Lesson 1 — By Grace, Teach No Other Doctrine

I Timothy 1:1-20

Who Was Timothy?

We are first introduced to Timothy on Paul's second missionary journey:

Then he came to Derbe and Lystra. And behold, a certain disciple was there, named Timothy, the son of a certain Jewish woman who believed, but his father was Greek. He was well spoken of by the brethren who were at Lystra and Iconium. Paul wanted to have him go on with him. And he took him and circumcised him because of the Jews who were in that region, for they all knew that his father was Greek. (Acts 16:1-3 NKJ)

Most likely because of Timothy's Jewish ancestry, he was circumcised to enable him to more easily associate with conscientious Jews, who would not have readily understood the new liberty regarding old customs (I Corinthians 7:18-20; 9:19-23; Galatians 2:1-5). His good reputation among brethren in multiple cities and willingness to accompany Paul in the Lord's missionary work demonstrates a commendable example. Timothy continued to manifest a diligent and trustworthy dedication, often being sent ahead or left behind by Paul to work with established churches (Acts 17:14-15; 18:5; 19:22; 20:4; I Corinthians 4:17; 16:10-11; I Thessalonians 3:2-6). Paul clearly held him in high regard, elevating him to special pedestal more than once (I Timothy 1:2, 18; II Timothy 1:2; Philippians 2:12-20; I Corinthians 16:10).

Introduction and Theme

The opening of this first epistle finds Timothy again entrusted with the work of preaching and teaching for a local church, Ephesus, in this case. Paul wrote this letter to Timothy, most likely in the fall of 63 A.D., after Paul's first Roman imprisonment and before his second, which ended with Paul's execution. He indicated that the theme or purpose of his writing was so “that you may know how you ought to conduct yourself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth” (I Timothy 3:15). Throughout the letter, truth is emphasized. Whether the application is knowing it, practicing it, or teaching it, holding fast to the truth is the principal theme and purpose. Although much of Paul's instruction for Timothy pertains to his specific work as an evangelist, when we read what Timothy was supposed to teach and set in order, then we can learn what we need to do and teach as the church of the Lord.

Bible Reading With Questions

Greeting – I Timothy 1:1-2

1. Why might it have been important for Paul to designate himself as “an apostle of the Lord Jesus Christ”?

2. How might a “true son” be different than just a “son”? What does this say about Timothy?

No Other Doctrine – I Timothy 1:3-11

3. What doctrine was to be avoided? Why?

4. Are we not supposed to have any “disputes”? Explain.
5. What is God's command supposed to produce? List some alternative methods that men use in trying to achieve the same goal?

6. Why do some become teachers? Lessons?

7. How might one use the law “unlawfully”?

8. For whom is the law? For whom is it not intended? What does this mean?

9. How do we know what qualifies as “any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine”?

Glory to God For His Grace – I Timothy 1:12-17

10. What did Paul need to become a preacher of Jesus' gospel?

11. Why might Paul have considered himself, “chief of sinners”?

12. Why did Paul receive such mercy?

13. By implication, what would Timothy need to fulfill his charge? How should this have made Timothy (and by extension, us) feel?

Fight the Good Fight – I Timothy 1:18-20

14. How was Timothy to use prophecies about him to “wage the good warfare”?

15. What was the “good warfare” that he was supposed to “wage”? What does this phrase mean?

16. What does it mean to “deliver one to Satan”?
Lesson 2 – Prayers For And From All Men

I Timothy 2:1-15

Summary

Chapter 1 closed with a powerful charge, “wage the good warfare”. But, it also closed with an ominous warning. The faith of some had “suffered shipwreck”, and as a consequence, Paul “delivered them to Satan”. In light of this charge and warning, chapter 2 opens with the need for prayers to be raised for all men, especially for leaders in government. The aim of these prayers was to secure a “quiet and peaceable life”, which would allow Christians to grow and Christianity to spread more easily. Paul reminds them of God's natural desire for all to be saved, and the Ransom and Mediator that God provided to procure this salvation. After reminding Timothy of his mission and authority as an apostle, Paul provides instructions on men leading prayer and women learning quietly. Emphasis is placed on the woman's inner “adornment”, as opposed to her outer decorations. Although her role may have extra physical challenges, her spiritual salvation is assured based on her spiritual character.

Bible Reading With Questions

Desire For All To Be Saved – I Timothy 2:1-2

1. Paul begins the chapter with, “Therefore, I exhort first of all that supplications ... be made for all men.” The logical conjunction, “therefore”, indicates that the point of verse 1 is a logical result or conclusion of the previous verses in chapter 1. How does chapter 1 produce this command in chapter 2, verse 1?

