).

Climax of the Second Woe

7. Why would “peoples, tribes, tongues, and nations” celebrate the death of these two witnesses?

Then those from the peoples, tribes, tongues, and nations will see their dead bodies three and a half days, and not allow their dead bodies to be put into graves. And those who dwell on the earth will rejoice over them, make merry, and send gifts to one another, because these two prophets tormented those who dwell on the earth. (Revelation 11:9-10)

- The “peoples, tribes, tongues, and nations” represents all people of this “great city”.
- Encompassing the whole empire. (Notice use of 4.)
- 3½ days is parallel to 1260 days in general meaning, but different specific application – a broken, interrupted period of complete time (¾ of 7), even less than 1260 days in this case.
- “And this is the condemnation, that the light has come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. For everyone practicing evil hates the light and does not come to the light, lest his deeds should be exposed.” (John 3:19-20)
- “They were hated for making people feel guilty and robbing them of excuses for their sin and lack of repentance (John 15:18-25).”

Sounding of the Seventh Trumpet

Revelation 11:15-19
Celebration & Thanksgiving in Heaven
8. Summarize the declarations and worship extended after the seventh trumpet sounded?

Then the seventh angel sounded: And there were loud voices in heaven, saying, “The kingdoms of this world have become the kingdoms of our Lord and of His Christ, and He shall reign forever and ever!” And the twenty-four elders who sat before God on their thrones fell on their faces and worshiped God, saying: “We give You thanks, O Lord God Almighty, The One who is and who was and who is to come, Because You have taken Your great power and reigned. The nations were angry, and Your wrath has come, And the time of the dead, that they should be judged, And that You should reward Your servants the prophets and the saints, And those who fear Your name, small and great, And should destroy those who destroy the earth.” (Rev. 11:15-18)
† Recognizes God no longer warning, but seizing control – doom & destruction.
† Thankful for God’s vindication of His servants and saints (Matthew 19:28).
† Contrast with short-lived celebration on earth when witnesses were killed.

The End of the World?
9. Does this refer to the literal end of the world? If not, what does it mean?
† No, refers to destruction of empire challenging the church:
  • Interpreted in harmony with finishing the mystery delivered to the OT prophets (Revelation 10:7).
  • Declares God has actively begun to reign in kingdoms of men, not end the world.
  • Plus, judgment and doom will continue to escalate in the pouring of the seven vials or bowls of wrath.
† At this point, there is no turning back now – “Prepare to meet your God!”

Displaying the Ark
Then the temple of God was opened in heaven, and the ark of His covenant was seen in His temple. And there were lightnings, noises, thunderings, an earthquake, and great hail. (Revelation 11:19)
10. What is the significance of manifesting the temple containing the ark of the covenant from heaven in verse 19?
† Expressed foreboding doom.
† The ark of the covenant was carried by Israelites when the army was on the march, expressing that God acts and fights for His people (Joshua 3:6; 1 Samuel 4).
† Here implies that God is going to war for His people!

Appearance of Great Signs
Then a great sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a garland of twelve stars. Then being with child, she cried out in labor and in pain to give birth. And another sign appeared in heaven: behold, a great, fiery red dragon having seven heads and ten horns, and seven diadems on his heads. His tail drew a third of the stars of heaven and threw them to the earth. And the dragon stood before the woman who was ready to give birth, to devour her Child as soon as it was born. She bore a male Child who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron. And her Child was caught up to God and His throne. (Revelation 12:1-5)
† When are we first introduced to a serpent at war with a woman and her male child?
   What could this symbol represent? Who is represented by the woman, the child, and the dragon?
The Glorious Woman

1. When are we first introduced to a serpent at war with a woman and her male child? What could this symbol represent? Who is represented by the woman, the child, and the dragon?

† Refers to a conflict that began in the Garden of Eden.

† Splendor of woman and 12 indicates all of God’s people at any time (Gen. 3:9-10).

† Micah 4:10-5:2 emphasizes faithful remnant of Israel laboring until Messiah came.

† Isaiah 66:7-9 emphasizes the nation born to her in a day in addition to male child: “Before she was in labor, she gave birth. Before her pain came, She delivered a male child. Who has heard such a thing? Who has seen such things? Shall the earth be made to give birth in one day? Or shall a nation be born at once? For as soon as Zion was in labor, She gave birth to her children: Shall I bring to the time of birth, and not cause delivery?” says the LORD. “Shall I who cause delivery shut up the womb?” says your God. (Isaiah 66:7-9; for “suddenly”, see also, Malachi 3:1).

The Male Child

1. When are we first introduced to a serpent at war with a woman and her male child? What could this symbol represent? Who is represented by the woman, the child, and the dragon?

† Refers to a conflict that began in the Garden of Eden.

† Micah 4:10-5:2 emphasizes faithful remnant of Israel laboring until Messiah came.

† Isaiah 66:7-9 emphasizes the nation born to her in a day in addition to male child.

† The “Male Child” is obviously the Christ born from the faithful remnant of Israel: “Before she was in labor, she gave birth. Before her pain came, She delivered a male child. Who has heard such a thing? Who has seen such things? Shall the earth be made to give birth in one day? Or shall a nation be born at once? For as soon as Zion was in labor, She gave birth to her children: Shall I bring to the time of birth, and not cause delivery?” says the LORD. “Shall I who cause delivery shut up the womb?” says your God. † Micah 4:10-5:2 emphasizes faithful remnant of Israel laboring until Messiah came.

† Isaiah 66:7-9 emphasizes the nation born to her in a day in addition to male child.

† The “Male Child” is obviously the Christ born from the faithful remnant of Israel.

† The Dragon is directly identified as “that serpent of old, called the Devil and Satan” (Revelation 12:9).

Ancient Conflict

1. When are we first introduced to a serpent at war with a woman and her male child? What could this symbol represent? Who is represented by the woman, the child, and the dragon?

† Refers to a conflict that began in the Garden of Eden:

And the LORD God said to the woman, “What is this you have done?” The woman said, “The serpent deceived me, and I ate.” So the LORD God said to the serpent: “Because you have done this, You are cursed more than all cattle, And more than every beast of the field; On your belly you shall go, And you shall eat dust All the days of your life. And I will put enmity Between you and the woman, And between your seed and her Seed: He shall bruise your head, And you shall bruise His heel”. (Gen. 3:13-15).

1. When are we first introduced to a serpent at war with a woman and her male child? What could this symbol represent? Who is represented by the woman, the child, and the dragon?

† Refers to a conflict that began in the Garden of Eden:

And the serpent said to the woman, “We shall be like God, knowing good and evil.” The woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise. So the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise. So the serpent deceived the woman, and she ate; and she gave also to her husband with whom she was dwelling, and he ate. Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together and made themselves coats. And the man and his wife heard the sound of the Lord God walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the Lord God among the trees of the garden. And the Lord God called to the man, and said to him, “Where are you?” And he said, “I heard the的声音 of You in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself.” And He said, “Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree of which I commanded you not to eat?” And the man said, “The woman whom You gave to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I ate.” And the Lord God said to the woman, “What is this you have done?” The woman said, “The serpent deceived me, and I ate.” So the LORD God said to the serpent: “Because you have done this, You are cursed more than all cattle, And more than every beast of the field; On your belly you shall go, And you shall eat dust All the days of your life. And I will put enmity Between you and the woman, And between your seed and her Seed: He shall bruise your head, And you shall bruise His heel”. (Gen. 3:13-15).
The Dragon’s Power

And another sign appeared in heaven: behold, a great, fiery red dragon having seven heads and ten horns, and seven diadems on his heads. His tail drew a third of the stars of heaven and threw them to the earth. And the dragon stood before the woman who was ready to give birth, to devour her Child as soon as it was born. (Rev. 12:3-4)

2. What is the significance of the dragon having 7 heads, 10 horns, and 7 diadems? Essentially, 7 Heads – Complete intelligence, 7 Diadems – Complete royalty within his realm (Revelation 9:11), and Ten Horns – Complete power could be reference to spiritual provisions and ultimate salvation from both God and the Male Child.

3. What was the dragon’s intention? Why did he not succeed? His tail drew a third of the stars of heaven and threw them to the earth. And the dragon stood before the woman who was ready to give birth, to devour her Child as soon as it was born. She bore a male Child who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron. And her Child was caught up to God and His throne (Revelation 12:4).

4. What happened to the woman? What does this signify? Then the woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by God, that they should feed her there one thousand two hundred and sixty days. (Rev. 12:6).

The Woman Escapes

4. What happened to the woman? What does this signify? Then the woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by God, that they should feed her there one thousand two hundred and sixty days. (Rev. 12:6).

The Woman Escapes

The Male Child’s Victory

3. What was the dragon’s intention? Why did he not succeed? His tail drew a third of the stars of heaven and threw them to the earth. And the dragon stood before the woman who was ready to give birth, to devour her Child as soon as it was born. She bore a male Child who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron, and her Child was caught up to God and His throne. (Revelation 12:4-5).

4. What happened to the woman? What does this signify? Then the woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by God, that they should feed her there one thousand two hundred and sixty days. (Rev. 12:6).

The Woman Escapes

4. What happened to the woman? What does this signify? Then the woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by God, that they should feed her there one thousand two hundred and sixty days. (Rev. 12:6).

Warn in Heaven

Revelation 12:7-11
“War Breaks Out in Heaven”

5. What happened in heaven? Do you think this represents a literal war? What changed for the Devil after these events?

And war broke out in heaven: Michael and his angels fought with the dragon, and the dragon and his angels fought, but they did not prevail, nor was a place found for them in heaven any longer. So the great dragon was cast out, that serpent of old, called the Devil and Satan, who deceives the whole world; he was cast to the earth, and his angels were cast out with him. Then I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, “Now salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of His Christ have come, for the accuser of our brethren, who accused them before our God day and night, has been cast down.” (Revelation 12:7-10)

† He and his angels started a war in heaven, but were defeated by Michael and angels.
† Not literal any more than woman & other “signs” are literal (Eph. 6:13-17; Jude 9).
† The Devil lost his legal right to accuse God and His people (Job 1:2; Zechariah 3).

The Devil Persecutes the Woman

7. How was the woman attacked and saved? What does this represent?

He persecuted the woman who gave birth to the male Child. (Revelation 12:12-13)

† The Devil pours his wrath, contempt upon the only person he can touch, the woman.
† The “woman” represented faithful remnant of Israel that brought forth the Messiah.
† Here, the “woman” represents the early church, consisting of faithful remnant of Israel, now being persecuted – first generation of Christians.
† This represents the Devil’s effort to destroy the early church as an institution.
† Notice “short time” – again eliminating Historicist, Futurist & Idealist positions.

The Dragon’s Wrath

Revelation 12:12-17

The Secret to Overcoming

8. How did they overcome? What lessons can we learn from this statement?

Overcoming When Judged

For what if some did not believe? Will their unbelief make the faithfulness of God without effect? Certainly not! Indeed, let God be true but every man a liar. As it is written: “That You may be justified in Your words, And may overcome when You are judged.” But if our unrighteousness demonstrates the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unjust who inflicts wrath? (I speak as a man.) Certainly not! For then how will God judge the world? … But now the righteousness of God apart from the law has been revealed, being witnessed by the Law and the Prophets, even the righteousness of God, through faith in Jesus Christ, to all and on all who believe. For there is no difference; for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, being justified freely by His grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, whom God set forth as a propitiation by His blood, through faith, to demonstrate His righteousness, because in His forbearance God had passed over the sins that were previously committed, to demonstrate at the present time His righteousness, that He might be just and the Justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus. (Romans 3:3-26)

The Woman Escapes – Revisited

8. How was the woman attacked and saved? What does this represent?

The Woman Escapes – Revisited

The Secret to Overcoming

8. How did they overcome? What lessons can we learn from this statement?

Then I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, “Now salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of His Christ have come, for the accuser of our brethren, who accused them before our God day and night, has been cast down.” (Revelation 12:7-10)

† Three essential requirements:
• Grace and forgiveness provided by Jesus’ sacrifice.
• Willingness to testify and receive the word of testimony (i.e., the apostles’ witness, the gospel).
• Commitment even unto death.
† Commitment even unto death is hardest part.
† Jesus’ sacrifice frees us from the bondage associated with fear of death:
Inasmuch then as the children have partaken of flesh and blood, He Himself likewise shared in the same, that through death He might destroy him who had the power of death, that is, the devil, and release those who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage. (Hebrews 2:14-15)
Targeting the Woman’s Children

9. With the woman out of reach, whom did the dragon target next? What lessons can we learn from this verse and chapter as a whole?

And the dragon was enraged with the woman, and he went to make war with the rest of her offspring, who keep the commandments of God and have the testimony of Jesus Christ (Revelation 12:17).

† The dragon is full of great wrath and rage. This rage is now poured out on her offspring – subsequent generations of Christians not part of church establishment.
† John was the last of “the woman.” Most of his readers belonged to “her offspring.”
† The woman had already succeeded and escaped. The lesson and time of challenge and trial had now come to her children – and by extension, us.
† If we “keep the commandments of God” and “have the testimony of Jesus Christ,” we can expect both the dragon’s rage and persecution (2 Tim. 3:12; Mat. 5:10-16).
† It is our turn to “overcome,” and we can only do so as they did!

Targeting Us

And they overcame him by 1 the blood of the Lamb and by 2 the word of their testimony, and they 3 did not love their lives to the death (Revelation 12:11).

Nebuchadnezzar’s Dream

Daniel 2

The Changer of Times and Seasons

1. How does Daniel’s prayer of thanksgiving for God revealing the interpretation of Nebuchadnezzar’s dream describe God relevant to nations, kings, and the future?

Then the secret was revealed to Daniel in a night vision. So Daniel blessed the God of heaven. Daniel answered and said: “Blessed be the name of God forever and ever, For wisdom and might are His. And He changes the times and the seasons. He removes kings and raises up kings; He gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to those who have understanding. He reveals deep and secret things; He knows what is in the darkness, And light dwells with Him.” (Daniel 2:19-22).

† Ascribes knowledge, wisdom, and power to God.
† Recognizes God as the one Who “changes the times and the seasons.”
† Acknowledges God as the one Who raises and overthrows kingdoms.
† In summary, He knows and controls the rise and fall of kings and kingdoms.

What Will Be in the Latter Days?

2. What was the occasion for Nebuchadnezzar’s dream? What provoked God to reveal it to him? What was the time of its applicability?

But there is a God in heaven who reveals secrets, and He has made known to King Nebuchadnezzar what will be in the latter days. Your dream, and the visions of your head upon your bed, were these: As for you, O king, thoughts came to your mind while on your bed, about what would come to pass after this; and He who reveals secrets has made known to you what will be. (Daniel 2:28-29)

† Seems Nebuchadnezzar was wondering about events after his present time, nation.
† God through Daniel applies them to “the latter days” or “the last days”.
† So, “end days” but end of what? …
† Don’t assume. Must look to the inspired interpretation of the dream.

Revelation

Defending God and Encouraging His Saints

Appendix – Related Prophecies of Daniel
4. What was the significance of the materials used in each segment? Why was one material used over another?
“Whereas you saw the feet and toes, partly of potter’s clay and partly of iron, the kingdom shall be divided; yet the strength of the iron shall be in it, just as you saw the iron mixed with ceramic clay. And as the toes of the feet were partly of iron and partly of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong and partly fragile. As you saw iron mixed with ceramic clay, they will mingle with the seed of men; but they will not adhere to one another, just as iron does not mix with clay.” (Daniel 2:36-43)
† The fourth, the iron kingdom is the strongest.
† But, it will have internal division because of conglomeration of differing peoples.

5. What happened to the statue? How would this one be different than those represented by the other kingdoms?
“Whereas you saw the feet and toes, partly of potter’s clay and partly of iron, the kingdom shall be divided; yet the strength of the iron shall be in it, just as you saw the iron mixed with ceramic clay. And as the toes of the feet were partly of iron and partly of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong and partly fragile. As you saw iron mixed with ceramic clay, they will mingle with the seed of men; but they will not adhere to one another, just as iron does not mix with clay.” (Daniel 2:36-43)
† The kingdoms have descending superiority or value.
† The fourth, the iron kingdom is the strongest.

Relevance to Revelation
† Four succeeding, earthly kingdoms starting with Babylon.
† Later, learn that the other 3 are: Medo-Persian, Grecian, and Roman.
† God’s kingdom, the church, is established during days of Roman empire.
† The Messianic kingdom will crush the other kingdoms and never be destroyed.
The Four Beasts and the Son of Man
Daniel 7

The Origin of the Four Beasts
6. What is the origin of these four beasts? What is suggested by this symbol?
Daniel spoke, saying, “I saw in my vision by night, and behold, the four winds of heaven were stirring up the Great Sea. And four great beasts came up from the sea, each different from the other.” (Daniel 7:2-3)
† The “sea” seems to represent churning, chaotic society, with rising & falling nations, just like the waves (Psalm 65:7; Isaiah 17:12-13; 57:20-21; Jeremiah 49:23; 51:54-55).
† Loss of dominion is compared to falling back into the sea, or being covered by it (Jeremiah 51:40; Ezekiel 26:3-4).
† Powerful nations sit upon or by many waters with “nations streaming” to it (Jeremiah 51:13, 44).

The Four Beasts – #1
7. Describe the four beasts. What is suggested by their descriptions?
“The first was like a lion, and had eagle’s wings. I watched till its wings were plucked off, and it was lifted up from the earth and made to stand on two feet like a man, and a man’s heart was given to it.” (Daniel 7:4)
† “lion” – most ferocious predator, king of beasts – powerful conquest
† “eagle’s wings” – speed of movement, reach – rapid conquest
† “man’s heart given” – conscience was pricked, possibly converted (Daniel 4).

The Four Beasts – #2
7. Describe the four beasts. What is suggested by their descriptions?
“And suddenly another beast, a second, like a bear. It was raised up on one side, and had three ribs in its mouth between its teeth. And they said thus to it: ‘Arise, devour much flesh!’” (Daniel 7:5)
† “bear” – powerful predator, not as fast – powerful conquest
† “raised up” – ready to attack – aggressive conqueror
† “three ribs in its mouth … devour much flesh” – not easily satisfied, continuing to conquer even – aggressive, ambitious conqueror

The Four Beasts – #3
7. Describe the four beasts. What is suggested by their descriptions?
“After this I looked, and there was another, like a leopard, which had on its back four wings of a bird. The beast also had four heads, and dominion was given to it.” (Daniel 7:6)
† “leopard” – powerful predator, very fast – not as powerful as lion or bear
† “four wings of a bird” – very fast; 4 might symbolize spreading out, world number.
† “four heads” – intelligence, or spreading out in all 4 directions (see Daniel 8).
† “dominion was given to it” – legitimacy of kingdom and rule, even if quick?

The Four Beasts – #4
7. Describe the four beasts. What is suggested by their descriptions?
“After this I saw in the night visions, and behold, a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, exceedingly strong. It had huge iron teeth; it was devouring, breaking in pieces, and trampling the residue with its feet. It was different from all the beasts that were before it, and it had ten horns.” (Daniel 7:7)
† “dreadful, terrible, exceedingly strong” – terrifying, extremely powerful empire
† “huge iron teeth” – power to consume, devour
† “devouring, breaking, trampling” – trying to leave nothing of preceding empires.
† “different” – emphasizes uniqueness compared to the others
† “ten horns” – full, complete power.
4. How do these beasts compare to the segments of the statue from Nebuchadnezzar’s dream (2:24-45)?†

† Some similarities in description.
† Babylonian – Gold = Lion, superior
† Medo-Persian – Silver = Bear, inferior
† Greekian – Bronze = Leopard, fast, sprawling
† Roman – Iron = Terrible beast, iron teeth, most powerful
† Most powerful alignment key will be events transpiring in fourth kingdom.

5. What happens to the beasts, and what is suggested by this?

† The burning flame. As for the rest of the beasts, they had their dominion taken away, yet their lives were prolonged for a season and a time. (Daniel 7:11-12)
† Ultimately, they are all destroyed as part of God’s judgment.
† But, the last beast is killed and destroyed immediately after its judgment.
† The other beasts live on, even though their authority is taken away.
† This may suggest that the 4th beast, Rome, was a composite in one of two ways:
  • Spiritually – Defeating, judging Rome implied defeat, judgment of all 4 empires.
  • Nationally – The preceding empires were decapitated, one government replaced with another, but populous remained the same. However, much of Rome’s people were destroyed and replaced.
† Both could be true and intended.

6. How do these things indicate that God’s court was seated?

† God Almighty calls a court of judgment to examine these beasts, especially the last.
† White hair implies purity, holiness, righteousness (Job 9:30; Psalm 51:7; Isaiah 1:18).
† Images of fire represent consuming judgment, similar to Ezekiel 1:4-10.
† Wheels are reminiscent of cherubs from Ezekiel 1:10.
† Innumerable hosts emphasize His recognized authority & power.
† The “pompous words” imply the worst blasphemy considering the pagan peers.

7. What terrible things will the fourth beast do? For how long?

† “Thus great beasts, which are four, are four kings which arise out of the earth.” Thus he said: “The fourth beast shall be a fourth kingdom on earth. Which shall be different from all other kingdoms. And shall devour the whole earth, and shall break it in pieces. The ten horns are ten kings. Who shall arise from this kingdom. And another shall rise after them. He shall be different from the first ones. And shall subdue three kings.” (Daniel 7:17-24)
† They represent kings and kingdoms!
† Each kingdom rises with the success of a rising, powerful king.
† So, it represents both. The king who arises and his kingdom that he builds.

8. How do these beasts compare to the segments of the statue from Nebuchadnezzar’s dream (2:24-45)?

† Most powerful alignment key will be events transpiring in fourth kingdom.

9. Who interrupts the rampage of this fourth beast? How is He described? Why might He interject at this point?

† I was watching in the night visions, And behold, One like the Son of Man, Coming with the clouds of heaven! He came to the Ancient of Days. And they brought Him near before Him. Then to Him was given dominion and glory and a kingdom. That all peoples, nations, and languages should serve Him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion, Which shall not pass away. And His kingdom the one Which shall not be destroyed. (Daniel 7:13-14)
† Heaven’s view of Jesus ascension, revealed in symbolic vision (Acts 1:9-11).
† Seems parallel to appearance of Jesus’ and granting of scroll (Revelation 4-5).
† Also parallel to rock striking feet of 4th kingdom and mountain consuming all preceding kingdoms and their residue (Daniel 2:44-45).
† Represents Jesus’ ascension, establishment of church, and judgment against nations.
Judgment Against the Fourth Beast

14. What judgment will be made against the “pompous horn” and his kingdom?

“The horn was watching, and was also watching the current of any nations, and that the horn spoke to the flame burning, … But the horn shall be cut off. And it shall proceed out of its own kind, and shall consume and destroy it forever. (Daniel 7:11, 16)

† The 4th beast – the 4th kingdom – would be destroyed forever.
† This eliminates Futurist position which looks to a revived Roman empire in Europe.

Possess the Kingdom

15. Who will be granted rule? Practically, how is this accomplished? Is this equivalent to the establishment of the church?

“Then to Him was given dominion and glory and a kingdom. That all peoples, nations, and languages should serve Him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion, Which shall not pass away. And His kingdom the one Which shall not be destroyed. … judgment was made in favor of the saints of the Most High, and the time came for the saints to possess the kingdom. … Then the kingdom and dominion, And the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole heaven, Shall be given to the people, the saints of the Most High. His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, And all dominions shall serve and obey Him.” (Daniel 7:14, 22, 27)
† Rule was turned over to Christ, which in some measure was granted to the saints.
† Does not refer to establishment of church, because saints were persecuted by the Rome, the 4th beast, well after the church was established.

Relevance to Revelation

† Beasts and related symbols are very similar to those in Revelation 13.
† The ascension, coronation, and commissioning of Jesus is very similar to content of expanded scenes in Revelation 4-5.
† Indicates that the beasts, especially the 4th, war against God’s saints.
† Shows that persecution will last for 3½ times.
† Ultimately, all beasts will be judged and destroyed shortly after Messianic kingdom is established.
† Elaborates on significance and application of saints ruling with Jesus and possessing the kingdom after other kingdoms are destroyed.
† Helps to further eliminate false interpretations, like Futurist & 70 AD.

Taking Possession

“Pass through the camp and command the people, saying, ‘Prepare provisions for yourselves, for within three days you will cross over this Jordan, to go in to possess the land which the LORD your God is giving you to possess.’” (Joshua 1:11)

Now, Joshua was old, advanced in years. And the LORD said to him: “You are old, advanced in years, and there remains very much land yet to be possessed.” (Joshua 13:1)

So the LORD gave to Israel all the land of which He had sworn to give to their fathers, and there transgressed My covenant and My oath, which I commanded their fathers, and has not heeded My voice; I also will no longer drive out before them any of the nations which Joshua left when he died, so that through them I may test Israel, whether they will keep the ways of the LORD, to walk in them as their fathers kept them, or not.” Therefore the LORD left those nations, without driving them out immediately; nor did He deliver them into the hand of Joshua. Now these are the nations which the LORD left, that He might test Israel by them, that is, all who had not known any of the wars in Canaan (this was only so that the generations of the children of Israel might be taught to know war, at least those who had not formerly known it), namely, five lords of the Philistines, all the Canaanites, the Sidonians, and the Hivites who dwelt in Mount Lebanon, from Mount Baal Hermon to the entrance of Hamath. And they were left, that He might test Israel by them, to know whether they would obey the commandments of the LORD, which He had commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses. (Judges 2:20-3:4)
† Like Israel, we have been given a kingdom to possess. We enjoy some peace, but we must also finish some battles because of the need before us, for God, for His saints, and us.

The Ram and the Goat

Daniel 8

The judgment of the beast was rendered by the kingdom in heaven. This judgment was made in favor of the saints of the Most High, and the time came for the saints to possess the kingdom. Then the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people, the saints of the Most High. His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey Him. (Daniel 7:14, 22, 27)

Isaiah 14:4-11

And the kings of the earth set themselves in array against the Lamb, and the armies were gathered together of this world, against the Lamb. And they gathered them together, as the gathering of shepherds in the midst of the sheep. And they beat the earth, and the sea, and they came totrumph over the dragon. And he was taken away, and cast into the fiery lake of burning 14. What judgment will be made against the “pompous horn” and his kingdom? "I watched them because of the sound of the pompous words which the horn was speaking; I watched till the beast was slain, and its body destroyed and given to the burning flame... But the horn shall be cut off. And it shall proceed out of its own kind, and shall consume and destroy it forever." (Daniel 7:11, 16)
† The 4th beast – the 4th kingdom – would be destroyed forever.
† This eliminates Futurist position which looks to a revived Roman empire in Europe.

Taking Possession

“Pass through the camp and command the people, saying, ‘Prepare provisions for yourselves, for within three days you will cross over this Jordan, to go in to possess the land which the LORD your God is giving you to possess.’” (Joshua 1:11)

Now, Joshua was old, advanced in years. And the LORD said to him: “You are old, advanced in years, and there remains very much land yet to be possessed.” (Joshua 13:1)

So the LORD gave to Israel all the land of which He had sworn to give to their fathers, and they took possession of it and dwelt in it. (Joshua 21:41)

You have seen all that the LORD your God has done to these nations because of you, for the LORD your God is He who has fought for you. See, I have divided to you by lot these nations that remain, to be an inheritance for your tribes, from the Jordan, with all the nations that I have cut off, as far as the Great Sea toward the westward. And the LORD your God will expel them from before you and drive them out of your sight. And you shall possess their land, as the LORD your God promised you.” (Joshua 21:41)

Therefore be very courageous to keep and to do all that is written in the Book of the Law of Moses, lest you turn aside to the right hand or to the left, and lest you go among these nations, these who remain among you. You shall not make mention of the name of their gods, nor cause anyone to swear by them; you shall not serve them nor bow down to them, but you shall hold fast to the LORD your God, as you have done to this day. Therefore take careful heed to yourselves, that you love the LORD your God.” (Joshua 23:3-11)

Are We “Taking Possession”?

† Does this judgment apply to us? (Reign of Jesus)
† What about the “the westward” part of the verse? Do we cross the Jordan and possess the kingdom?
† Like Israel, we have been given a kingdom to possess. We enjoy some peace, but we must also finish some battles because of the need before us, for God, for His saints, and us.

The Ram and the Goat

Daniel 8

The judgment of the beast was rendered by the kingdom in heaven. This judgment was made in favor of the saints of the Most High, and the time came for the saints to possess the kingdom. Then the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people, the saints of the Most High. His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey Him. (Daniel 7:14, 22, 27)
The Ram

16. Describe the first beast. How does Daniel’s depiction of his geography in his vision help identify the first beast? Who is represented by the first beast?

In the third year of the reign of King Belshazzar a vision appeared to me – to me, Daniel – after the one that appeared to me the first time. I saw in the vision, and it so happened while I was looking, that I was in Shushan, the citadel, which is in the province of Elam; and I saw in the vision that I was by the River Ulai. Then I lifted my eyes and saw, and there, standing beside the river, was a ram which had two horns, and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher one came up last. I saw the ram, ‘pushing westward, northward, and southward, so that no animal could withstand him; nor was there any that could deliver from his hand, but he did according to his will and became great.” (Daniel 8:1-4)

† Ram was located by a capital of Persia, Shushan (Susa)
† Represents Medo-Persian empire (8:20), “kings of Media and Persia”.

The Ram’s Rage

19. What did the second beast do to the first, and what is represented by this?

Then he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing beside the river, and ran at him with furious power. And I saw him confronting the ram; he was moved with rage against him, attacked the ram, and broke his two horns. There was no power in the ram to withstand him, but he cast him down to the ground and trampled him; and there was no one that could deliver the ram from his hand. (8:6-7)

† In its western expansion, Persia did not manage to fully break Greece, although they subjugated some portion.
† They managed mainly to anger them and build resentment.
† The male-goat trampling the ram represents the breaking of Medo-Persian empire by Alexander the Great of Greece.

The Two Horns

17. How are its two horns described, and what might this suggest?

Then I lifted my eyes and saw, and there, standing beside the river, was a ram which had two horns, and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher one came up last. (Daniel 8:3)

† But, Medes were stronger in the beginning:
  • Darius, who conquered Babylon, was a Mede (Daniel 5:29; 9:1)
  • Cyrus, who released the Jews, and all following kings were Persian (Ezra 1:1)

The Four Horns

Therefore the male goat grew very great; but when he became strong, the large horn was broken, and in place of it four notable ones came up toward the four winds of heaven. (Daniel 8:8)

20. What is indicated by the breaking of the large horn into four other smaller horns?

“And the male goat is the kingdom of Greece. The large horn that is between its eyes is the first king. As for the broken horn and the four that stood up in its place, four kingdoms shall arise out of that nation, but not with its power.” (Daniel 8:21-22)

Division and rivalry then afflicted the Macedonians, however. The satrapies handed out by Perdiccas at the Partition of Babylon became power bases each general used to bid for power. After the assassination of Perdiccas in 321 BC, Macedonian unity collapsed, and 40 years of war between “The Successors” (Diadochi) ensued before the Hellenist world settled into four stable power blocks: Ptolemaic Egypt, Seleucid Mesopotamia and Central Asia, Attalid Anatolia, and Antigonal Macedon. In the process, both Alexander IV and Phillip III were murdered. http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Alexander_the_Great#Division_of_the_empire (2017-05-20)

† “Four kingdoms” could be symbolic, representing division of the map (Jeremiah 49:36).

The Notable Horn

18. How is the second beast described? What is notable about its horns, and what might this suggest?

And as I was considering, suddenly a male goat came from the west across the surface of the whole earth, without touching the ground; and the goat had a notable horn between his eyes. (Daniel 8:5)

† The first king of this second empire, Greece, would be extremely powerful – Alexander the Great.
† Alexander’s father, Phillip II of Macedon, was also a great king, but the kingdom only spread “across the surface of the whole earth without touching the ground” under Alexander’s rule.

Result of the Babylon Partition

[Image of Babylon Partition]
The War of the Little Horn

21. What was accomplished by the horn that grew to the southeast? What did he do in the “Glorious Land” and for how long? What would ultimately happen to him? And out of one of them came a little horn which grew exceedingly great toward the south, toward the east, and toward the Glorious Land. And it grew up to the host of heaven; and it cast down some of the host and some of the stars to the ground, and trampled them. He even exalted himself as high as the Prince of the host; and by him the daily sacrifices were taken away, and the place of His sanctuary was cast down. Because of transgression, an army was given over to the horn to oppose the daily sacrifices; and he cast truth down to the ground. He did all this and prospered. Then I heard a holy one speaking; and another holy one said to that certain one who was speaking, “How long will the vision be, concerning the daily sacrifices and the transgression of desolation, the giving of both the sanctuary and the host to be trampled under foot?” And he said to me, “For two thousand three hundred days; then the sanctuary shall be cleansed.” (Daniel 8:9–14)

22. Gabriel pins the application of the vision to what time? How is this to be understood? And in the latter time of their kingdom, When the transgressors have reached their fullness, A king shall arise, Having fierce features. Who understands sinister schemes. His power shall be mighty, but not by his own power; He shall destroy fearfully, And shall prosper and thrive. He shall destroy the mighty, and also the holy people. Through his cunning He shall cause deceit to prosper under his rule. And he shall exalt himself in his heart. He shall destroy many in their prosperity. He shall even rise against the Prince of princes; But he shall be broken without human means. (Daniel 8:23–25)

† Or, more consistently – it refers to the end of the Grecian empire and the Seleucids.
† As seen before, God judges and destroys when “there is no remedy”. This is that end time for the Grecian empire.

Distant Future Application

23. What was Daniel to do with the vision? Why? “And the vision of the evenings and mornings Which was told is true; Therefore seal up the vision, For it refers to many days in the future.” (Daniel 8:26)

† 539 B.C. – Not be understood because not apply or be fulfilled until distant future.
† Antiochus Epiphanes (Antiochus IV) – Seleucid king from 175-163 B.C.
• Conquered Jerusalem
• Erected an image to Zeus in the temple
• Offered a pig upon the altar of burnt offering
• Directed the Greek soldiers to perform ritual fornication in and around the temple
• Forbade circumcision, Sabbath observance, and possession of the Scriptures, burning them.
• Whipped and killed Jews who would not burn incense to Zeus
• Built a stadium, gymnasium for Jewish boys to compete in athletics while naked.
• Temple was desecrated from 171-165 B.C. (i.e., the 2300 days).
† Provoked the Maccabean Revolt (167-164 B.C.).
† Died of a disease in 164 B.C.

“The Seventy-Weeks Prophecy Daniel 9”

22. Gabriel pins the application of the vision to what time? How is this to be understood? And I heard a man’s voice between the banks of the Ulai, who called, and said, “Gabriel, make this man understand the vision.” So he came near where I stood, and when he came I was afraid and fell on my face; but he said to me, “Understand, son of man, that the vision refers to the time of the end.” Now, as he was speaking with me, I was in a deep sleep with my face to the ground; but he touched me, and stood me upright. And he said, “Look, I am making known to you what shall happen in the latter time of the indignation, for at the appointed time the end shall be.” (8:16–19)

† “Because of transgression, an army was given over to the horn to oppose daily sacrifices ...” may indicate this persecution was partially a punishment (8:12).
† Regardless, the point seems to be the end of wrath against the Jews.
† It provides hope by setting a boundary, terminalization of the suffering.
National Punishment & Restoration

25. The provision of the seventy-weeks prophecy to Daniel is a response to what request from him? How does this influence a proper understanding of its applicable target?

In the first year of Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of the lineage of the Medes, who was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans – in the first year of his reign I, Daniel, understood by the book the number of the years specified by the word of the LORD through Jeremiah the prophet, that He would accomplish seventy years in the desolations of Jerusalem. Then I set my face toward the Lord God to make request by prayer and supplications, with fasting, sackcloth, and ashes. “We have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, to walk in His laws, which He set before us by His servants the prophets. Yes, all Israel has transgressed Your law, and has departed so as not to obey Your voice, therefore the curse and the oath written in the Law of Moses the servant of God have been poured out on us, because we have sinned against Him. … O Lord, hear! O Lord, forgive! O Lord, listen and act! Do not delay for Your own sake, my God, for Your city and Your people are called by Your name.” Now while I was speaking, praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before the LORD my God for the holy mountain of my God, (Daniel 9:1-20)
† Confessing national sin of people and asking God to act as promised by Jeremiah and Moses.

“Seventy Weeks Are Determined”

25. Enumerate the things to be accomplished during the seventy-weeks. Could the prophecy be completed without these things being fulfilled? What might these mean?

“Seventy weeks are determined For your people and for your holy city. To finish the transgression, To make an end of sins, To make reconciliation for iniquity, To bring in everlasting righteousness, To seal up vision and prophecy, And to anoint the Most Holy.” (Daniel 9:24)
† Most clearly includes Messianic sacrifice and establishment of His kingdom.
† Some phrases suggest other events as well:
• “finish the transgression”
• “seal up vision and prophecy”
• “anoint the Most Holy”
† These could point to destruction of Jerusalem, maybe Rome too.
† All of these would need to be fulfilled for the prophecy to be true.

Events of Weeks 7 and 69

27. What two events mark the end of weeks 7 and 69 (7 + 62)?
† Know therefore and understand. That from the going forth of the command To restore and build Jerusalem Until Messiah the Prince, There shall be seven weeks and sixty-two weeks. The street shall be built again, and the wall. Even in troublesome times.
And after the sixty-two weeks Messiah shall be cut off, but not for Himself. And the people of the prince who is to come Shall destroy the city and the sanctuary. The end of it shall be with a flood, And till the end of the war desolations are determined.” (Daniel 9:25-26)
† Seven weeks would be required to rebuild Jerusalem, including its wall.
† Jesus would be crucified after week 69 (“seven and sixty-two”).
† The last week pertains to what happened when Jesus died, resurrected, and ascended and shortly after that.

Issuing the Decree to Rebuild

26. When does the seventy-weeks period begin? What event marks its beginning?
† Know therefore and understand. That from the going forth of the command To restore and build Jerusalem Until Messiah the Prince, There shall be seven weeks and sixty-two weeks. The street shall be built again, and the wall. Even in troublesome times.
And after the sixty-two weeks Messiah shall be cut off, but not for Himself. And the people of the prince who is to come Shall destroy the city and the sanctuary. The end of it shall be with a flood, And till the end of the war desolations are determined. Then he shall confirm a covenant with many for one week; But in the middle of the week He shall bring an end to sacrifice and offering. And on the wing of abominations shall be one who makes desolate, Even until the consummation, which is determined, Is poured out on the desolator.” (Daniel 9:26-27)
† Jesus confirmed His covenant during the period of the last week.
† Throughout His sacrifice, He was able “To make an end of sins, To make reconciliation for iniquity, To bring in everlasting righteousness”.

Rome’s Jewish Wars

28. What would occur during the period between the mid-week event and the end of the last week?
† And after the sixty-two weeks Messiah shall be cut off, but not for Himself. And the people of the prince who is to come Shall destroy the city and the sanctuary. The end of it shall be with a flood, And till the end of the war desolations are determined. Then he shall confirm a covenant with many for one week; But in the middle of the week He shall bring an end to sacrifice and offering. And on the wing of abominations shall be one who makes desolate, Even until the consummation, which is determined, Is poured out on the desolator.” (Daniel 9:26-27)
† Jesus applies them to the destruction of Jerusalem (Matthew 24:15; Mark 13:14; Luke 21:20), “the abomination of desolation spoken of through Daniel the prophet”.
† Jesus applies them to the destruction of Jerusalem (Matthew 24:15; Mark 13:14; Luke 21:20), “the abomination of desolation spoken of through Daniel the prophet”.