2. How is God's desire for all to be saved helped or realized by these prayers for all men?

One Desire and Mediator for All – I Timothy 2:3-7

3. The false doctrine of “limited atonement” teaches that Jesus only died for a small part of humanity, thereby limiting the people who could be saved. Do verses 4-6 support this belief?

4. What does it mean to be a mediator? How is Jesus uniquely qualified in our case?

5. Can we pray to Jesus' mother, Mary, as additional mediator? Why or why not?

6. What was unexpected or troubling about Paul's mission that may explain his interruption, “I am speaking the truth in Christ and not lying”?

Unhindered Prayers and Woman's Role – I Timothy 2:8-15

7. Why the “therefore” in the opening of verse 8? How do you logically connect verse 7 to 8?
8. Are men required to physically hold up their hands while praying? What does this phrase mean?

9. Paul says this was “his desire”. Does that mean the instructions on women were his personal opinion, not a command? Explain.

10. Do verses 9-10 forbid women from wearing braids, earrings, necklaces, or expensive clothing? Explain.

11. May a woman answer questions in Bible class, or can she not make a sound (“be in silence”)?

12. What is the basis for Paul's command on the woman’s relative role?

13. What does it mean, “she will be saved in childbearing”? Does a woman have to bear children to be saved? If a woman dies in childbearing, can we conclude that she was either unfaithful, unloving, unholy, or undisciplined? Explain.
Lesson 3 – The Pillar and Ground of Truth

I Timothy 3:1-16

Summary

In this chapter, we are introduced to the purpose of Paul's writing, “so that you may know how you ought to conduct yourself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth.” Under this broad umbrella and theme, we can fit each of the topics we have discussed and will discuss. In this chapter, Paul gives Timothy the qualifications for the two offices that should be filled in every local church, elders and deacons. The basic gist of the grand truth upheld by the church is summarized as a “great mystery”, once kept secret, but now revealed (Colossians 1:26).

Bible Reading With Questions

Qualifications of Elders – I Timothy 3:1-7

1. Should a man be “guilted” or pushed into becoming an elder?

2. Is this an honorary position? What kind of office is that of elder?

3. Are these list of qualifications optional? In other words, may an elder “grow into” these qualifications after being appointed? How do you know?

4. Given these qualifications (NKJV), explain why these might be necessary:
   ✓ blameless
   ✓ husband of one wife
   ✓ temperate
   ✓ sober-minded
   ✓ of good behavior
   ✓ hospitable
   ✓ able to teach
   ✓ not given to wine
   ✓ not violent
   ✓ not greedy for money
   ✓ gentle
   ✓ not quarrelsome
   ✓ not covetous
   ✓ rules his own house well, having children in submission with all reverence
   ✓ not a novice
   ✓ good testimony among those who are outside

5. Can we make any exceptions to these qualifications, even temporarily? Why or why not?
Qualifications of Deacons – I Timothy 3:8-13

6. Are the qualifications the same for deacons as they are for elders? Then, why did Paul say, “likewise, deacons must be ...”? What is the connection? How are deacons to be like elders?

7. Given these qualifications for deacons (NKJV), explain why these might be necessary:
   - reverent
   - not double-tongued
   - not given to much wine
   - not greedy for money
   - holding the mystery of the faith with a pure conscience
   - first be tested … being found blameless
   - reverent wives
   - wives not slanderers
   - temperate wives
   - wives, faithful in all things.
   - Husbands of one wife
   - ruling children and houses well

8. What two things does a deacon's service obtain for him? How might this happen?

9. May a woman serve as a deacon, a “deaconess” (Romans 16:1, see NRS, RSV, and TNIV)?

Conduct in the House of God, the Pillar and Ground of Truth – I Timothy 3:14-16

10. How is the church to be “the pillar and ground of truth”?

11. To whom and to what events do these components of the “mystery of godliness” refer?
   - Manifested in the flesh
   - Justified in the Spirit
   - Seen by angels
   - Preached among the Gentiles
   - Believed on in the world
   - Received up in glory
Lesson 4 – Continuing In The Doctrine

I Timothy 4:1-16

Summary
Timothy has already been entrusted to charge others to “teach no other doctrine”, but now Paul explicitly warns him that there will be false teachers, who will “depart from the faith”. Specific false doctrines are foretold, warned against, and corrected. Timothy is again admonished to keep faithfully – in both teaching and practice – to the “good doctrine”. Emphasis is placed on developing the spiritual body through godly exercise, which provides benefit now and after death. This spiritual benefit is the point of all teachers' and believers' work and suffering. Timothy is directed to be an example to believers in every aspect of his life: teaching, living, attitude, and character. Continual reading, meditation, and devotion to the doctrine would be key to his spiritual growth as a person and teacher. He would need to guard himself and his teaching, if he was to save himself and his hearers.