† Jesus applies them to the destruction of Jerusalem (Matthew 24:15; Mark 13:14; Luke 21:20), “the abomination of desolation spoken of through Daniel the prophet”. [Note: The text contains a repetition. The content should be read carefully.]
Rome’s Jewish Wars

28. What would occur during the period between the mid-week event and the end of the last week?

(And after the sixty-two weeks Messiah shall be cut off, but not for Himself; And the people of the prince who is to come Shall destroy the city and the sanctuary. The end of it shall be with a flood, And till the end of the war desolations are determined. Then he shall confirm a covenant with many for one week; But in the middle of the week He shall bring an end to sacrifice and offering. And on the wing of abominations shall be one who makes desolate. Even until the consummation, which is determined, Is poured out on the desolate.)

(Daniel 9:26-27)

† A.D. 68 – Vespasian halted siege preparations to take the throne.
† A.D. 69 – Titus camped in sight of Jerusalem and even broke of the siege for 4 days.
† A.D. 70 – Titus destroyed Jerusalem and the temple, including altars and all records.

“Not one stone shall be left on top of another, that shall not be thrown down” (Matthew 24:2).

The End of the Jews

Daniel 10-12

Sealed until the End

At that time Michael shall stand up, The great prince who stands watch over the sons of your people; And there shall be a time of trouble, Such as never was since there was a nation, Even to that time. And at that time your people shall be delivered, Every one who is found written in the book. And many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, Some to everlasting life, Some to shame and everlasting contempt. Those who are wise shall shine Like the brightness of the firmament, And those who turn many to righteousness Like the stars forever and ever. But you, Daniel, seal up the words, and seal the book until the time of the end; many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall increase. Then I, Daniel, looked; and there stood two others, one on this riverbank and the other on that riverbank. And one said to the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, "How long shall the fulfillment of these wonders be?" Then he said, "Go your way, Daniel, for the words are closed up and sealed till the time of the end." (Daniel 12:1-9)

Revelation

Defending God and Encouraging His Saints

Lesson 14 – The Sea and Earth Beasts

The Sea Beast

Revelation 13:1-10

Rise of the Sea Beast

1. What was the origin of the first beast? How might this help us understand what the beast represents?

Then I stood on the sand of the sea. And I saw a beast rising up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and on his horns ten crowns, and on his heads a blasphemous name. (Revelations 13:1)

† Very similar to the four beasts arising from the sea in Daniel 7.
† The “sea” seems to represent churning, chaotic society, with rising & falling nations, just like the waves (Psalm 65:7; Isaiah 17:13-14; 57:20-21; Jeremiah 49:23; 51:54-55).
† Loss of dominion is compared to falling back into the sea, or being covered by it (Jeremiah 51:40; Ezekiel 26:3-4).
† Powerful nations sit upon or by many waters with “nations streaming” to it (Jeremiah 51:13, 44).
1. Describe this first beast, and compare it to the beasts described in Daniel 7:1-28.

What did the beast and their attributes in Daniel 7 originally represent? How does this help us better understand this first beast of Revelation 13?

Then I stood on the sand of the sea. And I saw a beast rising up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and on his horns ten crowns, and on his head a blasphemous name. Now the beast which I saw was like a leopard, his feet were like the feet of a bear, and his mouth like the mouth of a lion. The dragon gave him his power, his throne, and great authority. (Revelation 13:1-2)

3. The Beast’s War against God’s Saints

What’s Missing?

4. What general events are depicted in Daniel 7 that are not represented in Revelation 13:1-8?

- Like Daniel 7, this represents a huge empire, spanning many peoples.
- Like Daniel 7, there is a pompous, blasphemous mouth associated with this beast.
- Like Daniel 7, this beast makes war against God’s saints and overcomes them.
- Like Daniel 7, the time of persecution is limited to “forty-two months” (3½ years).

What’s New?

5. What general events are provided in Revelation 13:1-8 that were not disclosed in Daniel 7?

And I saw one of his heads as if it had been mortally wounded, and his deadly wound was healed. And all the world marveled and followed the beast. So they worshiped the dragon who gave authority to the beast, and they worshiped the beast, saying, “Who is like the beast? Who is able to make war with him?” All who dwell on the earth will worship him, whose names have not been written in the Book of Life of the Lamb from the foundation of the world. (Revelation 13:3-8)

- “The dragon” gave the sea beast “his power, his throne, and great authority.”
- The sea beast has 10 heads, and one of them was almost killed, but it was healed.
- All those lost in the world were amazed and followed the beast.
- The lost world worshiped the dragon and the beast.
- The lost world thought no one could challenge the beast.
5. What general events are provided in Revelation 13:1-8 that were not disclosed in Daniel?
And I saw one of his heads as if it had been mortally wounded, and his deadly wound was healed. And all the world marveled and followed the beast. So they worshiped the dragon who gave authority to the beast; and they worshiped the beast, saying, “Who is like the beast? Who is able to make war with him?” (Revelation 13:1-8)

† Reveals and emphasizes that the Devil is behind the beast and its war against God and His saints.
† Learn that the persecuting force will appear to be halted, but then it will resume.
† Discover that diverting worship from God to the beast and the dragon is part of the effect – and probable – motivation for this war. It is to cause unbelievers to worship him.

“Deceiver and Liar”

8. Describe the second beast and explain how this depicts his true nature and behavior.
Then I saw another beast coming out of the earth, and he had two horns like a lamb and spoke like a dragon. (Revelation 13:11)

† Has the deceitful appearance of sacrifice, attempting to subvert the true Lamb (5:6).
† For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into apostles of Christ. And no wonder! For Satan himself transforms himself into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also transform themselves into ministers of righteousness, whose end will be according to their works. (2 Corinthians 11:13-15)

The Earth Beast
Revelation 13:11-18

7. What was the origin of the second beast? How might this help us understand what the beast represents?
Then I saw another beast coming out of the earth, and he had two horns like a lamb and spoke like a dragon. (Revelation 13:11)

† Few possibilities for interpreting “the earth” are:
1. Realm of the unregenerate. All lost in contrast to those who are saved, sealed.
2. Realm of false religion and religious institutions, in contrast to political or true religion.
† Without explanation, “the earth beast” is later called “the false prophet” (16:13; 19:20; 20:10); consequently, option #2 seems the best.

The Earth Beast
Revelation 13:1-8

6. What is the “patience and faith of the saints”? What did this mean to the early saints? How does it apply today to us?
All who dwell on the earth will worship him, whose names have not been written in the Book of Life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. (Revelation 13:8)

† Provides discovery that evil is contingent upon conditions of an individual and situation.
† Calls for careful attention, consider carefully (Psalm 10:17; Proverbs 22:17; Isaiah 28:23).
† God's people trust that He will avenge them upon those who persecute, oppress & kill them.
† Provide comfort: God will take care of us when mistreated – eventually (Luke 18:1-8).
† Without explanation, “the earth beast” is later called “the false prophet” (16:13; 19:20; 20:10); consequently, option #2 seems the best.

The Cult of Emperor Worship

9. What kinds of things does this second beast do? What seems to be its primary purpose or role?

And he exercises all the authority of the first beast in his presence, and causes the earth and those who dwell in it to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed. He performs great signs, so that he even makes fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men. And he deceives those who dwell on the earth by those signs which he was granted to do in the sight of the beast, telling those who dwell on the earth to make an image to the beast who was wounded by the sword and lived. (Revelation 13:12-14)

† He exercises all the authority of the first beast in his presence, and causes the earth and those who dwell in it to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed. He performs great signs, so that he even makes fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men. And he deceives those who dwell on the earth by those signs which he was granted to do in the sight of the beast, telling those who dwell on the earth to make an image to the beast who was wounded by the sword and lived. (Revelation 13:12-14)

The coming of the beastly one is according to the working of Satan, with all power, signs, and wonders, and with all unrighteous deception among those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved. (2 Thess. 2:9-10)

† Competes with “two witnesses” who produced fire to confirm their message (11:5).

Mortal & Economic Persecution

10. What restriction does this second beast impose that will make life difficult for Christians?

He was granted power to give breath to the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak and cause as many as would not worship the image of the beast to be killed. He causes all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and slave, to receive a mark on their right hand or on their foreheads, and that no one may buy or sell except one who has the mark or the name of the beast, or the number of his name. (Revelation 13:15-17)

† By swapping letters for numbers – and even languages, 666 can be summed by:
  • Neron Caesar (Latin)
  • Hitler
  • Various Popes
  • Napoleon, etc.

† Marks on “foreheads” and “right hands” may be indicate difference in thoughts (or words expressed) and deeds. Compare to “fruit of the Spirit” (Galatians 5:16-26)

† Failure to worship would result in economic persecution, even death.

Who Is 666?

11. What number is associated with which beast? What is the significance of this number?

What ultimate lessons can we learn from this numerical assignment?

Here is wisdom. Let him who has understanding calculate the number of the beast, for it is the number of a man. His number is 666. (Revelation 13:18)

† By swapping letters for numbers – and even languages, 666 can be summed by:
  • Neron Caesar (Latin)
  • Hitler
  • Various Popes

Lesson 15 – The Lamb and His Army

Who Is 666?

666 number means: failure, failure, failure or doom, doom, doom.

† In essence, 666 number means: failure, failure, failure or doom, doom, doom.

† Represents the colossal, spectacular failure of the persecuting, Roman emperor and his kingdom – not any one specific person – just the end of any man opposing God.

† Alternative, represents Nero revived in Domitian and following persecuting emperors.

Revelation

Delighting God and Encouraging His Saints
The Lamb of Zion and His Saints
Revelation 14:1-5

The 144,000 with the Lamb

1. How does the Lamb's host compare to those who followed the beast in chapter 13? Then I looked, and behold, a Lamb standing on Mount Zion, and with Him one hundred and forty-four thousand, having His Father's name written on their foreheads. (Revel 14:1)
2. In 13:15-17, the "earth beast" causes the earth to:
   - Worship the image of the beast.
   - Accept the "mark or name of the beast... on their right hand or on their foreheads."
3. Here, these worship God and the Lamb. They wear God's name on their foreheads.
4. These 144,000 with the Lamb are parallel but stand in contrast to the earth dwellers.

Who Are the 144,000?

1. Where does the Lamb stand? What is the significance of this, especially when contrasted with the origin of the preceding beasts?
2. Solomon's temple was erected on "Mount Zion". Come to mean God's dwelling (Psa. 9:11; 20:2; 48:2-3; Is 8:18).
3. Eventually, represented both physical Jerusalem, national Israel (Isaiah 5:16-17).
4. The Lamb's temple was erected on "Mount Zion". Come to mean God's dwelling (Psa. 9:11; 20:2; 48:2-3; Is 8:18).

Lessons from the Symbols

1. Why do the nations rage, and the people plot a vain thing? The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, Against the LORD and against His Anointed, saying, “Let us break Their bonds in pieces And cast away Their cords from us.” He who sits in the heavens shall laugh; The Lord shall hold them in derision. Then shall they be put to shame together with their rulers, When they shall be terrorized together, because of the king's decree: This shall be the reward of all the nations that have forsaken My sanctuary and My law. (Psalm 2:1-12)
2. And I heard a voice from heaven, like the voice of many waters, and like the voice of harpists playing their harps. (Revel 14:1)
3. And they sang a new song before the throne, and before the four living creatures, and the elders; and no one could learn that song except the hundred and forty-four thousand who were redeemed from among men, being firstfruits to God and to the Lamb. (Revel 14:2-5)
4. What lessons are implied in the text by these symbols? What applications can we make for us?
Lessons from the Symbols

- What lessons are implied in the text by these symbols? What applications can we make for us?
  ✩ Joyful & Thankful People – “sound of harpists playing … sang a new song”.
  ✩ Worthy People – “before the throne … four living creatures … the elders”.
  ✩ Special People – “no one could learn that song except” them.
  ✩ Saved People – “redeemed from the earth”, realm of false-religion, regenerate.
  ✩ Morally Pure & Holy People – “not defiled with women … virgins”.
  ✩ Convicted, Committed, & Loyal People – “follow the Lamb wherever He goes”.
  ✩ Honest People – “in their mouth was no deceit”.

Who is “Babylon”?

- Who is Babylon that the second angel references?
  ✩ As much as depends on us, are we joyful, thankful, pure, holy, loyal, and honest?
  ✩ As much as depends on God, do we trust Him to make us worthy, special, saved, righteous, and justified?
  ✩ Do we take courage and comfort in these promises?
  ✩ Implies that repentance is desired & accepted – “Worship Him”.
  ✩ Righteous, Justified People
  ✩ Call to Warning
  ✩ As much as depends on us, are we joyful, thankful, pure, holy, loyal, and honest?
  ✩ Morally Pure & Holy People

The Three Angels’ Proclamations
Revelation 14:6-13

“The Everlasting Gospel”

Then I saw another angel flying in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach to those who dwell on the earth – to every nation, tribe, tongue, and people – saying with a loud voice, ““Fear God and give glory to Him, for the hour of His judgment has come; and worship Him who made heaven and earth, the sea and springs of water” (Revelation 14:6-7).

- How does the first angel’s proclamation represent “the everlasting gospel”?
  ✩ Warning – God’s judgment has come.
  ✩ Call to Repentance:
    - “Fear God”
    - “Give glory to Him”
    - “Worship Him”
  ✩ Implies that repentance is desired & accepted – mercy is available – good news!

Babylon the Seductress

“Flee from the midst of Babylon, And every one save his life! Do not be cut off in her midst. For this is the time of the LORD’S vengeance; He shall recompense her; Babylon was a golden cup in the LORD’S hand, That made all the earth drunk. The nations drank her wine; Therefore the nations are deranged because she has made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.” (Revelation 14:8)

- Discusses in more detail in chapters 16-18. Few characteristics introduced here:
  ✩ “That great city” – Represents at least a large, powerful city, if not something greater (i.e., empire).
  ✩ “She” – Idealized as a woman, like wisdom (Pro. 1:20-33; 7:4-8:9), Israel as “daughter of Zion” (2 Kings 19:21-31; Isaiah 1:8-9), ancient Babylon (Jeremiah 51:33).
  ✩ “Made all nations” – Center of influence upon many if not all nations, a global force.
  ✩ Seduces with “wine of the wrath of her fornication” – Persuaded to great wickedness with intoxicant:
    - Alcohol may taste good, make you feel good, but it destroys in following day and years (Proverbs 23:29-35).
    - The inconstant lover’s inhibition to join her in her sin which is bringing wrath from God.
"Babylon Is Fallen"

8. Why do you explain the angel referring to the fall of Babylon in the past tense? Had it fallen at that time? If not, why use the past tense?

And another angel followed, saying, "Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she has made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication." (Revelation 14:8)

† The "past prophetic tense", referring to future events so certain as already passed ... also to those who are of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all (as it is written, "I have made you a father of many nations") in the presence of Him whom he believed — God, who gives life to the dead and calls those things which do not exist as though they did; who, contrary to hope, in hope believed, so that he became the father of many nations, according to what was spoken, "So shall your descendants be." (Romans 4:16-18)

† Other examples ...

Just Judgment

8. Why was Babylon judged? What can we learn about God from this? What lessons should we make for ourselves?

And another angel followed, saying, "Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she has made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication." (Revelation 14:8)

† Comforting that God is avenging those persecuted by "Babylon".

† Instructive for those who do not understand why God is judging "Babylon".

† Demonstrates God's justice. Regardless of the size, power, influence of a city, judgment will come if it sins and does not repent. God does not play favorites.

"The Patience of the Saints" - Revisited

9. What is the "patience of the saints" in this verse? What application can we make?

Then a third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, "If anyone worships the beast and his image, and receives his mark on his forehead or on his hand, he himself shall also drink of the wine of God, which is poured out full strength into the cup of His indignation; and he who worshiped the beast and his image, and received his mark on his forehead or on his hand, ... " (Revelation 14:9-10)

† ... and it will last much longer.

† Furthermore, blessings await those who die – even martyrdom – now:

• Rewarded for their works.

• Rest from their labors.

• Avoid physical death.

• Avoid economic hardship – not being able to buy or sell.

† However, torment in hell will be much worse …

† ... and it will last much longer.

† Based on their trust in God and Jesus, they are able to endure patiently with the above hope.

"The Patience of the Saints" - Revisited

The vengeance of the Lord our God. The vengeance of His temple. Call together the archers against Babylon. All you who bend the bow, encamp against it all around. Let none of them escape. (Revelation 14:16-17)

9. What is the "patience of the saints" in this verse? What application can we make?

Then a third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, "If anyone worships the beast and his image, and receives his mark on his forehead or on his hand, he himself shall also drink of the wine of God, which is poured out full strength into the cup of His indignation. He shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels and in the presence of the Lamb. And the smoke of their torment ascends forever and ever; and there is no rest day or night, who worship the beast and his image, and whoever receives the mark of his name." (Revelation 14:9-11)

How the hammer of the whole earth has been cut apart and broken! How Babylon has become a desolation among the nations! I have laid a snare for you; You have indeed been trapped, O Babylon. And you were not aware. You have been found and also caught. Because you have contended against the Lord, The Lord has opened His armory, And has brought out the weapons of His indignation. For this is the work of the Lord GOD of hosts In the land of the Chaldeans. ... The voice of those who flee and escape from the land of Babylon Declares in Zion the vengeance of the Lord our God. The vengeance of His temple. Call together the archers against Babylon. All you who bend the bow, encamp against it all around. Let none of them escape. (Jeremiah 50:23-29)

"Babylon Is Fallen"

"And look, here comes a chariot of men with a pair of horsemen!" Then he answered and said, "Babylon is fallen, is fallen! And all the carved images of her gods He has broken to the ground." (Isaiah 21:9)

"Declare among the nations, Proclaim, and set up a standard; Proclaim — do not conceal it — Say, 'Babylon is taken, Bēl is shamed, Merodach is broken in pieces; Her idols are humiliated, Her images are broken in pieces.' For out of the north a nation comes up against her. Which shall make her land desolate, And no one shall dwell therein. ... " (Jeremiah 50:2)
Apparent Defeat

10. Why is it important to understand that blessing follows those “who die in the Lord from now on”? What is confusing about death, especially the death that was awaiting many of those early saints?

† Martyrdom appeared as defeat, but resisting persecution actually secured eternal blessings and victory.

Who Is the Rider on the Cloud?

11. Who is represented by the rider on the cloud of the first harvest? Why is this important? What is its significance?

Then I looked, and behold, a white cloud, and on the cloud sat One like the Son of Man, having on His head a golden crown, and in His hand a sharp sickle. And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to Him who sat on the cloud, “Thrust in Your sickle and reap, for the harvest of the earth is ripe.” So He who sat on the cloud thrust in His sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped. (Revelation 14:14-16)

† Appears to be Jesus:
  • “the Son of Man” – Refers to Jesus’ humanity (Daniel 7:13);
  • “on the cloud” – Vehicle used to carry Jesus to heaven, bring Him back, and bring Him in judgment (Acts 1:9-11; Matthew 24:30).

The Two Harvests

12. What is being gleaned in these two harvests? Are they reaping the same harvest? If not, how are they different?

Then another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle. And another angel came out of the altar, who had power over fire, and he cried with a loud cry to him who had the sharp sickle, saying, “Thrust in your sharp sickle and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth, for her grapes are fully ripe.” So the angel thrust his sickle into the earth and gathered the vine of the earth, and threw it into the great winepress of the wrath of God. (Revelation 14:17-19)

† Clearly, the latter harvest is intended for judgment and destruction.
† Therefore, the previous harvest must have been for redemption and salvation.
† Similar to message of comfort of sealing God’s people before destruction (7:1-8).
† Comforting to know that although the difference may not be obvious here (Mat. 13:24-30, 36-43), evil may even triumph here (Psa. 73). God makes a distinction.