Bible Reading With Questions

Departure From the Faith by False Teachers – I Timothy 4:1-5

10. How is God the “Savior of all men, especially of those who believe”? Is this teaching universalism, the notion that all people will be saved, regardless of their conduct?
Take Heed to Yourself and the Doctrine – I Timothy 4:12-16

11. How would we prevent anyone from “despising our youth”?

12. How do we make “evident progress” in our spiritual growth?

13. Why was it important for Timothy to “take heed to himself and the doctrine”? Lessons?
Lesson 5 – Honoring Older Members

I Timothy 5:1-25

Summary

Although Timothy was to “let no one despise his youth”, he was not free to bully others. Paul provides instructions for how Timothy was to privately exhort older men, older women, and younger women, as if they were his own family members. Widows who are truly abandoned and unable to sustain themselves, are qualified and authorized for regular church support. Younger widows are admonished to marry again and resume their work of women, wives, and mothers. Elders are authorized for financial and spiritual honor. They could be paid for their work as elders, and they were to be treated respectfully. Accusations were to be received only by two or three witnesses, but unrepentant elders were to be ultimately rebuked publicly. Finally, Timothy is exhorted to act carefully and without prejudice, realizing that some men’s true character is not evident at first.

Lesson 6 – Fight The Good Fight of Faith

I Timothy 6:1-21

Summary
Chapter 6 begins by closing a theme of honoring those due honor from chapter 5, specifically masters of bondservants. The letter’s conclusion begins in verse 3 with instructions again on how the church is to deal with stubborn, false teachers. Greed is noted as a common motivator for false teachers, which serves as a reminder and warning for all Christians to learn to be content. Unable to carry earthly treasures to heaven, Paul warns those who seek riches, that they might not reach heaven with such misplaced, vulnerable desires. Instead, Paul admonishes Timothy and us to pursue a spiritual life of godliness, which will be a spiritual fight and struggle, won by faith. Paul lifts a standard of perfection for Timothy and us to pursue, worthy of the exalted One Who secured for us mercy. Final instructions are resumed and given for the rich to be trusting, generous, and spiritual. Lastly, Paul reminds Timothy to guard the truth given him and to avoid the destructive “knowledge” offered by false teachers.

Lesson 7 – Maintaining Truth

Titus 1:1-16

Who was Titus?

Titus was a traveling companion of Paul, who was much like Timothy. He was young enough to be considered “a son”, like Timothy (Titus 1:4; 1 Timothy 1:2). Like Timothy, he also carried epistles for Paul to cities, cared for congregations, and carried reports back to Paul (2 Corinthians 2:13; 7:6-16; 8:6, 16-24; 12:17-19). Unlike Timothy, Titus was a Greek and was not circumcised (Acts 16:1-3):

Then after fourteen years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and also took Titus with me. And I went up by revelation, and communicated to them that gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but privately to those who were of reputation, lest by any means I might run, or had run, in vain. Yet not even Titus who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised. (Galatians 2:1-3).

Beyond this, Titus had left for another city, as Paul approached his execution (II Timothy 4:10).

Introduction and Theme

Similar to Timothy, Paul had left Titus in a city to edify a congregation, specifically Crete. Probably written in the fall of 63 A.D., and much like Timothy's letter, Titus' epistle from Paul also focused on the importance of teaching truth, organizing the local church according to God's design, and encouraging people to be faithful as individuals in “maintaining good works”. Sound doctrine, wholesome teaching, and self-consistent truth are repeatedly emphasized; however, their goal and application for the people to “maintaining good works” is stressed so frequently that we may consider it the theme. Titus was to be careful to both obey and teach sound doctrine, while exhorting the church's members to do the same, which we should also observe and follow. This first chapter focuses on appointing elders to properly deal with false teachers, who would undermine sound doctrine and its application.

Lesson 8 — Sound Doctrine for a Special People

Titus 2:1-15

Summary

Sound doctrine, or wholesome teaching, is provided for each individual, which is appropriate based on age and gender. Emphasis is placed on older women teaching the younger women, which would help supplement Titus' work to admonish “younger women as sisters with all purity”. Like Timothy, Titus is instructed to live his teaching, eliminating the accusers' false charges. Bondservants are admonished to “wear” the Lord's doctrine in relation to their service to their masters. The purpose of God's universal grace is summarized in application to Christians and their new spiritual life. Emphasis is placed on both teaching these things and teaching with the authority granted him.

Lesson 9 – Maintain Good Works

Titus 3:1-15

Summary

The importance of “maintaining good works” is repeatedly stressed in this closing chapter. Saints are encouraged to submit to authorities and to be humble, which stands in sharp contrast to their past character and motivations. This character was dispelled by God's kindness, which He manifested by saving us through grace. (If He could be gracious to His enemies, then how much more should we be gracious to our brothers?) Although we are justified and made heirs by grace, we are to live like our Father, whose life we are to inherit, by maintaining good works, which are helpful to all. Again, divisive people are condemned and are to be rejected. Closing instructions are provided to help Titus hand off his work to incoming helpers, and the critical lesson – maintain good works – is again emphasized.