The Winepress of the Wrath of God

And another angel came out from the altar who had power over fire, and he cried with a loud cry to him who had the sharp sickle, saying, “Thrust in your sharp sickle and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth, for her grapes are fully ripe.” So the angel thrust his sickle into the earth and gathered the vine of the earth, and threw it into the great winepress of the wrath of God. And the winepress was trampled outside the city, and blood came out of the winepress, up to the horses’ bridleths, for one thousand six hundred furlongs. (Revelation 14:18-20)

† Compare the use of the “winepress of the wrath of God” here to the original uses by Old Testament prophets (Isaiah 63:1-6; Lamentation 1:15; Joel 3:9-16). What is the meaning of this symbol?
  • “Ripeness” is used to show end of patience, passed ready for judgment (Jed 3:12-13).
  • “Sharpness” implies both swiftness and accuracy of judgment (Hebrews 4:12-13).
  • “Trampling …blood” refer to the judgment, destruction and extent (Lam. 1:15; Isa. 63:2-4).
  • “The wine” is used to refer to the “drunken” effect induced by the devastation (Isa. 63:6).
  • 1600 = 4 x 4 x 10 x 10 = Emphasize covering the world, the breadth of impact & destruction.
  • “Outside the city” – Associated criminal (Kii.21:13). Inter city not trampled (Rev. 11:2-3).

Harvesting the Earth

Revelation 14:14-20

“Sea of Glass Mingled with Fire”

2. Where else has the symbol of the “sea” been previously used in Revelation? How is the “sea” here connected to those references, if any? What is the significance of the symbol in this case?

And I saw something like a sea of glass mingled with fire, and those who have the victory over the beast, over his image and over his mark and over the number of his name, standing on the sea of glass, having harps of God. (Revelation 15:2)

† In 13:1, the “sea beast” arose from the “sea” …

† If related, then this could represent society on fire, in upheaval or turmoil.

† The “sea of glass, like crystal” is only mentioned in 4:6 as “before the throne” …

† God uses “fire” to purify His saints (Zec. 13:9; Mal. 3:2-4; 1Cor.3:12-15; 1Pet.1:7).

† Death, here associated with a fiery trial, is the last barrier, unattainable that separates us from God. It does not exist in eternity (21:1).

† Here the saints are seen victorious (“standing on the sea”), conquering the beast and its temptations through a fiery death, all while praising God (Acts 16:25).

Great, Marvelous, Just, True, Holy God

3. What lessons can we learn from the song sung by those “standing on the sea of glass”? How does this compare to previous questions and songs offered to God by His saints?

Great and marvelous are Your works, Lord God Almighty! Just and true are Your ways, O King of the saints! Who shall not fear You, O Lord, and glorify Your name? For You alone are holy. For all nations shall come and worship before You. For Your judgments have been manifested.” (Revelation 15:3-4)

† Even those suffering martyrdom recognize God to be:
  * “Great and marvelous are your works” (Psalm 92:5; 98:1; 145:17).
  * “Just and true”
  * “Holy”
  * “Worthy of reverence and glory”
  * “Worthy of worship from all nations” (Psalm 86:9; Jeremiah 10:7; Romans 10:12; Phil. 2:10-11).

† Despite every miscarriage of justice, “they are without excuse” (Romans 1:18-22).

† Those most abused are not only ultimately delivered but also singing His praises.

† The Song of Moses was foreshadowing of the Song of the Lamb - one and the same.

The Last Plagues

1. Does the following vision represent a retelling of the already told story, or is it a continuation? How do you know?

Then I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvelous: seven angels having the seven last plagues, for in them the wrath of God is complete. (Revelation 15:1)

† How can something be “last” if it is not part of something that came first?

† How can something “complete” God’s wrath, if it was not part of something that was previously incomplete?

† Necessarily implies this is a continuation instead of a recapitulation, retelling.

The Song of Moses – Deliverance

Then Moses and the children of Israel sang this song to the LORD, and spoke, saying: “I will sing to the LORD, For He has triumphed gloriously! The horse and its rider He has thrown into the sea! The LORD is my strength and song, And He has become my salvation; He is my God, and I will praise Him. My father’s God, and I will call Him. The LORD is a man of war. The LORD is His name. … whose name is before the throne, … and a man of war. … to the ends of the earth. … Who is like You, O LORD, among the gods? Who is like You, glorious in holiness, fearul in praises, doing wonders? … You in the court of the holy one, on the mount Zion. … You will bring all the ends of the world; You will remove from before our face the one who exults in his heart. We will be filled with the knowledge of Your righteousness. …” (Exodus 15:1-18)
The Seven Bowls of Wrath

4. What were provided to the seven angels, and what was represented by them?

After these things I looked, and behold, the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened. And out of the temple came the seven angels having the seven plagues, clothed in pure bright linen, and having their chests girded with golden bands. Then one of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God who lives forever and ever. (Revelation 15:5-7)

† Loosening the seven "seals" reveal, unleashed God’s plan of judgment.
† Sounding the seven "trumpets" warn of judgment through partial destruction.
† Pouring the seven "bowls of wrath" execute judgment through full destruction.
† The "bowls" affect the same elements as the "trumpets", but to greater extent.
† God’s judgment of Rome has escalated so there is no turning back, although opportunities to repent will still be presented.

The Temple without Entrance

5. What happened to the temple, and what is the point of this occurrence?

The temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God and from His power, and no one was able to enter the temple till the seven plagues of the seven angels were completed. (Revelation 15:8)

† Mt. Sinai was covered in smoke upon God’s descent (Exodus 19:18; Hab. 3:3).
† Indicates his burning anger preceding fiery retribution (Psalm 18:6-15).
† May emphasize that the time of intercessory mercy was over.
† Compare to God telling people to stop praying: (1 John 5:15-16; Jeremiah 11:14; Proverbs 1:24-33; John 17:9).
† Only judgment of Rome remained now. It could not be averted.
† Individuals could still repent and be saved, but the empire was past saving. “It could not be healed” (Jeremiah 51:7-9; 2 Chronicles 26:36).

Questions?

– Review

The First Three Bowls

Revelation 16:1-7
Pouring the First Three Bowls of Wrath

1. What happens in the outpouring of the first three bowls of wrath?

Then I heard a loud voice from the temple saying to the seven angels, “Go and pour out the bowls of the wrath of God on the earth.” So the first went and poured out his bowl upon the earth, and a foul and loathsome sore came upon the men who had the mark of the beast and those who worshiped his image. Then the second angel poured out his bowl on the sea, and it became blood as of a dead man, and every living creature in the sea died. Then the third angel poured out his bowl on the rivers and springs of water, and they became blood. (Revelation 16:1-4)

2) Sea to Blood – Great Mountain Burning

3) Rivers & Springs to Blood

Conclusion:

And in that day I will make a difference between My people and your people in the midst of the land. I will make a difference between My people who live in the land of Goshen, in which My people dwell, and the Egyptian, in which they dwell, that no swarms of flies shall be there. In order that you may know that I am the LORD in the midst of the land. I will make a difference between My people and your people.

And the earth brought forth frogs upon the land of Egypt.

Tomorrow this sign shall be.” (Exodus 8:22-23; 9:4, 25-26; 10:22-23; 11:5-7)

† God knows His people and makes a distinction, protecting them from the punishment due sinners.

Nevertheless the solid foundation of God stands, having this seal: “The Lord knows those who are His.” (2 Timothy 2:19; see also, 1 Kings 19:18; Isaiah 40:26-27)

† He also expects us to purify ourselves; otherwise, we will share in their judgment.

“Whoever Shrugs Man’s Blood ...

4. According to the “angel of the waters”, why was God justified in His judgment of wrath?

And I heard the angel of the waters saying, “You are righteous, O Lord, The One who is and who was and who is to be, Because You have judged these things. For they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, And You have given them blood to drink. For it is their just due.” And I heard another from the altar saying, “Even so, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are Your judgments.” (Revelation 16:5-7)

† Those who unrighteously shed blood must have their blood shed (Genesis 9:6).

† “Righteous ... because You have judged” – God is righting a wrong, avenging an injustice in “giving them blood to drink”.

† Additionally, this answers, satisfies the prayers and cries of the saints for God to see and act (Revelation 6:9-11; 8:3-5; 14:17-20).

† Does God know, care, and act? Yes, yes, yes!

Targets of the First Three Plagues

2. Who is targeted by these plagues? Who is not affected?

Then I heard a loud voice from the temple saying to the seven angels, “Go and pour out the bowls of the wrath of God on the earth.” So the first went and poured out his bowl on the earth, and a foul and loathsome sore came upon the men who had the mark of the beast and those who worshiped his image. Then the second angel poured out his bowl on the sea, and it became blood as of a dead man, and every living creature in the sea died. Then the third angel poured out his bowl on the rivers and springs of water, and they became blood. (Revelation 16:1-4)

1) Sore upon Worshippers of the Beast
2) Sea to Blood – all Sea Creatures
3) Rivers & Springs to Blood

What do these things mean?

5. What might these symbolize?

† Hailey and Harkrider – Natural disasters
† Waters are identified as political and ethnic entities, not literal waters (Revelation 17:15; Jeremiah 51:42-44).
† Although natural disasters were certainly part of weakening, destruction of Rome, these signs indicate may indicate people problems – government, political, economic, racial, moral, wisdom, etc.

Making a Difference

3. What Old Testament story also contained plagues that targeted one group while sparing another? What was the lesson then? Might the same lesson apply here as well?

† Similar to other plagues seen here (?1-3; 14:9-20) and in symbol’s origin.

“And in that day I will set apart the land of Goshen, in which My people dwell, that no swarms of flies shall be there. In order that you may know that I am the LORD in the midst of the land. I will make a difference between My people and your people. Tomorrow this sign shall be.” (Exodus 8:22-23; 9:4, 25-26; 10:22-23; 11:5-7)

† God knows His people and makes a distinction, protecting them from the punishment due sinners.

Nevertheless the solid foundation of God stands, having this seal: “The Lord knows those who are His.” (2 Timothy 2:19; see also, 1 Kings 19:18; Isaiah 40:26-27)

† He also expects us to purify ourselves; otherwise, we will share in their judgment.

Trumpets versus Bowls of Wrath

→ Trumpets

→ Bowls

7) 7th Seal → Seven Trumpets
1) Earth Burned: Hail, Fire with Blood
2) Sea to Blood: Great Mountain Burning
3) Rivers, Fountains Poisoned: Wormwood Star
4) Sun, Moon, Stars Darkened
5) Locusts from Bottomless Pit – Tormented 5 months
6) Army from Euphrates: 200 M horsemen; ⅓ of men killed

7) 7th Trumpet → Seven Bowls of Wrath
1) Earth: Grievous Sore, Mark of Beast
2) Sea to Blood: Every Creature Died
3) Rivers, Fountains to Blood
4) Sun Scorched Men
5) Darkness on Beast’s Kingdom – Men Gnawed Tongues from Pain
6) Army from Euphrates: Gathered at Armageddon
6. What was affected by the fourth and fifth bowls? What might this symbolize? Then the fourth angel poured out his bowl on the sun, and power was given to him to scorch men with fire. And men were scorched with great heat. Then the fifth angel poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and his kingdom became full of darkness; and they gnawed their tongues because of the pain. (Revelation 16:8-10)

4) The Sun – Scorch men with fire, great heat.
† Represent the leading luminary whether philosopher, emperor, or false god …
5) Throne of the Beast – Kingdom became full of darkness, leading to intense pain.
† Represent the consequences of moral depravity, incompetent government, or lost hope …
† Combined, represent the same imagery as hell – fire, darkness, and severe pain (Matthew 25:30; Mark 9:43-48).
† Man suffers a total withdrawal of God and all of His blessings?

7. What remarkable event did not occur following each of these plagues? What can we learn about God and men from this common, recorded observation? And men were scorched with great heat, and they blasphemed the name of God who has power over these plagues, and they did not repent and give Him glory; … They blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and did not repent of their deeds. (Revelation 16:9, 11)
† Insistent on Sin - Men refused to acknowledge the One Who both punished them and could also save them.
† Longsuffering, Merciful – God continues to judge and punish in a way that is leaving the door open to repentance, implying possibility of grace and redemption.
† “God is not Man” – Because God is perfect in knowledge, power, and character:
  • Judges decisively when we would be reluctant to cut off opportunity for grace (1 Samuel 15:29).
  • Waits when we would hurry to destroy (Hos 11:9).
† God is just in His judgment. Respect His “severity” (Romans 11:22).

8. In the vision, what was accomplished by the sixth bowl of wrath? What could this represent? Then the sixth angel poured out his bowl on the great river Euphrates, and its water was dried up, so that the way of the kings from the east might be prepared. (Revelation 16:12)
† Euphrates River always served as a symbol of a border, defense to keep out invading empires (Jeremiah 46:2-10).
† Indicates that kingdoms and empires once held at bay will be able to start attacking and invading.
† Eastern border of Roman Empire was always pressed by Parthian Empire.

9. Is the releasing of the three frogs part of the outpouring of the bowl, or are they a response to it? How do you know? And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs coming out of the mouth of the dragon, out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet. For these spirits of demons, performing signs, which go out to the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty. (Rev. 16:13-14)
† Appears to be a response, because bowls are from God. Frogs are from the Devil.
† The “kings of the east” represent nations used to bring judgment against Rome.
† As counter, the Devil and his agents summon other nations as allies to help them in a coming decisive battle, “the battle of that great day of God Almighty”.
† The “earth beast” (13:11-18) is now called the “false prophet”.
† Miracles performed by “frogs” are fake, trickery like “earth beast” before (2 Corinthians 11:13-15; Exodus 7:8; Matthew 24:24; 2 Thessalonians 2:9-12).
† Note, God is allowing the Devil to summon his full strength – to make a point.
2 Kings 23:29-30

† Valley of Megiddo was a location of decisive battles in Old Testament:
† No more literal than
† There is no real, physical Mount Megiddo – only a town

11. What is the significance of Megiddo in the Old Testament?  What might be the significance of Mount Megiddo (Armageddon) in this context?

• Barak and Deborah versus Canaanite kings (Judges 4:16, 5:21).
• Saul loses to Philistines (1 Samuel 31:8).
• Ahahah dies from Jehu’s arrows (2 Kings 9:27).
• Joshua’s seven days of darkness and trumpets (Joshua 6:1-20).
• Mounts with, and in, connection with, fire, sword, hail, etc. (Revelations 14:18).
• To be interpreted as a central location for the battle of Armageddon.

† Plus, after the sixth bowl, God moves to another alternative, wind & air are associated with life (Ephesians 2:2).
† Another alternative, wind & air are associated with the most certain, concrete – of this age (Galatians 6:7-8).
† Another alternative, wind & air are associated with the most certain, concrete – of this age (Galatians 6:7-8; 1 Thessalonians 5:1-4; Matthew 24:37-51).
† The Air – Directly targeting the “prince of the power of the air” (Ephesians 2:2).

12. Who or what is the target of the seventh bowl of wrath?

End of the World – Again?

† The Great One, the Root of David, has prevailed as King over the nations (Revelation 11:15).
† The Devil was thrown down to the earth (Revelation 12:9).
† The Devil has been bound for a thousand years (Revelation 20:2).
† The Devil attacks in the seventh and final battle – Armageddon (Revelations 14:18-20; 16:19-21).
† The Devil is definitively there now, with his full strength of a thousand kings (Revelations 16:19).
† The Devil’s future is definitely sealed (Revelations 20:10).
It’s the Woman’s Fault, You Gave Me

14. Why is men’s response to this plague so unjust and shameful?

† Men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail, since that plague was exceedingly great. (Revelation 16:21)
† Represents the extreme hardened nature of these people (contrast Eso. 9:27-35).
† They insist on blaming God instead of taking responsibility and repenting. (Gen. 5).
† Warns against the hardening, deceiving nature of sin, destroying man’s ability to rightly, morally judge (Ephesians 4:17-19; Romans 1:21-32).

Beware, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief in departing from the living God: but exhort one another daily, while it is called “Today,” lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin. For we have become partakers of Christ if we hold the beginning of our confidence steadfast to the end. (Hebrews 3:12-14)
† Do we take responsibility for our faults & sins, or do we blame others — or God?

“Have You Seen This, O Son of Man?”

Furthermore He said to me, “Son of man, do you see what they are doing; the great abominations that the house of Israel commits here, to make Me go far away from My sanctuary? Now turn again, you will see greater abominations. So He brought me to the door of the court; and when I looked, there was a hole in the wall. Then He said to me, “Son of man, dig into the wall,” and when I dug into the wall, there was a door. And He said to me, “Go in, and see the wicked abominations which they do there.” Then He said to me, “Son of man, dig into the wall”, and when I dug into the wall, there was a door. And He said to me, “Go in, and see the wicked abominations which they are doing there.” So I went in and saw; and there — every sort of abominable thing, abominable beasts, and all the idols of the house of Israel, portrayed all around on the walls. And there stood before them seventy men of the elders of the house of Israel, and in their midst stood Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan. Each man had a censer in his hand, and a thick cloud of incense went up. Then He said to me, “Son of man, have you seen what the elders of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in the room of his house? For they say, ‘The LORD does not see us, the LORD has forsaken the land’.” And He said to me, “Turn again, and you will see greater abominations that they are doing.” And He said to me, “Have you seen this, O son of man? Is it a trivial thing to the house of Judah to commit the abominations which they commit here? For they have filled the land with violence; then they have returned to provoke Me to anger. Indeed they put the branches to their nose. Therefore I also will act in fury. My eye will not spare nor will I have pity, and though they cry in My ears with a loud voice, I will not hear them.” (Ezekiel 8:6-18)

The God Who Seeks Our Understanding

To the others He said in my hearing, “Go after him through the city and kill; do not let your eye spare, nor have any pity. Utterly slay old and young men, maidens and little children and women; but do not come near anyone on whom the mark is, and begin at My sanctuary.” So they began with the elders who were before the temple. Then He said to them, “Defile the temple, and fill the courts with the slain. Go out!” And they went out and killed in the city. So it was, that while they were killing them, I was left alone; and I fell on my face and cried out, and said, “Ah, Lord GOD! Will You destroy all the remnant of Israel in pouring out Your fury on Jerusalem?” Then He said to me, “The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceedingly great, and the land is full of bloodshed, and the city full of perversity; for they say, ‘The LORD has forsaken the land, and the LORD does not see!’ And as for Me also, My eye will neither spare, nor will I have pity, but I will recompense their deeds on their own head.” (Ezekiel 9:5-10)
† Surprisingly, God wants us to understand His justice (Rom. 3:4, 25-26), even in pouring out His wrath. The “judgment” shown to us is not the actual judgment, but its reason.

A Powerful Harlot

2. How is she influencing other people? What powers are attributed to her?

Then one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and talked with me, saying to me, “Come, I will show you the judgment of the great harlot who sits on many waters, with whom the kings of the earth committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth were made drunk with the wine of her fornication.” (Revelation 17:1-2)

† She is affecting all classes – kings and inhabitants.
† Her influence is broad – “the earth”.
† “The earth” may represent the unregenerate, those bound to false religion.
† The “many waters” will be explained later in verse 15 …

Back From The Brink of Disaster?

6. What is meant by the description of the beast that “was and is not and yet is”?

But the angel said to me, “Why did you marvel? I will tell you the mysteries of the woman and of the beast that carries her, which has the seven heads and the ten horns. The beast that you saw, and is not, and will ascend out of the bottomless pit and come to perdition. And those who dwell on the earth will marvel, whose names are not written in the Book of Life from the foundation of the world, when they see the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.” (Revelation 17:8)

† Two possibilities to discuss in more detail later, but generally:
- Implies Roman empire recovered from a near disaster (8:23) but disaster will ultimately fail it.
- Beast represents succession of empires, rising and falling – the same underlying spirit dying and returning as one empire dies and is succeeded by a new empire with the same fundamental nature.

Rome is only the current incarnation of this beast. (i.e., The Devil is behind all anti-God gov’t.)

7. How does the angel interpret the heads of the dragon? How does this help us understand who the beast is?

The last, fourth kingdom, which persecutes the church.

† Church was established during Roman empire, which persecuted the church. Rome is only the current incarnation of this beast. (i.e., The Devil is behind all anti-God gov’t.)

The Seven Heads of the Scarlet Beast

7. How does the angel interpret the heads of the dragon? How does this help us understand who the beast is?

- Implies Roman empire recovered from a near disaster (8:23) but disaster will ultimately fail it.
- Beast represents succession of empires, rising and falling – the same underlying spirit dying and returning as one empire dies and is succeeded by a new empire with the same fundamental nature.

8. How are the horns of the beast interpreted by the angel? How do the horns support the dragon’s agenda?

“The ten horns which you saw are ten kings who have received no kingdom as yet, but they receive authority for one hour as kings with the beast. These are of one mind, and they will give their power and authority to the beast. These will make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb will overcome them, for He is Lord of lords and King of kings; and those who are with Him are called, chosen, and faithful.” (Rev. 17:12-14)

† “Ten horns” = “ten kings” Complete number of leaders:
- Petty kings or provincial rulers.
- Submit to the beast hoping to receive greater authority and power.
- Their power is increased, but only for a little while.
- They will drive persecution against the Lamb’s church & saints but ultimately lose.
- Have we answered the gospel call and been chosen? Are we remaining faithful?

Spirit of ill Will & Treachery

10. What surprising, ironic attitude do the horns manifest toward the harlot? What do they do to her – and ultimately, why? What weakness does this exhibit within the dragon’s army?

“And the ten horns which you saw on the beast, these will hate the harlot, make her desolate and naked, eat her flesh and burn her with fire. For God has put it into their hearts to fulfill His purpose, to be of one mind, and to give their kingdom to the beast, until the words of God are fulfilled.” (Rev. 17:16-17)

† Although initially submissive to Rome, the petty kings will sabotage Rome.
- Selfish, evil, wicked people only unite for selfish purposes – as long as it suits them.
- Once their common goal is realized, they will turn on each other (Eze. 16:37-41).
- God often uses this to His advantage, to realize His purposes (Judges 9:1-24).
- Edom, Moab & Ammon (2 Chr. 20:23), Midian (Judges 7:22), Philistines (1 Sam. 14:20).

Who Is the Beast? The Harlot?

11. Who or what does the beast represent? Who or what does the harlot represent?

“And the woman whom you saw was that great city which reigns over the kings of the earth.” (Revel 17:18)

† “The Scarlet Beast”
- Same as the “Two beasts” of 13:1
- Same composite description of Daniel 7
- Same war as 4th kingdom of Daniel 2
- First 3 kingdoms of Daniel 2, 7 are named: Babylon, Medo-Persia, and Greece
- Rome is 4th empire by history
- Church was established during Roman empire, which persecuted the church.

“Capital City of Rome”

† “The Great Harlot”
- Rules, influences many nations, ethnicities
- Rules over all the kings.
- Enraged others to fight God and kill saints.
- Wealthy, seductive, alluring and immoral.
- Symbolized by ancient Babylon capital.
- Mother of harlots & abominations.
- Wealth, immoral influence supported & spread by empire’s conquest.
- Although hated & sabotaged by constituents.

Destruction of the Harlot in the OT

1. Compare the description of this harlot’s destruction and condemnation to similar uses of this symbol in Old Testament prophecy (Nahum 3:1-7; Isaiah 23:15-18; 47:1-15; 1:21; Jer. 2:20)
2. The description of the harlot and her sins were provided chapter 17.
3. Many similarities were observed then.
4. Her arrogance, attitude toward judgment, and final destruction are shown here in 18.
5. For the sake of time, we will pass over revisiting these passages establishing more similarities …

1. Nineveh, Capital of Assyria – Harlot of Conquest & Cruelty:

There is a multitude of slain, A great number of bodies – They stumble over the corpses – because of the multitude of harlotries of the seductive harlot, The mistress of sorceries, Who sells nations through her harlotries, And families through her sorceries… “Behold, I am against you,” says the LORD of hosts; “I will lift your skirts over your face, I will show the nations your nakedness, And the kingdoms your shame. I will cast abominable filth upon you, Make you vile, And make you a spectacle. It shall come to pass that all who look upon you Will flee from you, and say, ‘Nineveh is laid waste! Who will bemoan her?’ Where shall I seek comforters for you?” (Nahum 3:1-7)

2. Babylon, Capital of Babylon – Harlot of Conquest, Cruelty, Wealth & Idolatry:
   “Come down and sit in the dust, O virgin daughter of Babylon; Sit on the ground without a throne, O daughter of the Chaldeans! For you shall no more be called Tender and delicate. Take the millstones and grind meal. Remove your veil, Take off your skirt, Uncover the thigh, … Your nakedness shall be uncovered, … O daughter of the Chaldeans; For you shall no longer be called The Lady of Kingdoms. I was angry with My people … given them into your hand. You showed them no mercy… But these two things shall come to you In a moment, in one day. The loss of children, and widowhood … Because of the multitude of your sorceries. For the great abundance of your enchantments. For you have trusted in your wickedness, … Stand now with your enchantments. And the multitude of your sorceries, in which you have labored from your youth – Perhaps you will be able to profit. Perhaps you will prevail. (Isa. 47:1-15)
O Judah, their priests and their prophets, saying, "And that you have forsaken the LORD your God, for you have built for yourself centers ofすごいな、舎 in the midst of a vineyard, as a hut in a garden of cucumbers, as a besieged city. ... How one of Israel, They have turned away backward. ... So are corrupters! They have forsaken the LORD, They have provoked to anger The Holy One of Israel, They have turned away backward. ... How the faithful city has become a harlot! It was full of justice; Righteousness lodged in it, but now murderers. ... Your princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves; they are not afraid, for they are of those who transgress. ..."

The burden against Tyre. Wail, you ships of Tarshish! For it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no harbor: ... she is a marketplace for the nations. Be ashamed, O Sidon: For the sea has risen, The strength of the sea, saying, "I do not labor, nor bring forth children; Neither do I rear young men, Nor bring up virgins." ... Tyre will be forgotten seventy years ... At the end of seventy years it will happen to Tyre as in the song of the harlot: Take a harp, go about the city, You forgotten harlot! Make sweet melody, sing many songs, That you may be remembered." ... And it shall be, at the end of seventy years, that the LORD will visit Tyre. She will return to her hire, and commit fornication with all the kingdoms of the world on the face of the earth. Her gain and her pay will be set apart for the LORD. ... (Isaiah 23:1-18)

The burden against Jerusalem. ... "Ah, sinful nation, A people laden with iniquity, A brood of evildoers, Children who are corrupters! They have forsaken the LORD, They have provoked to anger The Holy One of Israel, They have turned away backward. ... How the faithful city has become a harlot! It was full of justice; Righteousness lodged in it, but now murderers. ... Your princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves; they are not afraid, for they are of those who transgress. ..."

The vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem: ... "Alas, sinful nation, A people laden with iniquity, A brood of evildoers, Children who are corrupters! They have forsaken the LORD, They have provoked to anger The Holy One of Israel, They have turned away backward. ... So the daughter of Zion is left as a booth in a vineyard, As a hut in a garden of cucumbers, As a besieged city. ... How the faithful city has become a harlot! It was full of justice; Righteousness lodged in it, but now murderers. ... Your princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves; they are not afraid, for they are of those who transgress. Everyone loves bribes, and follows after rewards. They do not defend the fatherless, nor does the cause of the widow come before them." (Isaiah 1:1-23)

You are not restricted by us, but you are restricted by your own affections. ... Do not be unequally yoked together with unbelievers. For what fellowship has righteousness with lawlessness? And what communion has light with darkness? And what accord has Christ with Belial? Or what part has a believer with an unbeliever? And what agreement has the temple of God with idols? For you are the temple of the living God. As God has said: "I will dwell in them and walk among them. I will be their God, and they shall be My people." Therefore "Come out from among them and be separate, says the Lord. Do not touch what is unclean, And I will receive you. I will be a Father to you, and You shall be My sons and daughters, Says the LORD Almighty." Therefore, having these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God. (2 Corinthians 6:12-7:1)

"Come out from among them and be separate, says the Lord. Do not touch what is unclean, And I will receive you. I will be a Father to you, and You shall be My sons and daughters, Says the LORD Almighty." Therefore, having these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God. (2 Corinthians 6:12-7:1)
Babylon Is Fallen – Again

After these things I saw another angel coming down from heaven, having great authority, and the earth was illuminated with his glory. And he cried mightily with a loud voice, saying, “Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and has become a dwelling place of demons, a prison for every foul spirit, and a cage for every unclean and hated beast! For all the nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth have become rich through the abundance of her luxury.” (Revelation 18:1-3)

And another angel followed, saying, “Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she has made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.” (Revelation 14:8)

1. How is the harlot’s fall as recorded in 18:1-3 different than the message proclaimed is prophesying of actual event and reaction after it really is past – in the future.

2. How is the harlot’s fall as recorded in 18:1-3 different than the message proclaimed is prophesying of actual event and reaction after it really is past – in the future.

3. How are the stated lessons similar? Why is this theme being repeated and remembered her iniquities receive of her plagues of the earth have committed fornication “For all the nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth have become rich through the abundance of her luxury.” (Rev. 18:1-3) and the merchants of the earth have already been seduced, compromised, and partaken of her sins and are doomed with her …

4. What is the significance of the harlot being served "Cage For Every Unclean & Hated Bird"

† Alludes to desolation of aftermath: “For My sword shall be bathed in heaven; Indeed it shall come down on Edom, And on the people of My curse, for judgment. The sword of the LORD is filled with blood … a great slaughter in the land of Edom. … For it is the day of the LORD’S vengeance. The year of recompense for the cause of Zion. … No one shall pass through it forever and ever. But the eagle shall be there, and the serpents shall possess it. Also the ass and the mare shall dwell in it, and the lion shall thrust out over it. The line of confusion and the stony places of emptiness. They shall call its nobles to the kingdom. But none shall be there, and all its princes shall be nothing. And there shall be come up in its palace, Sculptures and chambers in its fortresses. It shall be a habitation of jackals. A courtyard for ostriches. The wild beasts of the desert shall also meet with the jackals. And the wild goat shall bleat to its flock. And the night creature shall rest there. And find for herself a place of rest. There the arrow snake shall make her nests and lay eggs. And hatch, and gather them under her shadow. There also shall the hawks be gathered. Every one with one mate.” (Isaiah 34:5-15)

† Remember, nations, kings, and merchants have already been seduced, compromised, and partaken of her sins and are doomed with her …

† Given her great, powerful influence, Jesus’ people are naturally warned not to be overcome with her allure and likewise compromise and sin.

† Most pointed here, but alluded to previously. (2:14; 2:20-22; 12:11, 17; 14:7-12)

Come Out of the Doomed City

“Up, up! Flee from the land of the north,” says the LORD: “for I have spread you abroad like the four winds of heaven,” says the LORD. “Up, Zion! Escape, you who dwell with the daughter of Babylon.” For thus says the LORD of hosts: “He sent Me after glory, to the nations which plunder you; for he who touches you touches the apple of His eye. For surely I will shake My hand against them, and they shall become spoil for their servants. Then you will know that the LORD of hosts has sent Me. Sing and rejoice. O daughter of Zion! For behold, I am coming and I will dwell in your midst,” says the LORD. (Zechariah 2:6-10)

† Do not compromise – separate yourself spiritually …

Repay Her Double

“Render to her just as she rendered to you, and repay her double according to her works; in the cup which she has mixed, mix double for her. In the measure that she glorified herself and lived luxuriously, in the same measure give her torment and sorrow: for she says in her heart, ‘I sit as queen, and am no widow, and will not see sorrow.’” (Revelation 18:6-7)

4. What is the significance of the harlot being served “double … in the cup which she mixed”? Does this indicate an unjust punishment exceeding that of the crimes committed? Explain.

† Allusion to balancing the scales of justice – requires repeating or “doubling” the original trouble, “torment and sorrow” that she created.

† Notice, she is repaid “in the same measure” – not double of her measure.

Interjected Warning

“For all the nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth have become rich through the abundance of her luxury.” And I heard another voice from heaven saying, “Come out of her, my people, lest you share in her sins, and lest you long for her works. For her sins have reached to heaven, and God has remembered her iniquities.” (Revelation 18:3-5)

3. How are the stated lessons similar? Why is this theme being repeated and emphasized? Where else in Scripture is this same theme emphasized?

† Remember, nations, kings, and merchants have already been seduced, compromised, and partaken of her sins and are doomed with her …

† Given her great, powerful influence, Jesus’ people are naturally warned not to be overcome with her allure and likewise compromise and sin.

† Most pointed here, but alluded to previously. (2:14; 2:20-22; 12:11, 17; 14:7-12)

“I Sit as a Queen”

“Sit in silence, and go into darkness. O daughter of the Chaldeans. For you shall no longer be called The Lady of Kingdoms. … you said, ‘I shall be a lady forever. So that you did not take these things to heart, Nor remember the latter end of them. Therefore hear this now, you who are given to pleasures. Who dwell securely. Who say in your heart, ‘I am, and there is no one else besides me; I shall not sit as a widow, Nor shall I know the loss of children.’ But these two things shall come to you In a moment, in one day: The loss of children, and widowhood. They shall come upon you in their fullness Because of the multitude of your sorceries. For the great abundance of your enchantments. For you have trusted in your wickedness: You have said, ‘No one sees me’. Your wisdom and your knowledge have warped you. And you have said in your heart, ‘I am, and there is no one else besides me.’” (Isaiah 47:5-10)
“I Sit as a Queen”

“Son of man, say to the prince of Tyre: ‘Thus says the Lord God: “Because your heart is lifted up, and you say, ‘I am a god, I sit in the seat of gods, in the midst of the seas; Yet you are a man, and not a god. Though you set your heart as the heart of a god ... By your great wisdom in trade you have increased your riches, and your heart is lifted up because of your riches.”’ Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: “Because you have set your heart as the heart of a god, Behold, therefore, I will bring strangers against you, the most terrible of the nations; and they shall draw their swords against the beauty of your wisdom, and defile your splendor. They shall throw you down into the Pit, and you shall die the death of the slain in the midst of the seas. Will you still say before him who slays you, ‘I am a god’? But you shall be a man, and not a god. In the hand of him who slays you, you shall die the death of the uncircumcised by the hand of aliens; for I have spoken,” says the Lord GOD.” (Ezekiel 28:2-10)

Those Who Did Not “Come Out”

† Next section describes reaction and shared loss of 3 groups of people who did not heed warning and “come out” of the doomed city.
† Emphasizes warning by focusing on consequences of ignoring it.
† Emphasizes justice of God by punishing these 3 groups.
† Later, the reaction of these 3 groups will be contrasted with reaction of saints and heaven’s inhabitants ...

“In One Day”

5. What would happen to Babylon “in one day”? Did this literally happen? If so, when? If not, what does it represent?
Therefore her plagues will come in one day—death and mourning and famine. And she will be utterly burned with fire, for strong is the Lord God who judges her. (Revelation 18:8)
† Book of symbols (1:1) …
† Emphasizes certainty of destruction and inability to resist God’s judgment.
† Introduces point repeated and elaborated in 18:21-24. Examine more closely then...

Kings of the Earth Mourn

6. Why did the “kings of the earth” mourn over Babylon’s fall?
“The kings of the earth who committed fornication and lived luxuriously with her will weep and lament for her, when they see the smoke of her burning, standing at a distance for fear of her torment, saying, ‘Alas, alas, that great city Babylon, that mighty city! For in one hour your judgment has come.’” (Revelation 18:9-10)
† Rome provided both sinful pleasure and decadent luxury for the “kings of the earth”, which now lost is the essential reason for their mourning.
† The suddenness also eliminated their opportunity for preparation, to reallocate their investments, and avoid loss.
† This is a selfish mourning for the loss of pleasures of sin.

Merchants of the Earth Mourn

7. Why did the “merchants of the earth” mourn the fall of Babylon?
“And the merchants of the earth will weep and mourn over her, for no one buys their merchandise anymore: merchandise of gold and silver, precious stones and pearls, fine linen and purple, silk and scarlet, every kind of citron wood, every kind of object of ivory, every kind of object of most precious wood, bronze, iron, and marble; and cinnamon and incense, fragrant oil and frankincense, wine and oil, fine flour and wheat, cattle and sheep, horses and chariots, and bodies and souls of men. The fruit that your soul longed for has gone from you, and all the things which are rich and splendid have gone from you, and you shall find them no more at all. The merchants of these things, who became rich by her, will stand at a distance for fear of her torment, weeping and wailing, saying, ‘Alas, alas, that great city that was clothed in fine linen, purple, and scarlet, and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls!’” (Revelation 18:11-16)
† Like the “kings of the earth”, these merchants outwardly mourn the great city, but inwardly, really, they mourn their personal loss.

A Great Fall Mourned

Revelation 18:9-20

† Book of symbols (1:1) …
† Emphasizes certainty of destruction and inability to resist God’s judgment.
† Introduces point repeated and elaborated in 18:21-24. Examine more closely then...
Ship Owners and Sailors Mourn

8. Why did the ship owners and sailors mourn her fall?
   “... Every shipmaster, all who travel by ship, sailors, and as many as trade on the sea, stood at a distance and cried out when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, ‘What is like this great city?’... They threw dust on their heads and cried out, weeping and wailing, and saying, ‘Alas, alas, that great city, in which all who had ships on the sea became rich by her wealth! For in one hour she is made desolate.’” (Revelation 18:17-19)
   † Like the kings and merchants, the ship owners and their sailors mourn the loss of wealth.

Justice Restored

10. How are God’s people contrasted with these three parties?
   “Rejoice over her, O heaven, and you holy apostles and prophets, for God has avenged you on her! ... And in her was found the blood of prophets and saints, and of all who were slain on the earth.” (Revelation 18:20, 24)
   † Because they “came out” and were “faithful unto death” to the Lord, they do not suffer the total loss of those who found their “god” in Rome.
   † Instead, they can take joy in the reckoning and restoration of justice. This represents the righteous joy associated with triumph of good over evil.
   † As the capital of the world _empire_, the city of Rome was responsible for the murder of saints committed throughout the empire, tying the harlot closely to the beast.

A Truly Selfish Mourning

9. What did these three parties do to defend her or prevent her fall? Lessons.
   “The kings of the earth ... standing at a distance for fear of her torment ... And the merchants of the earth ... will stand at a distance for fear of her torment, weeping and wailing ... Every shipmaster, all who travel by ship, sailors, and as many as trade on the sea, stood at a distance and cried out ...” (Revelation 18:9-18)
   † All of these 3 parties benefited and took pleasure in Rome.
   † However, none of them were committed enough to stand with her.
   † Furthermore, none of them were powerful enough to stop it – “strong is the Lord God who judges her”.
   † Indicates, this was a truly selfish, and entirely disloyal relationship.
   † This destruction, lack of true loyalty helps us take the long view (2 Peter 3:10-14; Luke 12:13-21; 15:13-16).
   † Where are our investments (Matthew 6:19-34)? Will we be shocked like these?

Not Anymore

12. How is Babylon described after its fall?
   “The sound of harpists, musicians, flutists, and trumpeters shall not be heard in you anymore. No craftsman of any craft shall be found in you anymore, and the sound of a millstone shall not be heard in you anymore. The light of a lamp shall not shine in you anymore, and the voice of bridegroom and bride shall not be heard in you anymore. For your merchants were the great men of the earth, for by your sorcery all the nations were deceived.” (Revelation 18:22-23)
   † Indicates removal of things that make for joy, happiness, construction, and progress.
   † Emphasizes destruction and ruin of this city.
   † Result of the decadent lust and immorality pedaled throughout the world.

A Great Millstone Thrown into the Sea

11. What significance was attached to the millstone being thrown into the sea?
   Then a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone and threw it into the sea, saying, “Thus with violence the great city Babylon shall be thrown down, and shall not be found anymore.” (Revelation 18:21)
   † The giant splash graphically depicts the “violence” associated with Rome’s destruction – tremendous impact, broadly seen.
   † The disappearing stone depicts Rome’s complete absence after destruction.
   † Emphasizes tremendous loss and irreversible nature of Rome’s destruction, which emphasizes warning to “come out” and God’s justice in reckoning her tremendous wickedness.