Lesson 10 — Suffer With Me

II Timothy 1:1-18

Historical Background

The book of Acts closed with the beginning of Paul's first Roman imprisonment (Acts 28:30-31), which leaves us with little inspired accounting of what transpired next. According to history, the timeline recorded in Acts, and Paul's plans mentioned incidentally in his epistles, we can establish that Paul was most likely imprisoned in the spring of 61 A.D. During this first Roman imprisonment, Paul most likely wrote the epistles to the Ephesians, Colossians, Philippians, and Philemon. After being released in the spring of 63 A.D., Paul no doubt traveled to various churches and cities, while visiting and preaching. During this time, most likely in the fall of 63 A.D., Paul would have written I Timothy and Titus. In July of 64 A.D., Rome was burned, and the emperor, Nero, apparently used the Christians as “scapegoats”. He began a fierce persecution against the Christians that would rage off and on under the cruel hand of multiple Roman emperors until 305 A.D, when Diocletian, the last persecuting Roman emperor died. The persecution officially ended in 313 A.D., when Constantine issued his “Edict of Toleration”.

Introduction and Theme

The climate changed dramatically with the instigation of the Roman persecution in 64 A.D. Paul was captured shortly thereafter and beheaded in 65 or 66 A.D. II Timothy was written during Paul's second and final Roman imprisonment, shortly before his execution. Although Paul knew that his execution was imminent (II Timothy 4:6-8), his final, personal epistle exhibits a hopeful, encouraging, and even triumphant tone (II Timothy 4:8, 17-18). Reoccurring themes of security, trust, hope, and faithfulness fill this closing letter, which prompt the primary charge and lesson, as summarized in II Timothy 4:2, 5.

Lesson 11 — Endure With Me

II Timothy 2:1-26

Summary
Great pressure and burden was placed on Timothy. In spite of growing persecution, he was asked to seek faithful men, who could faithfully pass the truth on to others, who would in turn do the same. This would require Timothy to “endure hardship”. To help him, Paul instructs Timothy how to be strong and endure this hardship using 3 analogies: a soldier, an athlete, and a farmer. Paul expected Timothy to meditate on these comparisons and learn lessons to help him grow stronger. Paul expresses the hope and promises that drive him to endure through his suffering, which both we and Timothy are to adopt to help us do the same. Again, Paul stresses the importance of focused Bible study, avoiding false doctrine and profitless issues. Hymenaeus and Philetus are specifically mentioned as some who with their false doctrine had “overthrown the faith of some”. The security of God's Word and standing on it are stressed, so we can avoid a similar fate. Paul urges Timothy to maintain purity, so that he can serve the Lord. Finally, instruction is provided on how to correct those in error, so that they may have the best opportunity to be rescued by the Lord from Satan.

Lesson 12 – Be Persecuted With Me

II Timothy 3:1-17

Summary

In this chapter Paul warns of evil men, who will come and afflict the church. They will have dark, rebellious, and destructive character, and as a consequence, they are to be rejected. Eventually, the Lord will visibly expose the folly of these people, which should satisfy our concerns for justice and soothe our fears for their unchecked influence. Good people, like Timothy, will instead carefully follow the example of spiritual giants, who have gone before us, like Paul. If we live godly, we can expect to suffer persecution, just as did Paul. However, Paul encourages Timothy and us to continue following God's Word, extolling the priceless and irreplaceable blessing its offers.

Lesson 13 – Gain A Crown With Me

II Timothy 4:1-22

Summary

The final chapter in this epistle to Timothy closes with Paul again formally charging Timothy to fulfill his ministry, preach the word, convince, rebuke, and exhort with all longsuffering and teaching. Timothy is more urgently encouraged to teach in advance, because the time will come when people will not “endure sound doctrine”. Paul recognizes that he has fulfilled his ministry, and now the time has come for him to be sacrificed as a “drink offering”, which symbolized his coming execution. Confident of his reward and of similar reward for others like minded, Paul offers Timothy some final closing instructions, desiring for Timothy to come to him quickly. Timothy is told to bring specific articles and people, and he is also warned to avoid certain people. Although Paul stood alone at his first defense, he has a few loyal friends who have not abandoned him. Most importantly, the Lord stood with Paul, strengthening him, so that Paul could finish the task given to him (Acts 9:15). The book closes with another reminder to come quickly, and it ends with a prayerful blessing that the same Lord be with Timothy, Who had also stood with Paul.