A Great Fall Suddenly and Entirely

Revelation 18:21-24
Rome, The “Eternal City”?
† The entire city of Rome was never burned to the ground.
† Furthermore, trade, commerce, marriages, businesses, and construction exist in Rome even today.
13. Can these symbols be reconciled with history? If so, how? If not, what do they apply?
† Rome did suffer tremendous damage to the city, population, and physical loss (410, 455, 546 AD).
† Note, the plagues ultimately target the people—not the buildings of Rome.
† Therefore, critical to understand that the harlot, the “great city” represents the people of Rome, its glory, allure, reputation, and influence—the pagan, blasphemous, persecuting city of John’s day.
† This was utterly destroyed, even if not every building was burned to the ground.

Who Was Praising the Lord?
1. Who was praising the Lord and why?
After these things I heard a loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, saying, “Alleluia! Salvation and glory and honor and power belong to the Lord our God! For true and righteous are His judgments, because He has judged the great harlot who corrupted the earth with her fornication; and He has avenged on her the blood of His servants shed by her.” Again they said, “Alleluia! Her smoke rises up forever and ever!” And the twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God who sat on the throne, saying, “Amen! Alleluia!” Then a voice came from the throne, saying, “Praise our God, all you His servants and those who fear Him, both small and great!” And I heard, as it were, the voice of a great multitude, as the sound of many waters and as the sound of mighty thunders, saying, “Alleluia! For the Lord God Omnipotent reigns!” (Revelation 19:1-6)
† All the hosts of heaven and either an angel or possibly Jesus (John 20:17).

God Has Judged the Great Harlot
2. How is God described in this context, and how does the judgment against the great harlot reflect this conclusion?
After these things I heard a loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, saying, “Alleluia! Salvation and glory and honor and power belong to the Lord our God! For true and righteous are His judgments, because He has judged the great harlot who corrupted the earth with her fornication; and He has avenged on her the blood of His servants shed by her.” Again they said, “Alleluia! For the Lord God Omnipotent reigns!” (Revelation 19:1-6)
† All Powerful—The city that conquered the world was conquered by God.
† Righteous—The corrupting harlot who unjustly murdered was justly executed.
Preparation for the Marriage Feast
Revelation 19:7-10

Jewish Wedding Customs

“Let us be glad and rejoice and give Him glory, for the marriage of the Lamb has come, and His wife has made herself ready.” And to her it was granted to be arrayed in fine linen, clean and bright, for the fine linen is the righteous acts of the saints. Then he said to me, “Write: ‘Blessed are those who are called to the marriage supper of the Lamb!’” And he said to me, “These are the true sayings of God.” (Revelation 19:7-9)

3. Research the primary phases of Jewish weddings. What is the general significance of the “marriage supper” or marriage feast?

† Contract – Father and Groom negotiate for bride, paying bride price (John 3:16, 29; Eph. 5:25; Acts 20:28).
† Betrothal – Period of separation, while bride prepares and sanctifies herself (2 Cor. 11:2; Eph. 5:25-27; Mat. 22:2-11) and groom makes preparations (John 14:2-3).
† Procession – Groom returns at unknown time with a shout to bring bride to marriage feast (Matthew 25:1-13; 1 Thessalonians 4:16).
† Feast – Joy associated with Jesus’ return and God’s judgment (Matthew 25:1-13; Revelation 20-21).
† Cohabitation – Living with the Lord in eternity in heaven (Revelation 21-22).

“His Wife Has Made Herself Ready”

4. How is the Lamb’s wife described? What might be represented by this description?

“Let us be glad and rejoice and give Him glory, for the marriage of the Lamb has come, and His wife has made herself ready.” And to her it was granted to be arrayed in fine linen, clean and bright, for the fine linen is the righteous acts of the saints.

(Revelation 19:7-8)
† Represents ongoing betrothal, preparation period awaiting marriage feast.
† “To her it was granted” – Bride was given opportunity to array herself in pure linen. May allude to either love of her father or initial unworthiness.
† Ultimately, she prepares herself with righteous adornment, “righteous acts.”

The Church – The Lamb’s Bride

5. Who is represented by the Lamb’s wife? Where else is this symbol used in Scripture? What might the “marriage supper” represent in this symbol?
† Contract – Father and Groom negotiate for bride, paying bride price (John 3:16, 29; Eph. 5:25; Acts 20:28).
† Betrothal – Period of separation, while bride prepares and sanctifies herself (2 Cor. 11:2; Eph. 5:25-27; Mat. 22:2-11) and groom makes preparations (John 14:2-3).
† Procession – Groom returns at unknown time with a shout to bring bride to marriage feast (Matthew 25:1-13; 1 Thessalonians 4:16).
† Feast – Joy associated with Jesus’ return and God’s judgment (Matthew 25:1-13; Revelation 20-21).
† Cohabitation – Living with the Lord in eternity in heaven (Revelation 21-22).

The Betrothal – Preparation Time

5. Who is represented by the Lamb’s wife? Where else is this symbol used in Scripture? What might the “marriage supper” represent in this symbol?
† God has rejected previous potential brides, declaring them to be harlots (Assyria, Babylon, Tyre, Israel, Judah, Jerusalem, and now Rome).
† The Lamb’s wife represent those:
  • Purchased with the Lamb’s blood (Ephesians 5:22-27).
  • Adorn themselves with “proper” righteous acts (Revelation 19:7-8; 1 Timothy 2:9-10).
Then he said to me, “Write: ’The angels were powerful beings, overwhelming in their own right (Daniel 10:5-11).
† Emphasizes the credibility of the angel’s testimony, but ultimately Jesus Himself.
† Emphasizes the difficulty in not being distracted even if in a moment – remaining “chaste” for extended betrothal time.
† Angels were powerful beings, overwhelming in their own right (Daniel 10:5-11).
† Emphasizes the overwhelming joy associated with the angel’s message.
† Emphasizes the difficulty in not being distracted even if in a moment – remaining “chaste” for extended betrothal time.
† The angel represents an equal, a fellow servant, a brother.
† Worship God am your fellow servant, and of your brethren and only God is to be worshipped (Matthew 22:9-14; Revelation 19:10).
† Like the “sayings of God”, Jesus is “true” to His word (1:5; 3:7, 14).
† Will be prepared if the “bridegroom was delayed” (Matthew 25:1-13).
† Will He find us waiting as a “chaste virgin” (2 Corinthians 11:2-3)?
† The bride’s price has been paid, but what of the groom’s gift to the bride?
† Poised for Battle
John Worships the Angel

6. Why was it inappropriate for John to worship the angel? What is the significance of his fiery eyes and unknown name in verse 12? What can we learn from His robe and name given in verse 13?
And I fell at his feet to worship him. But he said to me, “See that you do not do that: I am your fellow servant, and of your brethren who have the testimony of Jesus; Worship God! For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.” (Revelation 19:10)
† The angel represents an equal, a fellow servant, a brother.
† Only God is to be worshipped (Matthew 4:10).
† Angels were powerful beings, overwhelming in their own right (Daniel 10:5-11).
† Emphasizes the credibility of the angel’s testimony, but ultimately Jesus Himself.
† Emphasizes the overwhelming joy associated with the angel’s message.
† Emphasizes the difficulty in not being distracted even if in a moment – remaining “chaste” for extended betrothal time.
† Poised for Battle
The Warrior King

7. What quality of Jesus is emphasized in verse 11? What is the significance of his fiery eyes and unknown name in verse 12? What can we learn from His robe and name given in verse 13?
Now I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse. And He who sat on him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness He judges and makes war. His eyes were like a flame of fire, and on His head were many crowns. He had a name written that no one knew except Himself. He was clothed with a robe dipped in blood, and His name is called The Word of God. (Revelation 19:11-13)
† Like the “sayings of God”, Jesus is “true” to His word (1:5; 3:7, 14).
† Will He find us waiting as a “chaste virgin” (2 Corinthians 11:2-3)?
† The bride’s price has been paid, but what of the groom’s gift to the bride?
† Poised for Battle
Jesus and His Army

5:6
Poised for Battle
Revelation 19:11-16

8. How is Jesus’ army described? What lessons can be learned from this?
And the armies in heaven, clothed in fine linen, white and clean, followed Him on white horses. (Revelation 19:14)
† Garments are similar to bride’s (“fine linen”). Description is similar, although words are different (“chaste virgin” versus “unworthy”).
† The “white” horses and clothes suggest victory – riding to victory with Jesus on the same “horses”.
† Jesus is our leader and captain. We follow Him and thereby conquer with Him (14:4; Hebrews 2:9-11).
† We cannot succeed by ourselves.
† Corresponds to vision of God’s people as seen in 7:1-8 and 14:1-5.

8/15/2017

72
King of Kings, Lord of Lords

9. How is Jesus described in verses 15 and 16, and how is this related to the looming battle?

Now out of His mouth goes a sharp sword, that with it He should strike the nations. And He Himself will rule them with a rod of iron. He Himself treads the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God. And He has on His robe and on His thigh a name written: KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS. (Revelation 19:15-16)

† God and Jesus are merciful, but stubborn disobedience brings wrath (Rom. 11:22).

An Alternative Supper

10. Is the “feast” described in this section the same as the “marriage supper of the Lamb” mentioned verse 9? Explain.

Then I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the birds that fly in the midst of heaven, “Come and gather together for the supper of the great God, that you may eat the flesh of kings, the flesh of captains, the flesh of mighty men, the flesh of horses and of those who sit on them, and the flesh of all people, free and slave, both small and great.” (Revelation 19:17-18)

† No, this “feast” stands in stark contrast to the “marriage feast”. It is the only alternative. No middle ground (Matthew 12:30).

Treading Winepress of God’s Wrath

Who is this who comes from Edom, With dyed garments from Bozrah, This One who is glorious in His apparel, Traveling in the greatness of His strength? — “I who speak in righteousness, mighty to save.” Why is Your apparel red, And Your garments like one who treads in the winepress? — “I have trodden the winepress alone, And from the peoples no one was with Me. For I have trodden them in My fury, Their blood is sprinkled upon My garments, And I have stained all My robes. For the day of vengeance is in My heart, And the year of My redeemed has come. I looked, but there was no one to help, And I wondered That there was no one to uphold; Therefore My own arm brought salvation for Me; And My own fury, it sustained Me. I have trodden down the peoples in My anger, Made them drunk in My fury, And brought down their strength to the earth.” (Isaiah 63:1-6)

† Prophecy foretells Edom’s destruction by Babylon and Greece – not end of world.
† See also Revelation 14:17-20 and Lamentation 1:15; Joel 3:9-16.

A Feast for Birds of Heaven

“You shall fall upon the mountains of Israel, you and all your troops and the peoples who are with you; I will give you to birds of prey of every sort and to the beasts of the field to be devoured. You shall fall on the open field, for I have spoken,” says the Lord GOD. … And as for you, son of man, thus says the Lord GOD, ‘You shall fall on the mountains of Israel, you and all your troops and the peoples with you; you shall fall upon the mountains of Israel, That you may know that I am the Lord GOD.’” (Ezekiel 39:4-20)

† Represents the dramatic destruction of these nations – not end of the whole world.

The Battle of Armageddon

Revelation 19:17-21

The Battle Lines are Fully Drawn

11. Who is arrayed against the Lamb and His army? What previous passage tells of the Lamb’s opponents gathering their armies? In that passage, what location is named for this great battle?

And I saw the beast, the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against Him who sits on the horse and against His army. Then the beast was captured, and with him the false prophet who worked signs in his presence. … (Revelation 19:19-20)

† 9:13-21 (?) – Sixth trumpet, army of 200,000,000 released to kill ⅔ of mankind.
† 16:12-16 – Sixth bowl, 3 unclean spirits like frogs come out of mouths of dragon, beast, and false prophet “go out to the kings of the earth and of the whole world to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty” at Armageddon.
† Here the Devil gathers his full strength and opposes the Lamb, the Word of God.
The Result of Armageddon

12. What is the result of the battle? What is meant by this “lake of fire”? What does it represent? Which of these participants can return and which cannot?

Then the beast was captured, and with him the false prophet who worked signs in his presence, by which he deceived those who received the mark of the beast and those who worshiped his image. These two were cast alive into the lake of fire burning with brimstone. And the rest were killed with the sword which proceeded from the mouth of Him who sat on the horse. And all the birds were filled with their flesh. (Revelation 19:19-21)

† “The beast” (Roman empire, 13:1-10) and “the false prophet” (Roman paganism & emperor worship) are both captured and destroyed – never to return.
† “Captured … cast alive” – Destroyed by unnatural causes – judged, executed.
† Remainder of army is killed but not yet “cast alive into the lake of fire burning”.
† “The false prophet” is the “earth beast” from 13:11-14 because work is the same.

† The Lamb’s Heavenly Army

† The Lamb’s army consists of those who are “called and chosen and faithful” (17:14).
† The army is led by the Warrior-King from Heaven (19:11-14).
† They are dressed not in armor but in “fine linen, white and clean”, similar to the clothing of the “righteous acts of the saints” (19:8, 14).
† The only weapon mentioned is the sword that proceeds from the mouth of Christ, who additionally treads upon the enemies of God (19:15).
† This army consists of those whose “citizenship is in heaven” (Philippians 3:20), and whose “names are written in heaven” (Luke 10:20).

† The Epic Battle to End All Battles?

13. How much detail of the actual battle is communicated? Significance?
† Unsurprising that One who could speak the universe into existence and was crucified without elaboration would annihilate His enemies without details.
† Emphasizes the result – sure and total victory.
† Deemphasizes the battle – it wasn’t even close – nothing to tell.
† What does Armageddon represent?
† The final showdown between Jesus and the Devil’s puppet agents in Rome – the empire with its emperors, kings, and its supportive pagan, emperor worship.
  • Most likely does not represent a single, carnal, literal battle. Fundamentally, spiritual conflict.
  • Rome was incrementally taken a part over centuries through moral rottenness, internal conflict, natural disasters, invading armies, political incompetence, and economic disasters.
  • Some events - sacking of Rome, Constantine - were more poignant than others. Some lost to history.
  • Matches incremental judgment recorded in Revelation, while providing ample opportunity to repent.
  • Eventually, not only was the reputation and allure of Rome broken, but the empire and its religion eventually was dissolved too. Nothing remains of those people and their machines.
† Like the omitted details not recorded here, only the sure & final result matters – Jesus won!

The Binding of the Dragon

1. What happened to the Devil after his loss at Armageddon? What is the significance of this 1000 year imprisonment? Explain both the length of time and nature of the imprisonment.

Then I saw an angel coming down from heaven, having the key to the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand. He laid hold of the dragon, that serpent of old, who is the Devil and Satan, and bound him for a thousand years; and he cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal on him, so that he should deceive the nations no more till the thousand years were finished. But after these things he must be released for a little while. (Revelation 20:1-3)

† Must be interpreted figuratively given nature of the epistle (1:1) and the Devil (Ephesians 6:11-18; John 18:36; 2 Corinthians 10:3-5).
† During binding period the Devil’s authority, influence, or power is diminished.

The First Resurrection

1. Should we interpret this resurrection literally? How could this be described as a “resurrection”? In what way would it be the “first resurrection”?

And they lived and reigned with Christ for a thousand years. This is the first resurrection. Blessed and holy is he who has part in the first resurrection. Over such the second death has no power. (Revelation 20:4-6)

† Terrible mistake to take literally. This is a book of symbols, signs (1:1).
† OT precedent for using a resurrection to refer to resurgence of power, influence, or one’s cause: [Isaiah 26:19; Hosea 13:14; Ezekiel 37:1-14].

The Saints Reigning with Christ

2. What other Scriptures refer to saints reigning with Christ? What is the significance here of the beheaded saints reigning with Christ for 1000 years?

And I saw thrones, and they sat on them, and judgment was committed to them. Then I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for their witness to Jesus and for the word of God, who had not worshiped the beast or his image, and had not received his mark on their foreheads or on their hands. And they lived and reigned with Christ for a thousand years. . . . “but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with Him a thousand years.” (Revelation 20:4, 6)

† “have made us kings and priests to our God: And we shall reign on the earth” (5:10)
† 6:9-11 – Souls under the altar who had been slain.
† 13:15-17 – Those who would not worship the beast were killed, persecuted.
† Dan. 7:14-27 – 4th beast is destroyed, Jesus receives the kingdom, saints possess it.

Daniel 7 Fulfilled

3. Please compare the account up to this point with Daniel 7:8-28.
† Fourth Beast – the Roman Empire
† Terrible, exceedingly strong, iron teeth.
† Trampling the residue with its feet.
† Ten Horns – Pompous, blasphemous
† Jesus’ ascension. He is given everlasting kingdom and dominion.
† Beast & his horns made war against the saints, persecuting them.
† Beast was slain – body destroyed in fire.
† The kingdom and dominion given to the saints of the Most High to possess.
† Notice, Daniel does not foretell anything after kingdom is turned over to the saints!

The Binding of the Dragon

† During binding period the Devil’s authority & power is diminished. Precedent:
• Influence through slavery to sin by Jesus’ conquering death (Colossians 2:10-15; Romans 6:5-15).
• Influence through the fear of death lost by Jesus’ conquering death (Hebrews 2:14-15).
• Limited in temptation (1 Corinthians 10:13; James 4:7; Ephesians 6:10-18; 1 Peter 5:8-9).
• Represents some loss of influence over all the nations, maybe through false religion, persecuting governments – or both on a grand scale (Revelation 16:14; 17:2; 18:10, 13, 9; 19:9).
† Represents some loss of influence over all the nations, maybe through false religion, persecuting governments – or both on a grand scale (Revelation 16:14; 17:2; 18:10, 13, 9; 19:9).
† Represents some loss of influence over all the nations, maybe through false religion, persecuting governments – or both on a grand scale (Revelation 16:14; 17:2; 18:10, 13, 9; 19:9).

† Represents some loss of influence over all the nations, maybe through false religion, persecuting governments – or both on a grand scale (Revelation 16:14; 17:2; 18:10, 13, 9; 19:9).
The Valley of Dry Bones

The hand of the LORD came upon me and brought me out in the Spirit of the LORD, and set me down in the midst of the valley, and it was full of bones. Then He caused me to pass by them all around, and behold, there were very many in the open valley, and indeed they were very dry. And He said to me, “Son of man, can these bones live?” “Surely I will cause breath to enter into you, and you shall live. I will put sinews on you and bring flesh upon you, cover you with skin and put breath in you: and you shall live.” Then you shall know that I am the LORD.

Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe on these bones, that they may live. So I will lay the law of life in the mouth of all the people who are slain, and cause you to come up from your graves, and bring you into the land of Israel. Then you shall know that I am the LORD, when I have opened your graves, O My people, and brought you up from your graves. Then shall you know that I, the LORD, have spoken it and performed it,” says the LORD.” (Ezekiel 37:1-14)

† The Jews’ return from physical captivity is symbolized as a resurrection.

Where and How Do They Reign?

5. Where and how do these saints reign? Are they on heaven or earth? Explain.

† Primarily, this refers to the martyred saints who are now in heavenly realms.

† But, the passages point toward a reign on earth. ???

Then I saw an angel coming down from heaven. And I saw thrones and judgment was committed to them. Then I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for their witness to Jesus and for the word of God. And they lived and reigned with Christ for a thousand years. (Revelation 20:4-6)

† Terrible mistake to take literally. This is a book of symbols, signs, (1:1).

† OT precedent for using a resurrection to refer to resurgence of power, influence, or one’s cause (Isaiah 26:19; Hosa 13:14; Ezekiel 37:1-14).

† Same symbol already used of “two witnesses” to represent the resurgence of strength, validity, and confirmation in apostolic testimony despite their martyrdom (11:7-12). Period after their resurrection likely coincides with millennial reign.

† The unmentioned second resurrection alludes to bodily, preceding judgment (20:12).

† The faithful are exempt from the “second death,” eternal condemnation in hell (20:14-15).

Best Explanation of the Millennium?

6. Which of the millennial views best fit the context? Why?

A. Premillennial (Dispensational and Historical) – Jesus returns before literal 1000 year reign. Can be dispensational (i.e., Jews are restored as special nation again).

B. Postmillennial – Jesus returns after literal 1000 year reign. May be dispensational (i.e., Jews are restored as special nation again).

C. Amillennial – 1000 year reign is symbolic, not literal. There is no literal reign of Christ on earth. (Revelations 20:1-5)

† The Jews’ return from physical captivity is symbolized as a resurrection.
B. Postmillennial

6. Which of the millennial views best fit the context? Why?

A. Premillennial

- Early saints and martyrs overcame the Devil through the martyr spirit (12:11)
- Based on Jesus’ victory and the saints overcoming through Him (12:11).
- God made a judgment in favor of Christ and His saints (Dan. 7; compare, Job 1-2, 42; Zec. 3).
- Resulted in the destruction of the Devil’s agents – Roman capital, religion, and empire – and reduced power to deceive the nations (Daniel 7; Revelation 17-19).
- As long as Christians maintain that martyr spirit, they can continue to overcome and be a godly influence in the world (Matthew 5:13-15).
- However, when mankind’s potential is fully tapped (symbolic of millennium) – Christians can no longer influence the world – there is “no remedy” (2 Chr. 36:15-16; Gen. 15:16; Jer. 7:13-16; Ezek. 14:13-23) – the time will come for the end.
- Best fits symbolic nature of the book and matches immediate fulfillment of OT & NT prophets.

C. Amillennial

- Ignores that the church is the kingdom of God and saints are in it now (Ignores Jews are no longer God’s special people).
- Best fits symbolic nature of the book and matches immediate fulfillment of OT & NT prophets.
- Not to mention it makes almost all major prophets, minor prophets, Jesus, and the apostles to be false prophets.
- Future application of “tribulation” and “judgment” ignores immediate association (4:9).
- Princially literal application ignores that the book’s events ignore immediate association (4:9).
- Principally futurist interpretation ignores that the book introduces itself as symbolic.
- Arbitrarily switches between literal and figurative interpretations, abandoning consistency.
- Shares the same fundamental failures of the Premillennial position because of its literal interpretation.

D. Ideal Millennial

- Best Explanation of the Millennium?

6. Which of the millennial views best fit the context? Why?

A. Premillennial (Dispensational and Historical) – Jesus returns before literal 1000 year reign. May be dispensational (i.e., Jews are restored as special nation again).
- Principally literal interpretation ignores that book introduces itself as symbolic (1:1).
- Arbitrarily switches between literal and figurative interpretations, abandoning consistency.
- Principally literalist application ignores that the book’s events ignore immediate association (4:9).
- Overlooks Jews are no longer God’s special people (Rom. 9:6; 11:1-32; Zec. 11:6-14; Acts 10:34).
- Ignores that the church is the kingdom of God and saints are in it now (Col. 1:13).
- Passage does not mention essential elements: (1) Second coming of Christ (2) Bodily resurrection
- Not to mention it makes almost all major prophets, minor prophets, Jesus, and the apostles to be false prophets (Matthew 4:12-17; 10:1-7).
- It also denies God as less than Sovereign since Jews could thwart His promises.
- Best fits symbolic nature of the book and matches immediate fulfillment of OT & NT prophets.

B. Postmillennial – Jesus returns after literal 1000 year reign – utopia to heaven.
- Shares the same fundamental failures of the Premillennial position because of its literal interpretations and postponed fulfillments of the prophets, including Jesus and the apostles.
- Additionally, ignores many NT passages saying that things will generally get worse over time, not better (2 Timothy 3:1-13; 4:1-4; Luke 13:33-34; Matthew 7:13-14).
- Furthermore, ignores the immediate context which indicates that Satan will have control of the vast majority of the world. Christians will be in the stark minority, not dominating majority (20:8-9).
- "But it will be God and His people who are again sanctified (Ezekiel 38-39)."

C. Amillennial – 1000 year reign is symbolic, long, indefinite time.
- Best fits symbolic nature of the book and matches immediate fulfillment of OT & NT prophets.
Satan & the World …

- Who will the Devil enlist to help him in his final rebellion? What is the significance of this symbol?

Now when the thousand years have expired, Satan will be released from his prison and will go out to deceive the nations which are in the four corners of the earth. Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battle, whose number is as the sand of the sea. (Revelation 20:7-8)

- “Nations in the four corners of the earth” – Indicates nations from all over the earth, the remotest regions.

- “Number is as the sand of the sea” – Additionally indicates that it is virtually everyone who is not a Christian aligns themselves with the Devil in this war.

Gog and Magog – Ezekiel 38-39

- Follows judgment of nations (25-32), restoration of Israel, and Messianic rule (37).
- “Gog”, probably play on “Magog”, is only mentioned in Ez. 38-39 and Rev. 20:8.
- “Thus says the Lord GOD: “Are you he of whom I have spoken in former days by My servants the prophets of Israel, who prophesied for years in those days that I would bring you against them”” (Ezekiel 38:17)

- Ancient genealogy of Gentiles, those opposed to God’s people:
  - Chief prince of Magog, Meshech, and Tubal (38:2-3; 39:1) – sons of Japheth (Gen. 10:2).
  - Allies include Gomer and Togarmah (38:6) – sons and grandson of Japheth (Gen. 10:3).
  - Additional allies include Persia (38:5) – possible descendant of Make, son of Japheth (Gen. 10:2).
  - Other allies are Ethiopia and Libya (38:5) and Sheba and Dedan - descendants of Ham (Gen.10:6-7).
  - Tarsish (38:13) is also a descendant of Japheth (Genesis 10:4).
  - No descendant of Shem is mentioned! ... Represents rebellious, unregenerate Gentiles.

... versus Christianity

- Who will the Devil and the army attack this last time? Should this be interpreted literally? If not, who and what are represented by this symbol?

They went up on the breadth of the earth and surrounded the camp of the saints and the beloved city. And fire came down from God out of heaven and devoured them. (Revelation 20:9)

- Represents the church, pictured as the “beloved city”, as in 11:1-2.

- Not a literal attack (1:1), but one last spiritual confrontation, but again using a massive world empire and possibly false religion – once again allowed to “deceive the nations”.

Lesson: Critical to teach the lessons of Revelation to ourselves, our children, and for many generations because 12:11 will be required again for many Christians.

Ends in Fire

- What is the result of this battle?

They went up on the breadth of the earth and surrounded the camp of the saints and the beloved city. And fire came down from God out of heaven and devoured them. (Revelation 20:9)

- There is no delay, no stand-off, no battle – just fiery judgment.

Then the LORD rained brimstone and fire on Sodom and Gomorrah, from the LORD out of the heavens. So He overthrew those cities, all the plain, all the inhabitants of the cities, and what grew on the ground (Genesis 19:24-25)

- Follows judgment of nations (25-32), restoration of Israel, and Messianic rule (37).
- “Gog”, probably play on “Magog”, is only mentioned in Ez. 38-39 and Rev. 20:8.
- “Thus says the Lord GOD: “Are you he of whom I have spoken in former days by My servants the prophets of Israel, who prophesied for years in those days that I would bring you against them”” (Ezekiel 38:17)

- Gog would attack in the “latter years” and “latter days” (38:8, 16)...

- ... Reference to Messianic era (Isaiah 2:2; Micah 4:1; Daniel 2:28; 10:14).

- Gog would seek to plunder defenseless “unwalled” people (38:10-13) ...

- ... Reference to Messianic kingdom, the church (Zechariah 2:1-12).

- Represents God’s triumph over massive Gentile coalition in the Messianic era.

- Ezekiel seems to point to future Roman persecution from yet undeveloped tribes.

- Revelation adapts the symbol to point to the final coalition against God.
The Canon

12. What is the extent of this judgment? Who is being judged? And, what is being used to judge them?

And I saw the dead, small and great, standing before God, and books were opened. And another book was opened, which is the Book of Life. And the dead were judged according to their works, by the things which were written in the books. The sea gave up the dead who were in it, and Death and Hades delivered up the dead who were in them. And they were judged, each one according to his works. (Revelation 20:12-13)

† Judgment includes everyone – no distinction (Ecc. 9:2-3; Heb. 9:27; Jn. 5:28-29)
† More closely aligns to our concept of sentencing than determining (Luke 16:19-31)
† Three sources are consulted:
  - “The Book of Life” – Roll of righteousness (Is. 5:6; 21:27; Ex. 32:32-33; Mal. 3:16-17; Lk. 18:20; Phil. 4:3)
  - “Their Works” – A person’s actions as well as their words (Mat. 12:36-37; Jude 15)
  - “The Books” – Represent revelation, Scripture – the Canon (John 12:48; Rom. 2:16-17; Heb. 1:1)
† Where are a person’s intentions consulted in judgment? (Matthew 7:21-23)?
Death’s Death

13. What else is destroyed at this time? What is the significance of their destruction? Then Death and Hades were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death. (Revelation 20:14)
† Represents the end of death – no more death for anyone – only eternity awaits.
† “Hades” is the realm of the unseen (Luke 16:22, 23, 26) – no more waiting place between death and eternity.
So when this corruptible has put on incorruption, and this mortal has put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written: “Death is swallowed up in victory. O Death, where is your sting? O Hades, where is your victory?” The sting of death is sin, and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. (1 Cor. 15:54-57)

Eternal Condemnation

14. Can any of these condemned entities return? Are there any more remaining chances for forgiveness and second efforts at this point? How do you know? Then Death and Hades were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death. And anyone not found written in the Book of Life was cast into the lake of fire. (Revelation 20:14-15)
† No – after death, only judgment (Hebrews 9:27).
† This is the same place that holds the Devil, the Capital of Rome, the Roman Empire, and the Religion of Rome. Can they come back?
† Heaven and hell coexist for eternity:
  • Punishment last as long as reward (Matthew 25:41, 46; Mark 9:43-48; Revelation 14:9-11).
  • Righteous serve God “day and night.” Wicked have no relief “day and night” (Rev. 7:15; 14:11).
  • Hell is place of “outer darkness.” Heaven has “no night” (Matt. 10:28; 22:13; 25:30; Rev. 20:12).
  • Since day is in heaven and night in hell, one continues as long as the other (Habakkuk, 2:3).
† Don’t forget the impartiality, mercy & love of God (Rom. 2:11; 2Pt. 3:9; 1Tm. 2:3-4).
† Discuss meaning of the “second death” with 20-30.

“A New Heaven and a New Earth”

Now I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away. Also there was no more sea. (Revelation 21:1)
† Why is a “new heaven and new earth” required? What is the significance of there being “no more sea”?
† Old heaven and earth represent corruption – spiritual and physical (Leviticus 18:25-28; 1 Corinthians 15:49-55; 2 Peter 3:7-13).
For behold, I create new heavens and a new earth. And the former shall not be remembered or come to mind. But be glad and rejoice forever in what I create. For behold, I create Jerusalem as a rejoicing, And her people a joy. … Then they shall bring all your brethren for an offering to the LORD out of all nations … to My holy mountain Jerusalem … And I will also take some of My people out of all nations … and cast them into My holy mountain Jerusalem … and I will also take some of them for priests and Levites,” says the LORD. (Isaiah 65:17-18; 66:20-22)
† Refers to the sweeping changes introduced by Messiah’s kingdom – applied to end time.
† Next? Either likely no more barrier to God (see death, 46:15) or possibly no society (13:1).

“Look for New Heavens and New Earth”

But the heavens and the earth which are now preserved by the same word, are reserved for fire until the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men. But, beloved, do not forget this one thing, that with the Lord one day is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. The Lord is not slack concerning His promise, as some count slackness, but is longsuffering toward us, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night, in which the heavens will pass away with a great noise, and the elements will melt with fervent heat; both the earth and the works that are in it will be burned up. Therefore, since all these things will be dissolved, what manner of persons ought you to be in holy conduct and godliness, looking for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will be dissolved, being on fire, and the elements will melt with fervent heat? Nevertheless we, according to His promise, look for new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells. (2 Peter 3:7-13)
New Jerusalem and Its Tabernacle

2. What is special about the new dwelling place? Who else will be there?

Then I, John, saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from heaven saying, “Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and He will dwell with them, and they shall be His people. God Himself will be with them and be their God.” (Revelation 21:2-3)

† God’s people have always been looking for “a city” (Hebrews 11:10-16).
† The plan and promise from the beginning (Genesis 3:8; Exodus 6:7).
† I will set My tabernacle among you, and My soul shall not abhor you. I will walk among you and be your God, and you shall be My people. (Leviticus 26:11-12)
† Plan after return from captivity (Jer. 24:6-7; 30:18-31:1; 32:28; Ezek. 36:19-28).
† Plan for Messianic kingdom (Ezech. 37:23-28; Hos. 1:10; 2:23; Rom. 9:26; 2 Cor. 6:16).
† Our citizenship and country is already in heaven (Philippians 3:20; Galatians 4:26).
† But, only fully realized in the eternity of heaven (Hebrews 12:22-24; 13:14).
† God’s close presence is the greatest reward of heaven – to be with God!

The End of Anguish

3. How is this new dwelling place described? Should this be interpreted literally?

Please explain.

“And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes; there shall be ‘no more death, ‘nor sorrow, ‘nor crying. There shall be ‘no more pain, for the former things have passed away.” Then He who sat on the throne said, “Behold! I make all things new.” And He said to me, “Write, for these words are true and faithful.” And He said to me, “It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. I will give of the fountain of the water of life freely to him who thirsts.” (Revelation 21:4-6)

† Like a Father, God wipes away our tears – nothing remains to make us cry.
† Everything old is destroyed, all that is needed or wanted is made new, fresh.
† “It is done!” – the prophetic past tense indicating certainty.
† “The Beginning and the End” – Represents His role as Creator and Judge.
† “The fountain of the water of life” – Finally, fully realized (John 4:10-14).

The Lake of Fire and Brimstone

5. What promise is extended to those who fail? How are they identified?

† But the cowardly, unbelieving, abominable, murderers, sexually immoral, idolaters, and all liars shall have their part in the lake which burns with fire and brimstone, which is the second death.” (Revelation 21:8)
† These people will also share in hell fire along with the Devil, Death, the beasts, and the harlot.
† Murderers may be expected, but other types of sinners may be surprising …
• Cowardly, Fearful – More scared of immediate wrath of men (Heb. 10:38-39; Mat. 10:21-33).
• Sexually Immoral – Rejct God’s regulations (Leviticus 13:4).
• Sorcerers (Pharmakia) – Those who use drugs to distort or induce visions.
• All Liars – Not just the worst liars, but all liars – include self-deceived (2 Thessalonians 2:9-12).
† Other passages supplement this last: Rom. 1:26-32; 1 Cor. 6:9-10; Gal. 5:19-21.

The Second Death

“...But the cowardly, unbelieving, abominable, murderers, sexually immoral, idolaters, and all liars shall have their part in the lake which burns with fire and brimstone, which is the second death.” (Revelation 21:8)

† Mentioned previously in 20:14
6. In what way would the “lake which burns with fire and brimstone” be considered a “second death”?
† Like physical death, it represents a separation from the life giving source:
For the body without the spirit is dead; so faith without works is dead also. (James 2:26)
† Here represents a total separation from God – no more blessings on “the just and the unjust” (Matthew 5:45).
† Also, like death, represents a transition from which there is no return (Ecc. 9:3-6).

The Promise for Those Who Overcome

4. What promise does the Lord extend to those who “overcome”?

† He who overcomes shall inherit all things, and I will be his God and he shall be My son. (Revelation 21:7)
† Those who “overcome” received promises of blessing in letters to seven churches (2:7, 11, 17; 3:5, 12, 21) – here elaborated
† Reiteration of promise, “I will be his God and he shall be My son”, but now made personal and familial – individual will be “My son”.
† Represents adoption as acceptable sons finally, fully realized (Rom. 8:15, 23; Gal. 4:5-7; Eph. 1:3-6).
† Additionaly, “inherit all things” – receive the inheritance as a son – “all things”?
† What is left to want or desire beyond “all things”? What things could be better (John 14:1-3; Romans 8:18-24; 2 Corinthians 4:18-5:4; Colossians 3:1-4)?

The True Jerusalem

Revelation 21:9-27
"The Great City, Holy Jerusalem"

7. What did the angel promise to show John? What did John actually see? How can the two be reconciled? What is implied by the city "descending out of heaven from God"?

Then one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls filled with the seven last plagues came to me and talked with me, saying, “Come, I will show you the bride, the Lamb’s wife.” And he carried me away in the Spirit to a great and high mountain, and showed me the great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God (Rv.21:9-10)

† Promised to show “the bride, the Lamb’s wife” but instead showed “the great city, the holy Jerusalem”.
† As with Rome, Babylon, Tyre, Nineveh, and earthly Jerusalem, collection of people that make up heavenly, spiritual Jerusalem is personified as a woman (19:7-14).
† Implies the sad potential of previous peoples and preciousness of the Lamb’s bride.
† Descent from heaven symbolizes God’s providing access, granting entry or insight.

The City Four-Square

8. What symbols are used to indicate that this city is perfect for all of God’s people?

… having the glory of God. Her light was like a most precious stone, like a jasper stone, clear as crystal. Also she had a great and high wall with twelve gates, and twelve angels at the gates, and names written on them, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel: three gates on the east, three gates on the north, three gates on the south, and three gates on the west. Now the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them were the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb (Revelation 21:11-14)

† Note, God is the source of its glory – not us. “Jasper” used to represent God (4:3).
† The symbol continues to square but transition from the bride, the Lamb’s wife, to holy Jerusalem, a city.
† “Great and high wall” represents security, protection, and safety despite absence of threats.
† “Twelve gates” indicate access for all of God’s people, watched by “twelve angels”.
† The four directions (east, north, south, west) may indicate access for people from all nations.
† “Twelve foundations” would indicate stability for the city and all of God’s people.
† “Names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb” points to their critical witness (Eph. 2:19-22).

The City Four-Square

And he who talked with me had a gold reed to measure the city, its gates, and its wall. The city is laid out as a square; its length is as great as its breadth. And he measured the city with the reed: twelve thousand furlongs. Its length, breadth, and height are equal. Then he measured its wall: one hundred and forty-four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of an angel. The construction of its wall was of jasper; and the city was pure gold, like clear glass (Rv.21:15-18)

† “Twelve thousand furlongs” (1400-1500 miles) implies ample room for all of God’s people.
† The “square” base and “equal …length, breadth, and height” implies symmetry, beauty, and perfection – reminiscent of inner sanctuary cube for ark of the covenant of Solomon’s temple (1 Kings 6:18-20).
† Beyond Solomon’s temple overlaid in gold (1 Kings 6:21-22), the whole city is pure clear, shining gold – superlative beauty, preciousness, and value.

The City Four-Square

The foundations of the wall of the city were adorned with all kinds of precious stones: the first foundation was jasper, the second sapphire, the third chalcedony, the fourth emerald, the fifth sardonyx, the sixth sardius, the seventh chrysolite, the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz, the tenth chrysoprase, the eleventh jacinth, and the twelfth amethyst. The twelve gates were twelve pearls: each individual gate was of one pearl. And the street of the city was pure gold, like transparent glass (Revelation 21:19-21)

† Foundations indicate all vivid colors (rainbow?) and precious value.
† “Twelve gates … each …of one pearl” – indicate extravagant beauty for all of God’s people.
† Even the most common things are beautiful – even the “street of the city was pure gold”.
† “Like transparent glass” either indicates brilliant, shining gold or transparent material – stunning beauty and value unlike anything known to man.
No Temple, Sun, or Moon?

9. Why is no temple structure or sun to illuminate the city required?

   But I saw no temple in it, for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are its temple. The city had no need of the sun or of the moon to shine in it, for the glory of God illuminated it. The Lamb is its light. (Revelation 21:22-23)

† No representation of God or monument to Him is required, because He is there!

† In contrast to:
   - Tabernacle used during early Jewish history.
   - Temple used from time of Solomon.
   - Church providing a spiritual temple (1 Corinthians 3:16; Ephesians 2:21-22), reflecting God on earth.
   - In heaven, we will dwell directly with Him in His home, not Him indirectly here on earth.

† No light source is required to provided visibility, direction, understanding, wisdom, hope or glory, because God and Jesus provide an infinite source.

† Emphasizes direct communication with God (Psalm 119:104-105, 130).

Land of Eternal Day

10. What is the significance of there being “no night there”?

   Its gates shall not be shut at all by day (there shall be no night there). (Revelation 21:25)

† Implies that the light provided by God will never diminish or darken:

   This is the message which we have heard from Him and declare to you, that God is light and in Him is no darkness at all (1 John 1:5)

Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and comes down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shadow of turning (James 1:17)

† He will never lose power or His character.

† Also, there will be no end to the direction, wisdom, guidance, understanding, and hope provided by Him.

† No need to ever shut the gates indicates eternal absence of threat.

The Glory and Honor of Nations

11. In what way is “the glory and the honor of nations” brought into the city? What is the “glory and honor of all nations” (see Haggai 2:6-9; Micah 4:2; Zechariah 2:10-12; 14:14; Isaiah 60)?

   And the nations of those who are saved shall walk in its light, and the kings of the earth bring their glory and honor into it. And they shall bring the glory and the honor of the nations into it. (Revelation 21:24, 26)

† In spiritual terms, what is its most glorious, honorable treasure to be offered by a nation and its king except its holy, spiritual remnant (Haggai 2:6-9; Micah 4:1-2; Zechariah 2:10-12)? Like Messianic kingdom, heaven is multi-national.

† May also indicate the universal acknowledgement of God’s glory (Isaiah 60).

Church or Heaven?

† Preterists often apply this vision of the heavenly city to the present church. Fit?

† Follows millennium (20:2-7), longest time period specified in the Bible.

† Follows dissolution of earth and heaven (20:11; 21:1).

† Follows judgment unto water of life or lake of fire (20:15-21:8).

† Rewards are comparable to those blessings provided after death:
   - Wear robes of white (6:11; 7:14).
   - Serve God day and night in His temple in heaven (7:14-17; 11:19; 21:19).
   - Experience no hunger, thirst, nor heat (7:16).
   - Lamb feeds them and wipes away all tears (7:17).
   - Eat of the tree of life in the paradise of God (2:7).
   - Given a crown of life and not hurt by second death (2:10-11).
   - See God’s face which is impossible upon earth (22:4; 1 John 4:12).
   - Reign forever – not just 1000 years (22:5).

† Chronology, description, superlatives and finality fit heaven better than church.

A Pure, Holy City

12. What is not brought into the city? Lessons?

   But there shall by no means enter it anything that defiles, or causes an abomination or a lie, but only those who are written in the Lamb’s Book of Life. (Rev. 21:27)

† Indicates requirement for holiness (Zechariah 5, 14):

   As He who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct, because it is written, “Be holy, for I am holy.” (1 Peter 1:15-16)

† Also indicates requirement to be acknowledged by Jesus (Matthew 7:21-23).

The Glory and Honor of Nations

11. In what way is “the glory and the honor of nations” brought into the city? What is the “glory and honor of all nations” (see Haggai 2:6-9; Micah 4:2; Zechariah 2:10-12; 14:14; Isaiah 60)?

   And the nations of those who are saved shall walk in its light, and the kings of the earth bring their glory and honor into it. And they shall bring the glory and the honor of the nations into it. (Revelation 21:24, 26)

† In spiritual terms, what is its most glorious, honorable treasure to be offered by a nation and its king except its holy, spiritual remnant (Haggai 2:6-9; Micah 4:1-2; Zechariah 2:10-12)? Like Messianic kingdom, heaven is multi-national.

† May also indicate the universal acknowledgement of God’s glory (Isaiah 60).

Church or Heaven?

   - Experience no hunger, thirst, nor heat (7:16).
   - Lamb feeds them and wipes away all tears (7:17).
   - Eat of the tree of life in the paradise of God (2:7).
   - Given a crown of life and not hurt by second death (2:10-11).
   - See God’s face which is impossible upon earth (22:4; 1 John 4:12).
   - Reign forever – not just 1000 years (22:5).

† Chronology, description, superlatives and finality fit heaven better than church.

The Glory and Honor of Nations

11. In what way is “the glory and the honor of nations” brought into the city? What is the “glory and honor of all nations” (see Haggai 2:6-9; Micah 4:2; Zechariah 2:10-12; 14:14; Isaiah 60)?

† May also indicate the universal acknowledgement of God’s glory (Isaiah 60).
Paradise Regained
Revelation 22:1-5

The River of Life
1. What flowed through the city? Where else is this symbol used in the New Testament? What does its usage here suggest?

And he showed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding from the throne of God and of the Lamb.

† A river watered the paradise of the Garden of Eden (Genesis 2:10).
† Jesus offered the “water of life” to the Samaritan woman (John 4:10-14).
† Foreshadowed in Ezekiel’s Messianic vision of river flowing out from under the temple threshold to the sea, healing the sea, and providing perennial fruit trees (Ezekiel 47:1-12).

The Tree of Life
2. What grew in the city, and what did it provide? Where else is this symbol used in Scripture? How is it used here?

In the middle of its street, and on either side of the river, was the tree of life, which bore twelve fruits, each tree yielding its fruit every month. The leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

† “The tree of life” originally was located in the Garden of Eden (Genesis 2:9).
† Man was denied access to it after his fall (Genesis 3:22-24).
† Substantial allusions in Messianic symbol of bountiful trees with fruit for food and leaves for healing (Ezekiel 47:7-11).
† Incidentally, this symbol of life-giving is also applied to wisdom, soul-winning, realized hope, and a “wholesome tongue” (Proverbs 3:18; 11:30; 13:12; 15:4).

Better than Eden
3. How does this final scene resolve the conflicts and questions that arose in Gen. 3?

And he showed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding from the throne of God and of the Lamb.

† Both the curse and death from Genesis 3 have ceased.
† A tree of life and a paradise better than Eden is regained because man dwells with God, sees Him face to face without any fear. Man is finally reconciled to God (John 1:18; 1 John 4:12; 2 Corinthians 5:17-21; 1 John 3:1-2).
† Notice recurring emphasis on no night or need of sun because God is the light.
† Man finally realizes the ultimate activity in service to God (Ecc. 3:10-11; 12:13).
† Here, man achieves his ultimate victory and home “reign forever and ever”.

An Untied Loose End?
4. What remains unresolved or unsettled at this point? What is left to accomplish or decide?

. And they shall reign forever and ever. (Revelation 22:5)

† This represents the conclusion of all things, the happy ending – “they lived happily ever after”.
† At this point in the timeline of Revelation, all things are concluded and satisfied.
† All that remains undecided is us. Will we “overcome him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, and they did not love their lives to the death” (12:11)?
† Notice recurring emphasis on no night or need of sun because God is the light.
† Man finally realizes the ultimate activity in service to God (Ecc. 3:10-11; 12:13).
† Incidentally, this symbol of life-giving is also applied to wisdom, soul-winning, realized hope, and a “wholesome tongue” (Proverbs 3:18; 11:30; 13:12; 15:4).

Urgency and Immediacy of Application
Revelation 22:6-21
“Faithful and True”

5. Throughout this book multiple things and people are designated as “faithful and true.”
What is the significance generally attached by this label, and how is it used here?

A. “And to the angel of the church of the Laodiceans write, ‘These things says the Amen, the Faithful and True Witness, the Beginning of the creation of God’” (2:14)

B. Now I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse. And He who sat on him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness He judges and makes war (19:11)

C. Then He who sat on the throne said, “Behold, I make all things new.” And He said to me, “Write, for these words are true and faithful.” And He said to me, “It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. I will give of the fountain of the waters of life freely to him who thirsts.” (21:5-6)

D. Then he said to me, “These words are faithful and true.” And the Lord God of the holy prophets sent His angel to show His servants the things which must shortly take place. (22:6)

† Absolutely dependable, certain message – as dependable as Jesus Himself.

John Worships the Angel – Again

8. What can we learn from John’s second attempt to worship the angel? What does this imply about the message, nature of angels, and nature of God?

Now I, John, saw and heard these things. And when I heard and saw, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel who showed me these things. Then he said to me, “See that you do not do that. For I am your fellow servant, and of your brethren the prophets, and of those who keep the words of this book. Worship God.” (Rev. 22:8-9)

† Indicates overwhelming power of this message. Lack of similar reaction indicates our lack of meditation, understanding, and imagination to appreciate similarly.

† Failure of this hero – twice – points to the genuine authorship and divine revelation.

† Indicates urgency and imminent time of application, fulfillment.

† God truly wants everyone to be saved (2 Peter 3:9; 1 Timothy 2:4; James 1:13).

† God truly wants everyone to be saved (2 Peter 3:9; 1 Timothy 2:4; James 1:13).

† Indicates urgency and imminent time of application, fulfillment.

† Applied to destruction of temple by Antiochus Epiphanes (8:26) and Jerusalem, 600 years later, “many days yet to come” (Daniel 10:14; 12:1-3, 7, 11).

† If 600 years ago you are far too late now, 2000 years be too close to close?

“Must Shortly Take Place”

6. What is said that indicates this book applied to events close to the people of the 1st century? How can this be reconciled with parts of chapters 20-22 which seem to refer to the end of the world and eternity in heaven, events transpiring 2000 years later?

Then he said to me, “These words are faithful and true.” And the Lord God of the holy prophets sent His angel to show His servants the things which must shortly take place. (19:11)

† Can 2000 years later be in any way considered “shortly” or “quickly”?

† The chapters of Revelation depict 3 times of judgment:
  • Imminent judgment of churches to whom epistle was written (1:3).
  • Prolonged, incremental judgment of Roman capital, empire, and religion (4-19).
  • Sudden end of the world, judging the Devil and all people – living and dead (20-22).

† What is the significance generally attached by this label, and how is it used here?

† Indicates urgency and imminent time of application, fulfillment.

“Amen, the Faithful and True Witness, the Beginning of the creation of God” (2:14).

† Applied to destruction of temple by Antiochus Epiphanes (8:26) and Jerusalem, 600 years later, “many days yet to come” (Daniel 10:14; 12:1-3, 7, 11).

† If 600 years ago you are far too late now, 2000 years be too close to close?

“Keep the Words of this Book”

7. How would one “keep the words of the prophecy of this book”? What does it require of men?

† Do not forget them and become discouraged (6:9-11; 11:1-10; 12:10-17).

† Remember them and draw comfort and hope from them (7:9-17; 14:12-13; 21-22).

† Obey the commands to abstain from immorality and defilement (18:4-5).

† Do not be drawn into fellowship and compromise with recipients of judgment and desolation (13:14-15; 14:7-12).

† Follow the pattern of faithfulness, confession and endurance demonstrated by godly saints who have gone before us, “whose faith follow” (Revelation 12:11; Hebrews 13:7).

“Do Not Seal – Time is at Hand”

9. Why was John told to “not seal the words of the prophecy of this book”? In contrast, what Old Testament prophet was instructed to seal up his prophecy? What reason was given to him? What was the object of fulfillment for his prophecy? How does this help us interpret the book?

And he said to me, “Do not seal the words of the prophecy of this book, for the time is at hand.” (Revelation 22:10)

† Indicates urgency and imminent time of application, fulfillment.

† But you, Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book until the time of the end. Many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall increase. “Do you way, Daniel, for the words are closed up and sealed till the time of the end. Many shall be purified, made white, and refined, but the wicked shall do wickedly, and none of the wicked shall understand, but the wise shall understand.” (Daniel 12:4-10; also, 8:26)

† Applied to destruction of temple by Antiochus Epiphanes (8:26) and Jerusalem, 600 years later, “many days yet to come” (Daniel 10:14; 12:1-3, 7, 11).

† If 600 years ago you are far too late now, 2000 years be too close to close?

“Be Unjust Still, Filthy Still”

10. Why would God want the “unjust” and “filthy” to continue in their sins? How can this be reconciled with 2 Peter 3:9 and a God who wants everyone to repent and be saved?

† “He who is unjust, let him be unjust still; he who is filthy, let him be filthy still; he who is righteous, let him be righteous still; he who is holy, let him be holy still” (Rev. 22:11).

† God truly wants everyone to be saved (2 Peter 3:9; 1 Timothy 2:4; James 1:13).

† As a consequence, He is extremely patient giving every opportunity (2 Peter 3:9).

† However, there comes a point where patience will not help (“there is no remedy.” 2 Chr. 36:26).

† At that point, only judgment remains, and it need not be delayed!

† “So do not pray for this people, or lift up a cry or prayer for them, for I will not hear them in the time that they cry out to Me because of their trouble.” (Jeremiah 11:14)
Preparing for judgment by repentance, rededication is all that mattered then & now. Do not be a Recognize your need? Are you (Images) All who are good and honorable are pulling for us, wanting us to answer invitation. The angels also are invested in our salvation, wanting us to be saved (Images). Jesus is the Judge (Images). desires, let him take the water of life freely and the Offspring of David, the Bright and Morning Star (Images). Jesus' judgment is unavoidable – nobody before or after Him offering alternatives. Judgment will be based on our works – not intentions, family, wealth, status, etc. whoever loves and practices a lie are dogs and sorcerers and sexually immoral and murderers and idolaters, and the right to the tree of life, and may enter through the gates into the city. But they will be placed outside the city, suffering torment day and night. (Revelation 22:11-13). The Son of Man will appear in heaven, and then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. (Matthew 24:30). Jesus said to him, “It is as you said. Nevertheless, I say to you, hereafter you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of the Power, and coming on the clouds of heaven.” (Matthew 26:64).

Unescapable, Imminent Judgement
12. What contrast is again emphasized by Jesus? Why is this being repeated? (And behold, I am coming quickly, and My reward is with Me, to give to every one according to his work.” (Revelation 22:12).)
11. Almost 2000 years have passed since Jesus left and promised to return, “coming quickly”? Even if He returned today, how could that be considered “quickly”? Or, is something else under consideration?
† Refers to His judgment on the churches and Rome. That was imminent.
† Jesus’ return is often connected with judgment of nations and peoples in time – for example, destruction of Jerusalem foretold by Jesus. Then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in heaven, and then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. (Matthew 24:30).
† “Dogs” symbolize living like animals without moral restraint (Deu. 23:17-18) and rejecting God’s teaching (Psalms 22:16, 20; Philippians 3:2; 2 Peter 2:22).
† Obedience would bring blessing, immorality – otherwise, condemnation.
† Premature for judgment by repentance, rededication is all that mattered then & now.

Jesus, the Spirit, and the Bride Invite
17. Why are the number, nature, and identity of the people inviting us especially encouraging?
† Jesus is the Judge (22:12; John 5:22), and He does not want anyone to be lost (2 Peter 3:9; 1 Timothy 2:4).
† The “Bright and Morning Star” indicates a new day and a clear direction.
† The angels also are invested in our salvation, wanting us to be saved (Heb. 1:14).
† The Spirit is the Revelator, Comforter (John 14:16-18, 26; 16:7), and He also wants us to be saved.
† The Bride, consisting of all who have been saved before us, want us to be saved.
† All who are good and honorable are pulling for us, wanting us to answer invitation.
† Recognize your need? Are you “thirsty”? Not for those content with present world.

Bonus: The Seven Blessings
17. Seven blessings are dispersed throughout the letter. Find them and record them here. Blessed is he who reads and those who hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written in it, for the time is near. (Revelations 22:10-11). Then I heard a voice from heaven saying to me, “Write: ‘Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on.’” (Revelations 20:14). For I testify to everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book, if anyone adds to these things, God will add to him the plagues that are written in this book, and if anyone takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part from the Book of Life, from the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book. (Revelations 22:18-19). If anyone has an ear to hear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes I will grant to eat of the Tree of Life, and may enter through the gates into the city. But the cowardly, the unbelieving, the abominable, the murderers, the fornicators, the idolaters, all liars, will have their part in the lake of fire and brimstone, which is the second death. (Revelations 22:14-15). And My reward is with Me, to give to every one according to his work. (Revelations 22:12). The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

“I Am Coming Quickly”
“And behold, I am coming quickly, and My reward is with Me, to give to every one according to his work.” (Revelation 22:12).
14. What warning is attached to this book? Does it only apply to the book of Revelation?
† Why or why not?
For I testify to everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book, if anyone adds to these things, God will add to him the plagues that are written in this book, and if anyone takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part from the Book of Life, from the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book. (Revelations 22:18-19).
† No, many other books have similar, but even broader warnings: Deu. 4:2; 5:32; 12:32; 17:9-13; Psa. 4:26-27; Jos. 1:7; 23:6; Psa. 89:34; 1 Cor. 4:6; 2 Cor. 11:3-4; Gal. 1:6-9; Heb. 7:12-14; 2 Pet. 3:16-18.
† There is a way that seems right to a man, But its end is the way of death. (Proverbs 14:12; 16:25; 12:15; 16:2; 28:26).
I AM LORD. I know the way of man is not in himself: It is not in man who walks to direct his own steps. (Jeremiah 10:23).
† Do not be a Jezebel (Jeremiah 36:23).

“I Am Coming Quickly” – Again
15. Why does Jesus remind one last time, “Surely I am coming quickly”? Lessons?
† For many reasons, we too easily forget even the most deeply impressed convictions (Exodus 32:1-8; Matthew 13:20-22; 2 Timothy 2:3-5).
† Vigilance, steadfastness, remembering the imminent judgment and blessings would help protect.
† Although “quickly” is synonymous with “at hand” in the context (22:6-7, 11-12), it is profitable to recall that it will also be quick in the sense of sudden and unexpected (Matthew 24:42-25:13; 1 Thessalonians 5:1-4; 2 Peter 3:10).
Bonus: The Seven Blessings

17. Seven blessings are dispersed throughout the letter. Find them and record them here.

Blessed and holy is he who has part in the first resurrection. Over such the second death has no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with Him a thousand years. (20:6)

"Behold, I am coming quickly! Blessed is he who keeps the words of the prophecy of this book." (22:7)

"Blessed are those who do His commandments, that they may have the right to the tree of life, and may enter through the gates into the city." (22:14)

† Blessings help us understand some of the most important lessons and application of the book ...

---

Lessons? Overall and Specific?

16. What is the overall lesson of this book? What are the most important lessons you have learned from the study of this book? How will this affect your outlook on life, decisions you make, and commitment to Christ?

† How does it apply to us, if it originally applied to Christians of the first few centuries?
• Abolish, secularization, humanism, stereotypical indulged generation – worldly-mind and material.
• Militant, secularized Islam – persecuting Christians and Christianity.
• Homosexual and Transgender Campaigns – oppressed to Christian morality and even Christianity.
• Hollywood, News Media, Pornography – mocks Christianity and reduces the world’s sin.
• Abortion Campaign – deprived, organized, murdering hundreds of thousands babies.

† What are the great threats of our day? How would they compare with the world empire of Rome, its pagan emperor worship, and its sensual, corrupt capital?

• Atheism, secularism, humanism; stereotypical indulged generation – worldly-mind and material.
• Militant, secularized Islam – persecuting Christians and Christianity.
• Homosexual and Transgender Campaigns – oppressed to Christian morality and even Christianity.
• Hollywood, News Media, Pornography – mocks Christianity and reduces the world’s sin.
• Abortion Campaign – deprived, organized, murdering hundreds of thousands babies.

† Eliminates the fear of death (Heb. 2:15; Rev. 12:11). Offers surpassing fear (hell) and hope (heaven).

† Most complete description of the hope that inspires us to press on – heaven with God (Heb. 6:19).
† Shows God is just, righteous & active, although His timetable may be slower than our desire (2 Pet. 3:9).
† Emphasizes that so many “important” things are irrelevant, trivializing and eliminating our daily worries:
  • Wealth (Matthew 6:26).
  • Health.
  • Earthly relationships (Matthew 10:21-24).
  • Conveniences, luxuries, sports, entertainment, distractions, vacations and gadgets …
  • All that matters is one relationship with God and helping others to share the same.

† Emphasizes the value of God’s family who truly choose Him, truth, and thereby each other.
† Raises our bar for mental toughness, determination, suffering – eliminating pity parties.
† Scandalizes our resistance to moral restraints (modesty, sexual purity, alcohol, drugs, etc.).
† Emphasizes the value of God’s family who truly choose Him, truth, and thereby each other.
